A YULETIDE PRAYER

"Peace on earth good will to men;" While from across the sea there comes The beat of military drums To chill our hearts with fear again. I seek Thy star, but in its ray Death-dealing airplanes whirl and soar To drop their bombs with deafening roar On streets where little children play, Lord Jesus, Who left Heaven above To live on earth, Who died, Who rose To give men life: breathe peace on those Who know Thee not, nor know Thy love. And, Lord, who came to bring men peace Incite our tongues, that we may spread The gospel of Thy love instead Of hate and greed, that wars may cease.

Club Notes and Other Social Activities

Mrs. L. H. Hazard entertained the Justamere club ladies for one o'clock luncheon at the hotel Monday. The ladies later went to the beautifully decorated home of Mrs. J. A. Lamb for their Christmas exchange. A social time was enjoyed with sewing and conversation. Those present were Mesdames C. J. Fuhrman, J. A. Lamb, H. A. Young, W. S. Sickels, F. L. Greenough, Hal Pierce, O. C. Sanford, R. A. Wernich, A. J. Sherwood, Bert Folsom, J. L. Smith and L. H. Hazard.

Mrs. U. E. McClary entertained the Monday night club for seven-thirty o'clock dessert at her home Monday evening. This was also the annual Christmas party and the house and table looked lovely with Yuletide decorations. A white tree with red and green trimmings was one of the outstanding features. At each plate was a package of fruit cake tied in cellophane and the dessert looked attractive in pottery containers. The members had their Christmas exchange followed by cards. Mrs. McClary was high at contract and Mrs. A. B. Collier won second, also the travelling prize. Those present were: Mesdames A. B. Collier, J. L. Aasen, F. C. McNelly, Frank Thrift, E. M. Kay, George Johnson, H. S. Norton, Sam Brady, of Allegany, and the hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. U. E. McClary were hosts to a lovely six-thirty o'clock dinner party last Thursday evening. This was to compliment Mr. and Mrs. J. Grebel, parents of Mrs. M. Earl Wilson. The house was beautifully decorated with Christmas trimmings. After a delicious dinner, the guests enjoyed a social evening. Mrs. Grebel was presented with a gift. Those present were Messrs. and Mesdames J. Grebel, L. H. Hazard, M. Earl Wilson and the hosts.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Detlefsen entertained the Zodiac club members, husbands and families for a delightful Christmas party Saturday evening at their home on the Myrtle Point highway. Owing to illness, several of the members were unable to attend. The house looked gay and colorful with a large Christmas tree, holly, red tapers and mistletoe. During the evening, the grown-ups danced and played cards, while the youngsters played different Christmas games. Each child received a gift from the lovely Christmas tree. Delicious refreshments were served late in the evening. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Fuller, Jerry and Laurel, from Marshfield. Mr. and Mrs. George Ganser and Donna Rae, from Norway; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Tennant and Billy, Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Wheeler, Mr. and Mrs. Detlefsen, Bobby and Marianne.

The monthly meeting of the Ladies Missionary Society of the Church of Christ was held last Thursday afternoon in the church parlors. The year's reports were given and new officers elected for 1938. Mrs. Art Towne had charge of the devotionals. The topic for study was "Visiting with the Christ child in our benevolent homes." The scripture was found in Romans 8:4-22, Galatians 5:22 and Philipians 4:4-9. Several ladies read interesting items concerning the various homes and schools throughout the nations. Mrs. Frances Holmstrom delighted the ladies by reading several of her poems. After the program, a social time was enjoyed, followed by refreshments served by the following committee: Mesdames Fred Schaefer, A. S. Bean, Paul Simpson and V. L. Bailey. Others present were: Mesdames Geo. Matney, John Widmark, A. N. Foley, W. H. Wimer, Aaron Wilson, D. F. Tompson, Orin Hardenbrook, Gus McCullough, C. Williams, L. E. Alexander, C. C. Farr, Ralph Harry, Frances Holmstrom, Ernest Whereast, Levi Wilson, Henry Cardwell, Lyman Rolfe, Earl Downing, Birilyn Billings, R. S. Wheeler, E. L. Benham, M. O. Hooton, Ed Davidson, Art Town, Arthur Hooton, Harold McCue and Miss Jennie Lafferty.

The "Ecadriens" and husbands motored to Allegany Sunday for their Christmas party at the home of one of the members, Mrs. Roy Neal. It was a perfect day overhead and a perfect day was enjoyed by the group. At noon, a grand Christmas dinner was served, followed by cards and a social afternoon. The members held their Christmas exchange and, of course, Santa didn't forget the men. Those present were: Messrs. and Mesdames J. L. Aasen, W. E. Bosserman, J. E. Axtell, George Johnson, Mrs. George Battey and the hosts.

Mr. and Mrs. Julius Ruble were hosts to a small group for bridge Saturday evening. The house looked lovely with an attractive Christmas tree and other Yuletide decorations. Mrs. Don McCune won high score at contract. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess late in the evening. Those present were: Messrs. and Mesdames R. E. Boober, W. E. Bosserman, E. D. McCune and the hosts.

Mrs. A. B. Collier entertained the "Duplicate club" Friday for one o'clock dessert luncheon. The table looked most attractive with a small tree, holly and red tapers. Small cellophane-wrapped bags of candy were at each plate. The members then had their Christmas exchange from a beautifully lighted Christmas tree in the living room. Duplicate contract bridge was enjoyed during the afternoon, Mrs. Frank Thrift and Mrs. R. E. Boober were high for the afternoon play. Those present were: Mesdames J. L. Aasen, George Johnson, H. W. Pierce, Frank Thrift, R. E. Boober, E. M. Kay, Ed McKeown, and the hostess.

The "Charita Club" met at the home of Mrs. John Smith in Marshfield Friday for one o'clock dessert luncheon. The house looked lovely with a large Christmas tree and decorations of holly and greenery. The ladies had their Christmas exchange, followed by an afternoon of cards. Mrs. Ted Snyder won high score prize. Members present were Mesdames Paul Brinkley, Edna Stewart, Ernest Whereast, Wm. Nelson, Elmer Davis, Ted Snyder, a guest, Mrs. Enid Overton, and the hostess.

The Pioneer Missionary Society held its silver tea and Christmas party in the church parlors Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Rosa Woodcock had charge of the program for the afternoon. Mrs. George Taylor, Jr., read the passage of scripture in a most interesting manner. A short playlet entitled, "Seek Ye First," composed by Mrs. Woodcock, was presented by Mesdames Frank Leslie, W. A. Ireland, Cyril McCurdy and Lundy Peart. This was well done and created plenty of merriment. Santa Claus then took a hand in things and gifts with original rhymes from a lovely Christmas tree were passed out to the ladies. Delicious Christmas refreshments were served by Mesdames Birdie Skeels, C. L. Gormley, H. L. Johnson, W. A. Ireland, and H. L. Graybeal, to the following ladies: Mesdames Lloyd Oddy, Clyde Minard, Averill Nohrberg, Jas. Richmond, Miranda Way, K. P. Lawrence, D. D. Dale, Cyril McCurdy, Lundy Peart, Frank Leslie, Ernest Purvance, Ross Woodcock, Rosella Wilkins, R. E. Boober, C. V. Carmichael, Geo. Taylor, Jr., Phyllis Kuykendall, O. B. Harri-

Birthday Surprise

A very pleasant time was had at the Church of God on Dec. 12, the occasion being Rev. L. E. Neal's birthday. Bro. Neal certainly looked surprised when it was announced that all were planning to stay for luncheon. We learned later Bro. Neal had purchased a soup bone (just enough for two) and he and Mrs. Neal were planning to have soup for their luncheon. Perhaps there was a question in Bro. Neal's mind as to just how strong or how weak the soup must be to satisfy so many. However there were some well-filled baskets he did not know about.

Those enjoying the good eats and the pleasant time which was had by all were: Mr. and Mrs. Jno. Earlywine and children, Bobby, Billy and Yvonne, Mrs. Maw and children, Joyce and Floyd, Mrs. Wilt, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Watkins, Mrs. Perkins, Mrs. Colvin and children, Joyce and Harold, Mrs. Carrol Helvie and children, Bernice, Norma and Shirley, Bonnie and Dorothy Avery, Helen and Everett Greeves and the guests of honor, Rev. and Mrs. L. E. Neal—Mrs. Carrol Helvie, church correspondent.
