The Junior Women's contract club met at Miss Geneva Agostino's home last Wednesday evening. Miss Eunice Carmichael won high score prize and Mrs. Evelyn Elliott won consolation. Later lovely refreshments were served to the following: Mesdames Faye Waggoner, Hazel Foss, Evelyn Elliott, Margarita Brodie, Lorraine Perrott, Maxine Stevens and Misses Marjorie Knight, Eunice Carmichael and the hostess.

Mrs. W. E. Bosserman entertained the Ecadriens at her home on Monday afternoon for a delicious luncheon. The afternoon was pleasantly spent sewing, with the following members present: Mesdames J. L. Aasen, Alice Robb, Geo. Battey, Geo. Johnson, Earl Noster, J. E. Ax-tell and the hostess.

At a meeting of Mamie Rebekah Lodge, No. 20, last Wednesday evening, the following officers were elected for the coming year: Noble Grand, Myrtle Benham; Vice Grand, Ena Harless; S. ec., Florabel Boober; Treasurer, Harriet Schaefer.

Mrs. A. L. Beck was most pleasantly surprised when members of the Junior Women's Club came to her home last Wednesday evening and gave her a lovely handkerchief shower. The club also presented her with a gift which told in unspoken words how much she would be missed by each member after her departure for her new home.

Mr. and Mrs. Julius Ruble entertained the Past Matrons and Past Patrons of Beulah Chapter, No. 6, at their home on Friday evening of last week. A lovely eight o'clock dessert luncheon was served by the following committee: Mesdames Bertha Smith, Catherine Ruble and A. J. Sherwood. The rooms were very beautifully decorated with gladiolus and chrysanthemums. Those enjoying the evening were: Mesdames Clara Bosserman, Bertha Smith, Belle Gould, Lorraine Vinton, A. J. Sherwood, Violet Lorenz, Emma Pierce, Mabel Ulett, Susie Folsom, Flora Compton, Misses Edna Robison and Dorris Compton, Messrs. J. E. Norton, George Ulett, Lyle Compton and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Ruble.

Mrs. E. W. Lorenz entertained the Monday night dinner club at her home on that evening this week at a lovely seven o'clock dinner. After the dinner contract was enjoyed by all members present. Mrs. J. A. Lamb held high score for the evening's play and Mrs. Muri Pettit won the travelling prize. The members present were: Mesdames Hal Pierce, Bert Folsom, Ellie Miller, Edna Hartson, Geo. Lorenz, J. L. Smith, Muri Pettit, J. A. Lamb and the hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Ruble entertained several friends and relatives on last Thursday at a lovely Thanksgiving dinner at their home on the Marshfield highway. Those enjoying the dinner were: Mr. and Mrs. Julius Ruble and daughter, Laura Emily, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Fetch and son, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Pook, Miss Evelyn Nelson, T. C. Zösel and the hosts.

Oerding Family Reunion

A reunion of the Oerding family took place Thanksgiving day at the J. H. Oerding home on Henry Street in honor of Mr. Oerding's 83rd birthday.

The rooms were beautifully decorated with chrysanthemums from the California garden of a daughter, Mrs. H. B. Warner, of Sonoma. All of the children and their families were present on this happy occasion.

After a very lovely dinner, a program was furnished by the John C. Oerding family, of North Bend. Virginia and Marjorie Oerding, grandchildren, sang beautifully, accompanied by the Oerding orchestra. Games of all kinds were enjoyed throughout the afternoon and evening.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Walter Oerding and Buzzy and Geraldine, Mr. and Mrs. Felix Miller,

Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Oerding and Robert and Martha Jean, Mr. and Mrs. George E. Oerding, Mr. and Mrs. Gary Ellison and Gary John, Mr. and Mrs. Harry H. Oerding, Miss Ida Oerding, Mrs. Alice Baker, Carl Meigs and J. H. Oerding, all of Coquille; Mr. and Mrs. John C. Oerding, Virginia, Marjorie, John Jr., and Eddie, of North Bend; Mr. and Mrs. William A. Oerding and Jimmie, of Eugene; Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Warner, Mr. and Mrs. Albert A. Oerding, Howard John, Jr., and Miss Billie Sanford, of Sonoma, California; Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Perkins, of Marshfield.

Gladys Williams and Kenneth Miller Married at Corvallis

Miss Gladys Williams and Kenneth Miller, both of Coquille drove out to Corvallis last week and were married on Wednesday at the home of the M. E. pastor. Relatives of the groom and friends in that section attended the ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Williams, of this city, and has been employed in the office at the Smith Wood-Products plant for several months.

The groom, who came here from Monroe, Wash., about a year ago, is a carloading contractor at the Smith plant.

Following the ceremony they went to Portland for their wedding trip and returned to Coquille Sunday evening, and have been receiving the congratulations and good wishes of their wide circle of friends.

Bay 20-30 Club to Present Kryl Orchestra Dec. 9

Music lovers of southwestern Oregon are looking forward to the concert's appearance of Bohumir Kryl and his 45-piece symphony orchestra at the Marshfield armory Thursday evening, December 9. Featured with Kryl on the program will be Mary McCormick, world famous soprano soloist of opera, concert and radio.

It will be Kryl's first appearance on the west coast, although for the past thirty-two years he has toured throughout the east and middle west with his famous orchestra. His Marshfield appearance is sponsored by the Marshfield 20-30 club.

Mr. Kryl, a musician since the first time he was able to blow a tone from his cornet or produce a melodious note from his violin in his native land of Bohemia, came to this country as a youth and has since risen until he is now famous in the annals of American music. For years a member of Sousa's band, he is now recognized as one of the greatest cornetists in the world.

Tickets may be purchased at the door the night of the concert or from any member of the 20-30 club at Marshfield. Brandon's Confectionery is acting as ticket agent in Coquille. No reserve seats; admission for adults $1.10, for children 40 cents.

Double Bill at Liberty Thursday, Friday, Saturday

"Old Wyoming Trail" Thrill-Packed Thrill to the roaring rhythm of these western buckaroos on a gun-blazing, action-packed rampage, seething with adventure and set to heart-stirring music in Columbia's "The Old Wyoming Trail," starring Charles Starrett, showing Thursday, Friday and Saturday at the Liberty Theatre.

This blazing rhythm-packed saga of the western bad lands takes you for a ride on the bandit-ridden trail with a posse of daredevils as they sing a song of death with their six guns.

Aiding and abetting the star, Charles Starrett, in his adventures are Barbara Weeks, Donald Grayson, the singing sensation, the Sons of the Pioneers, radio favorites, Dick Curtis, Ed Le Saint and Art Mix.

Janitors' Meeting Well Attended
The Janitors' meetings at Marshfield and Myrtle Point last week were well attended. Much enthusiasm and interest were displayed. The information which was given by L. O. Thompson, instructor, was extremely practical and as a result many school buildings in the county will put on a better appearance at a smaller expense. Many who attended have expressed themselves as hoping that the state board for vocational education will again arrange for similar schools.
