Aasen and Mrs. E. M. Kay being high for the afternoon's play. Those enjoying the afternoon were: Mesdames J. L. Aasen, E. M. Kay, R. E. Boober, E. D. McCune, George Johnson, C. M. Gray, Hal Pierce and the hostess.

The "Monday Night Club" met at the home of Mrs. J. L. Aasen on So. Coulter street Monday at seven-fifteen o'clock for dessert bridge. The evening was pleasantly spent in playing contract bridge. Mrs. Hal Pierce won high score and Mrs. E. M. Kay received the travelling prize. Those present were: Mesdames George Johnson, Fred McNelly, E. M. Kay, Hal Pierce, H. S. Norton, E. D. McCune, Frank Thrift and the hostess.

The "Laf-a-lot club" met at the home of Mrs. E. A. Wimer on So. Henry street Thursday afternoon. The members had a regular get-together after the summer vacations, etc. Sewing, knitting and chatting were the diversions of the afternoon. Delicious refreshments were served late in the afternoon to the following members and guests: Mesdames W. H. Myers, W. E. Cross, Ed. Detlefsen, John Martin, O. K. Rakestraw, Geo.

Gilman, Maggie Simmons, J. W. Ruble and Frank Pook. Mrs. Pook invited the club to meet with her in two weeks.

The contract club of the younger set met at the home of Mrs. Lorraine Perrot Thursday evening. Contract bridge was played throughout the evening. Miss Eunice Carmichael winning high score; Miss Carol Young, second, and Miss Delores Belloni received consolation. Delicious refreshments were served late in the evening by the hostess to the following members and guests: Mesdames Evelyn Elliott, Hazel Foss, Dorothy Fish, Margarita Brodie, Tessie Pook, Fay Waggoner, Maxine Stevens and Misses Eunice Carmichael, Geneva Agostino, Marjorie Knight, Carol Young, and Delores Belloni.

The "Thursday Contract Club" met with Mrs. Richard Arnold, of Myrtle Point, for one o'clock luncheon yesterday. The room and table looked lovely with large bouquets of mixed flowers, the color scheme being orchid and yellow. After a delicious luncheon, the ladies spent the afternoon playing contract bridge. Mrs. C. T. Selbig was the lucky winner of high score and Mrs. Fitzsimmons, of Myrtle Point, received the travelling prize. Those present were Mesdames C. T. Selbig, George Johnson, Jos. Knight, C. P. Zumwalt, from Coquille, and Mesdames John Belloni, John Arnold, Fitzsimmons and the hostess from Myrtle Point.

The Past Noble Grands club meeting has been postponed as Mrs. Skeels is out of town.

Buffet Meals, English Custom
The custom of buffet meals originated in England with the "hunt" breakfast. The main advantages are informality and ease of handling large groups.

Oldest Customs House
The oldest customs house built within the boundaries of the 13 original colonies is in the new Colonial National Historical park at Yorktown, Va.

Choral Club Meets

The Coquille Choral club met Tuesday night for the first time this fall. A short business meeting was held. Officers for the coming season were elected: Mrs. Werner Plaep, president; Aaron Wilson, vice president; Mrs. June Walker, secretary; Mrs. Geo. Bryant, treasurer; Miss Margaret Purvance, librarian.

There was much enthusiasm and renewed interest shown in making plans for the coming year. Twenty-four members were present. It is hoped that before many meetings the number of members will be at least 40.

Dues were discussed but not decided upon. However, a committee was appointed to make arrangements for this matter and bring before the club next meeting to be voted upon.

In view of the coming activities for this year the club is anxious to obtain new members and anyone interested in singing is cordially invited to become a member. Attend the next meeting, Tuesday evening, October 5, 7:30 p. m., at the Baptist church.

Guilty of Contempt

The state of Oregon ex rel Emma C. King vs. Leslie G. King, a contempt case, was heard by Judge Brand in circuit court yesterday. The defendant was adjudged to be in contempt of the court for not paying the $25 a month decreed when the divorce was granted, and he was sentenced to 30 days in jail. A stay of execution was ordered until such time as he fails to meet the monthly payment which was reduced by the court to $15.

Calling cards, 50 for $1.00.

Recruiting Heavier Now

Major H. D. Bagnall, army recruiting officer in Portland, announces today that a total of 92 enlistments were made in the Portland recruiting district during the month of September and with the single exception of September, 1935, it was the heaviest September recruiting in this district in a period covering over 15 years.

The recruiting officer's report also indicates that the quotas from the various stations and organizations for October are due in a few days and that the quota has already been received for service with the historic 7th Infantry at Vancouver Barracks, Washington.

New Manager at Moore Mill

David Miller, of Glendale, Oregon, formerly of Aberdeen, Wash., has been engaged as superintendent of production, sales, and general mill operation for the Moore Hill & Lumber Company at Bandon. He took charge during the past week and has been reorganizing the crews and making changes in view of increasing production. The Moore plant is operating two shifts daily and has a large supply of logs on hand. — Western World.
