It Was a Grown-up Party
A cute impromptu party was held at the home of Mrs. June Walker on Knowlton Heights Saturday afternoon with Harriet Walker and Marianne Rackleff as joint hostesses. The guests were invited to appear as grown-ups and they quite outdid themselves as replicas of the older ladies. The children enjoyed themselves by presenting folk dances assisted by Mrs. Walker, and games of all sorts. Prizes were given for the best impersonations. Late in the afternoon refreshments were enjoyed by "these ladies": Barbara and Shirley Slater, Ann Harbison, Nadine Ashworth, Laura Emily Ruble and the hostesses.

Stamper-Kendall
The marriage of Miss Audrey Kendall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Kendall, and Mr. Leo Stamper, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Stamper, of Shelbyville, Ill., was solemnized Sunday morning at six o'clock in a lovely and light ceremony at the bride's home, Rev. W. S. Smith officiating.

The couple were married in front of a beautifully decorated fireplace. The bride wore a lovely rust colored traveling ensemble, with brown accessories. She carried a bouquet of yellow roses. She was attended by her sister, Miss Eileen Kendall, who wore a navy blue chiffon dress and carried a corsage of gardenias. Robert Reid acted as best man for the groom.

Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served to the following guests besides the family: Messrs. and Mesdames Harold Dey, Fred Coleman, Russell Brown and Patty, Robert Reid, Misses Harriet Webb and Margaret Purvance, Mrs. Faye Perrott, Messrs. Harold Burgess, Sperry Seyfert, Elmer Briner and Vic Lyles. Following a week's honeymoon at Currier's Village the happy couple will make their home in the Wilson Apts. The groom is employed by the Smith Wood-Products Co.

Lennis Terry Married in L. A.
Miss Lennis Terry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Terry, of Coquille, was united in marriage October first to Mr. Fred Wright, of Los Angeles, in a lovely church wedding in that city. The church was beautifully decorated and the bride, who was attired in a lovely rust colored gown floor length. She wore gardenias in her hair and carried a bouquet of white rosebuds. The bride was attended by her cousin, Miss Dixie Dean Schoonmaker, who looked lovely in a pale blue moire taffeta gown; she carried a bouquet of pink rosebuds.

After the ceremony which took place at eight o'clock p. m., a reception was held at the home of the groom's mother. This was attended by fifty guests. The happy couple will make their home in Los Angeles, where the groom has a Mission Cleaning and House Decorating business. The bride is a graduate of the Coquille high school, class 1937. She met her husband while vacationing at the home of her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Orr, of Los Angeles. Mr. Orr lived in Coquille for many years.

Pioneer Missionary Society
The Pioneer Missionary Society met in the church parlors last Tuesday for their silver tea. Mrs. Cyril McCurdy had charge of the topic which was: "Missionary Women around the world," presented by the following ladies: Mesdames Georgia Richmond, Etta Ellis and Leland Petersen. The scripture, "Progress through the Gospel," was read by Mrs. Ross Woodcock. A lovely duet was sung by Mrs. June Walker and Mrs. Birdie Skeels. A social time was then enjoyed, followed by refreshments served by the committee: Mesdames Henry Belloni, Warren Davis and George Taylor, Jr., to these ladies: Mesdames Birdie Skeels, B. C. Minard, Etta Ellis, Inez Pinkston, Miranda Way, Georgia Richmond, Walter Oeding, Leland Peart, R. T. Slater, W. A. Ireland, Clyde Minard, Ernest Purvance, Ross Woodcock, Jack Hultin, Sam Noeler, D. Club Notes and Other Social Activities

The Business and Professional Club held a six-thirty o'clock turkey dinner in the Pioneer banquet hall Monday evening to celebrate their twelfth birthday and to honor the ten charter members who still belong to the club, namely: Mesdames Ruth Meyers, Salma Caughell, Bertha Smith, Ida Owen, Georgia Richmond, Leona Bryant, Ives Chase, Marian Grimes and Misses Edna Robinson and Myrtle DeLong. The long "T" shaped table was beautifully decorated with autumn leaves and yellow flowers. Black candles in yellow holders enhanced the attractiveness of the table and a huge five cornered birthday cake surrounded by 13 yellow tapers furnished the crowning touch to artistic achievement. The tapers represented the age of the club with one more, to grow on. At the charter members' plates were cute bud vases as favors.

A welcome to the honored guests and others was extended by the vice president of the club, Mrs. Margarita Brodie. This was responded to by clever remarks from the charter members. The research committee, composed of Mrs. Inez Chase, Mrs. Edith Walton and Mrs. Elsie Cunningham had charge of the banquet. The next meeting of the club will be held in the Pioneer church parlors Monday, November 1. E. J. Loney, of Marshfield, has been engaged as guest speaker for the evening. He will speak on "The History of China." Visitors and guests will be welcome to attend the meeting at 8:30 p. m. Members are requested to meet promptly at eight o'clock for a short business meeting.

Members present to enjoy this birthday party, besides the charter members were: Mesdames Clara Boserman, Harriet Oiska, Edith Walton, Martha Mulkey, Bessie Walker, Gladys Gano, Nellie Wheeler, Naomi Robinson, Isabel Unsold, Jennie Price, Annie Robinson, Clara Stauff, Margarita Brodie, Marjorie Rowland and Misses Inez Rover, Eva Schroeder, Alfa Bang, Catherine Barker, Ruth Towne, Claudia Southard, Beth McGee and Isabel Unsold.

The Royal Neighbors met for their regular meeting in the lodge hall last Wednesday evening. After the session, a surprise handkerchief shower was tendered Mrs. M. D. Sherrard, the occasion being her birthday. A social time was enjoyed, followed by refreshments. Those present were: Mesdames Wm. Jones, Wm. Pearl, Ernie Johnson, G. T. Tharp, Guy Barber, Carl Ensel, George Burr, A. L. Burch, Henry Belloni, M. D. Sherrard, R. M. Waggoner and Mrs. Vernon Hazen, of Eugene.

Several members of Mamie Rebekah Lodge No. 30 motored to Bandon Tuesday evening where they were guests of Ocean Rebekah Lodge at a Halloween party in the Legion Hall. Games, stunts and a square dance furnished plenty of fun for the members and guests. Real Halloween refreshments were served late in the evening. Those attending from here were: Messrs. and Mesdames E. M. Kay, E. L. Benham, R. E. Boober, Mesdames K. P. Lawrence, Hester Holverstad, Henry Belloni and Miss Edith Gruenewald.

Job's Daughters' Bethel No. 15 met in the Masonic Hall Monday evening for their regular meeting. A large group of parents and friends attended and thoroughly enjoyed the work done by the girls. Three girls were initiated: Donna Jean Dunn, Mary Jane Dunn and Betty Jean Sproul. After the meeting light refreshments were served by the committee. Nov. 1st will be the next meeting, owing to the visit of the Grand Guardian Mrs. Charlotte Wing. Marshfield Bethel is to be joint hostess with Coquille. A six o'clock dinner will be served to the guests, the council and the members. October 29th the girls are to hold a Halloween dance in the Masonic banquet hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Culbertson entertained some members of the Neighbors of Woodcraft at their home Monday evening. A very pleasant evening was spent playing games. Delicious refreshments were served late in the evening by the hostess to the following: Mr. and Mrs. Roy Pettengill and Ruth, Mrs. Ella Schroeder, Mrs. Ed Aasen, Mrs. Hurlburt, Mrs. V. L. Bailey, Mrs. A. S. Bean and Mrs. George Holtbrook.

A surprise shower for Mrs. Felix Miller was held at the home of Miss Ida Oeding last Thursday evening. Cards and sewing were enjoyed during the evening, after which dairy refreshments were served to the following ladies: Mesdames Geo. Oeding, Walter Oeding, Chas. Oeding, Margaret Dornath, M. L. Daniels, Louis Baker, Gary Ellison, Christina Barber, Miss Ann Shelly, of Portland, Mrs. E. H. Fish, Mrs. Florence Seeley and the honored guest.
