

ARAGO

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Wallen celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary Sunday. They were married in Missouri Oct. 1, 1887. They came to Oregon 34 years ago. For a number of years they lived in Coquille and they lived in Stringtown, near Myrtle Point for about 18 years but for the past two years have resided in Arago. Present for the occasion, which was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Hampton, were seven daughters: Mrs. F. W. Dunwoodie, of Gardiner; Mrs. G. A. Weeks and Mrs. Chester Root, of Powers; Mrs. Walter Barklow, of Grants Pass; Mrs. Mead Campbell, of Portland; Mrs. George Smith, of Coquille, and Mrs. George Hampton, of Arago; also twice grandchildren were present: Maxine, Evelyn, Mary, Betty Jean, Ruby and Walter Barklow, of Grants Pass, Lois and Alice Root and Bobby Weeks, of Powers, Mrs. Everett Lafferty, of Arago, Mrs. Charles Crook, Jr., of Myrtle Point, and Fatsy Dunwoodie, of Gardiner; three great grandchildren, Evelyn C. Cook, of Myrtle Point, and Allen and Mayne Lee Lafferty, of Arago. Other guests were Chester Root, G. A. Weeks and Lorraine Shepherd, of Powers; F. W. Dunwoodie, of Gardiner; Walter Barklow, of Grants Pass; Geo. Hampton and Everett Lafferty, of Arago; Charles Crook and Katharine Miller, of Myrtle Point; Geo. Smith, of Coquille. This is the first time the entire family have been together for 50 years. The three tier wedding cake was decorated with a miniature bride and groom. They received many beautiful and useful gifts.

The regular weekly bible study was held at the S. C. McAllister home Thursday evening with the following members present: Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Watkins, Mrs. O. H. Aasen, Mr. and Mrs. S. C. McAllister and Mary Jean. The next meeting will be Wednesday evening at eight o'clock instead of Thursday evening and will be at the McAllister home again.

An all-day extension unit meeting was held Friday at the home of Mrs. Ward Evans. Mrs. Jessie Palmer Ingram gave a very interesting talk on "Color for the Individual," which was greatly enjoyed by all present. Miss Esther Davidson, assistant high school teacher, brought her home economics class over to listen to the talk. A lovely potluck luncheon was enjoyed at noon. In the afternoon a short business meeting was held with the chairman, Mrs. Ernest Hammack, in charge. A motion was made that the group send a letter to the county court by a special representative favoring a permanent home demonstration agent for Coos county. The motion was carried and the secretary, Mrs. Earl Edgmon, was instructed to write the letter before the last week in October. Each person desiring that the meetings be continued is also urged to write a personal letter to the court to be in before the last week in October. Those attending the meeting were Mesdames Tyrrell Woodward, O. H. Aasen, H. E. Watkins, Lawrence Rackleff, Ernest Hammack, Reginald Menegat, Gordon Fleming, S. C. McAllister, Ward Evans, Gus Schroeder, Jessie Ingram, Misses Esther Davidson, Bettie Elmdell, Jean Watkins, Gladys Miller, Maxine Rackleff, Marguerite, Lois and Mary Robinson and Edith Maa.
