Coquille Junior High Notes

Farming Picture Viewed
At the assembly on Monday, December 13th, a very interesting and instructive moving picture was shown, which displayed modern farm equipment, particularly in relation to orchards.

Due to the fact that the high school auditorium was not available, the picture was shown in the junior high building.

By Present Assembly Program
Monday, December 20, a Christmas assembly program was given by the by home room. Between numbers, the whole assembly joined in singing some of the old familiar Christmas carols. Those who appeared on the program were Mildred Marks, Mildred Stewart, Bob Martin, Elizabeth Williams, Duane Terry, Wayne Terry, Margaret Wersh, Ernestine Batty, Wallace Willis and Jack Newton.

Girls League Exchange Gifts
At the regular meeting on Monday, December 20, the Girls' League held its Christmas gift exchange.

In keeping with the spirit of Christmas the members of this organization have been busy repairing toys to make up gift packages for some less fortunate than themselves. Mrs. J. R. Bunch will aid the girls in delivering the gifts to their various destinations.

Basketball News
The Lincoln junior high school basketball team played its first game last Thursday. The Arago high school, second string was the victim of the onslaught and bowed to defeat by a score of 15 to 24.

Friday night, December 17, the boys journeyed to Myrtle Point for their second encounter. This game scored another victory for the L. J. H. first team. Playing against definite odds the quintet battled their way to an easy victory of 16 to 3.

Although the team looks a little ragged in spots and some members are easily confused, it shows promise of becoming a smooth, efficient, and fast team as the season progresses.

The first team regulars are: K. Robison and E. Davis, forwards;

E. Crouch, center; D. Vinton and W. Terry, guards. Others seeing action on the first string were: B. Smith and R. Perry.

The midjet team also played at Myrtle Point. Although they were defeated 14 to 4, they put up a good fight and with a little more experience should come out on the large end of the score.

Those marking up playing minutes to their credit in this game were: B. Smith, J. Newton, H. Kyle, R. McCarthy, W. Cowan, L. Marks and D. Terry.

Delegates to Portland Meeting
Five teachers, Carl Morrison and Guy Sheellenberger, of North Bend; Helen Glehn, Bandon; June Balch, Empire, and Cora Mackey, Coquille, have been selected as delegates to the annual meeting of Oregon State Teachers' Association. These delegates were chosen by the executive committee of the Coos county division of O. S. T. A. The members of this committee are Carl Morrison, Joe Sayre and Fred Schepman. It has for several years been the custom of the organization to choose the president of the county division as one of the delegates, which accounts for Carl Morrison, the newly elected president having been selected.

Besides these delegates, County Superintendent Martha E. Mulkey, is a delegate ex officio. Each year many other teachers are in attendance at O. S. T. A.

The meeting will be held on December 29 to 31 inclusive, at the Lincoln high school, Portland.

Music Festival Committee
The county music festival committee met Saturday and made selection of songs for the Spring Festival. The members of the committee are as follows: Chairman, W. C. Germain, Anita Pageler, Velma Austin, Marie Wagner and Emma Lou Watson. These new songs will be presented to teachers in attendance at the meeting in the Coquille high school on Saturday, January 8.

Club Notes and Other Social Activities

Mrs. R. L. Stewart entertained her bridge club for one o'clock luncheon at the hotel last Thursday. The ladies later went to the home of Mrs. Stewart where contract bridge was enjoyed. Those present were Mesdames C. W. Kline, G. A. Ulett, R. A. Wernich, J. A. Lamb, J. D. Rankin, F. S. Emery, Geo. Chaney and the hostess.

At the meeting of Job's Daughters, Bethel No. 15, last Monday evening, the members brought numerous gifts to make up a large Christmas basket for a needy family in Coquille. After the meeting, a social time was enjoyed with light refreshments served by the Bethel Guardian, Mrs. C. A. Rietman. The following list of appointive officers were chosen by the incoming Queen, Eileen Percy: chaplain, Muriel Davis; recorder, Peggy Wernich; treasurer, Videlle Kelley; musician, Jean Claterbos; librarian, Gretchen Clinton; senior custodian, Patsy Holverstott; junior custodian, Jean Laird; inner guard, Clarabel Watson; outer guard, Evelyn Gano; first messenger, Collene Ireland; second messenger, Geraldine Cole; third messenger, Carol Haga; fourth messenger, Maxine Knight; fifth messenger, Betty Sproul. Installation of the new officers will be held Monday evening, Dec. 27, followed by a dance.

A grand time was enjoyed at the Christmas party of the younger set held at the home of Mrs. Evelyn Elliott last Thursday evening. The house was beautifully decorated with all sorts of Yuletide trimmings and a large Christmas tree. Crazy bridge and Coogie were played. Miss Geneva Agostino won high score at cards and Miss Eunice Carmichael, low. Miss Carol Young carried away the honors at "Cootie." Dainty Christmas refreshments were served by the hostess late in the evening. Those present were Mesdames Dorothy Fish, Fay Waggoner, Margarita, Brodie, Hazel Foss, Maxine Stevens, Lorraine Perrott, Misses Carol Young, Delores Belloni, Marjorie Knight, Geneva Agostino and Eunice Carmichael.

The contract club of the younger married ladies met at the home of Mrs. H. R. Godard last Friday for one-thirty o'clock dessert luncheon. The table looked lovely with a centerpiece of fruit and cedar, flanked by red tapers. Individual fruit cakes, wrapped in cellophane, were favors at each plate. A large Christmas tree looked most attractive in one corner of the room. Following luncheon, Santa Claus put in an appearance with gifts for all. Contract bridge was then enjoyed by the members, Mrs. J. D. Gillespie being the lucky winner of high score. The ladies were glad to welcome Mrs. Odekerk back after a few weeks' absence. Those present were: Mesdames Leland Peart, Kenneth Graham, Paul Simpson, E. C. Ashworth, Leland Petersen, Verne Odekerk, R. T. Slater, J. D. Gillespie and the hostess.

The Past Matrons and Patrons, husbands and wives, held a lovely Christmas party Thursday evening, starting with a six-thirty o'clock dinner in the banquet hall of the Masonic Temple. The table looked beautiful with holly and red tapers. Bags of red and green cellophane filled with candy were at each plate. After a delicious dinner, the folks sang Christmas carols and ended up with giving original jingles. The guests then adjourned to the rooms upstairs where there was a beautiful Christmas tree with gifts for all. Table games and also a quiz game occupied the pleasant evening hours. Mrs. Bertha Smith, president of the Past Matrons, was general chairman. Mrs. Violet Lorenz had charge of the program; Mrs. Clara Bosserman, the dinner, and Mrs. Flora Compton and Mrs. Catherine Ruble, the tree and gifts. Those present to enjoy this lovely affair were: Messrs, and Mesdames A. N. Gould, W. E. Bosserman, E. A. Walker, E. L. Vinton, Julius Ruble, Henry Lorenz, Bert Folsom, Hal Pierce, C. A. Rietman, Clyde Niles, G. A. Ulett, Wm. Ulett, J. E. Norton, O. B. Harriman, V. G. Hazel, L. C. Eaton, B. W. Dunn, Mesdames Gertrude Lorenz, Huldah Ellingsen, Sadie Jayes, Bertha Smith, Viola Rosa, Florence Thrift, Violet Lorenz, Misses Edna Robison and Bess Maury and Mr. John Quick. The new officers for 1938 are president, Miss Edna Robison; vice president, Lorraine Vinton; secretary, Clara Bosserman.
