Mrs. Harry S. Sage, of Grand Junction, Colo., left last Sunday for San Francisco and southern California after spending six weeks here visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. F. G. Leslie.

Mrs. C. E. Niles accompanied Mr. Niles when he left Sunday for Portland to attend the dealers' showing of the 1938 Fords. They as well as Lanis Bosworth and Victor Lisle returned Tuesday.

Mrs. J. R. Bunch has been appointed as contact chairman for the Coquille Woman's Club and the Junior Women's Club, succeeding Mrs. A. L. Beck, who is leaving Coquille this week for her new home in Jacksonville.

The Marshfield Civic club invites the Coquille Woman's club to attend a "Carnival" to be held in the W. O. W. Hall Friday, Dec. 3rd, at 2:30 p. m. Admission 15c. There will be fortunes, raffles, games and a food demonstration.

Mrs. Rose Clinton arrived here Monday evening from Spokane, where she is now making her home. She was summoned because her mother, Mrs. W. L. Beach, who lives a mile and a half out on the Myrtle Point road, was to undergo an operation at the Coquille Hospital.

Mrs. Nellie Prey, who had spent the week in Portland, returned last Saturday, accompanying Mrs. Guss Tillman who drove down to take Mr. Tillman back to Portland on Sunday. Mrs. Prey is to manage the W. W. Tilghman store on North Coulter street while he is away.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Sloan and their daughter, Mrs. Elwyn Noser, are leaving Wednesday afternoon for Chico, Calif., to spend Thanksgiving with Errol Sloan and wife. Mrs. Martha Mulkey and Emma Frances accompanied them to spend a few days with Mrs. Mulkey's mother at Corning. They will all return Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Ulett and Mr. and Mrs. Lafe Compton returned Sunday evening from a trip to San Francisco on which they left last Wednesday. They attended the California-Stanford game at Palo Alto, along with some 80 or 90 thousand others and Lafe says it was the most beautiful and colorful sight he ever saw—the packed stadium. He also says there are millions of ducks on the lagoons this side of Eureka.

County Jail Arrivals
Wm. Austin was brought to the county jail from North Bend on Saturday, with bail set at $200, on a drunken driving charge.

Gordon Lester Cunningham and Albert William Alberson were incarcerated Saturday to serve out $100 fines for unlawful fishing.

Jas. A. Ambrose, alias Joe Urban, a 23-year old youngster from Pennsylvania, was brought to jail here from Marshfield on Sunday. He is charged with burglary not in a dwelling. The sheriff's office states that he broke windows in a garage in an attempt to rob the place, that he robbed a pin ball machine in Marshfield, and also stole a watch from one woman and gave it to another.

Senior Class Ball Committees

Coquille C. of C. Session

Fourteen of the newly elected board of directors for the Coquille Chamber of Commerce were present at the regular meeting of the hotel Tuesday noon. Also present were the secretary, Mrs. J. E. Norton; four members of the Marshfield Chamber of Commerce who are acting on the committee with the Coquille committee to bring about a settlement which will relieve the Smith plant of its pickets and permit the opening of the Port of Coos Bay. Mr. Williams, of Creary & Williams, was also present.

The directors transacted no business except to vote to pay half the rental for the use of the Odd Fellows room for the fox pelt show on Dec. 5, and most of the hour was spent in hearing the committee's report on a possible strike settlement, made by Thos. H. Ness, of Marshfield.
