Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Webb and Charles made a trip up the coast to Eugene, by way of Florence, Wednesday. They returned home through Roseburg.

Orville Parker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Parker, of Hall's Creek, returned home with his bride from Missouri. The bride and groom are going to live in the H. E. Watkins house near the old shingle mill on Hall's Creek. Monday evening a group of the Arago young folks went up to charivari the newly-weds, but they made so much noise on arriving that the pair heard them and disappeared and the crowd was unable to locate them. Needless to say they searched everywhere but were forced to return home without success. Those present were the Misses Jean Watkins, Annie Dear-dorf, Leatha Mumford, Marguerite and Lois Robison, Maxine Rackleff, Esther Davidson and the Messrs. Charles Webb, Ellis Rackleff, Clyde Lillie, Stephen Aasen, Herbert Carl, Milton Hammack, Everett Doyle and Kenton Myers.
