

Minor Mention

Telling About People and Events in the City and County

Geo. Unsold left Tuesday on a business trip to San Francisco. For rent—House at 441 So. Coulter. Inquire at 490 So. Coulter or phone 14J.

Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Emery left this morning for Portland to spend New Year's.

Mr. and Mrs. George Johnson left for San Francisco Wednesday to spend a few days.

Ask Ned C. Kelley for rates on Fire Insurance.

Mrs. Maud Woodyard intends leaving tomorrow to spend New Year's in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Jensen went to Astoria to spend the holidays with Mrs. Jensen's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Gary Ellison entertained Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Morris and son for Christmas dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Kelley and sons, of Allegany, cousins of Mrs. J. L. Aasen, were week-end guests at the Aasen home.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Roland Strong, of Bandon, at the Coquille Hospital, on Tuesday a 6½ pound son named Roland John.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. (Buster) Sullivan, of Idylwood on Coos river, spent Christmas here at the home of her mother, Mrs. A. L. Simpson.

Robert Fisher accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Louis Wiltshire left for Portland last Friday night to spend the holidays with their folks.

Mrs. W. L. States came down from Portland last week to spend Christmas at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Wernich.

V. R. WILSON, O. D. OPTOMETRIST
Eyes Examined. Glasses Fitted. Broken lenses duplicated. Optical repairs while you wait. Expert service.

Harry Claterbos, Jr. was one of the students the Sentinel did not mention who was home from Oregon State College for the holidays.

Mrs. Mary Frye and John Baker, who came up from Eureka with Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Levine last Friday, left for their home on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Holbrook and family left last Thursday morning for Ferndale, Calif., to spend the Christmas holidays with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Tiedemann and son, of Portland, arrived last week to spend a week or so with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Staninger.

If you want to subscribe for a Portland daily the clubbing combination we offer with the Sentinel will save you money.

Kenneth Southard came down from Linfield College, McMinnville, to spend the Christmas holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Southard.

George Ulett, Jr., who has spent the two weeks of the Christmas vacation here, intends leaving Sunday to resume his studies at Stanford university.

Buy Ideal Bakery bread because it is better.

Miss Mary Schol, of Ukiah, Calif., who is roommate of Beryl Unsold at the college in Arcata, is arriving today for a visit at the Unsold home.

Dance the old year out and the New Year in with the Boys and Girls at the Highway Pavilion, three miles south of Bandon. Girls 50c. Ladies free.

Mr. and Mrs. U. E. McClary will hold open house New Year's day from four to nine o'clock p. m. They will be glad to entertain their friends at this time.

Mrs. Lois Wood, of Newberg, sister of Mrs. Frank Thrift, arrived last Friday night to spend Christmas at the Thrift home. She left for home Sunday.

For Rent—Unfurnished House, four rooms and bath, on West Sixth street. Mrs. C. W. Ashton, phone 120J.

Carl Ensole, who is employed by the Arrow Mills at Eureka, returned to his work there last Sunday evening after spending Christmas here with his family.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Strain and son, Hal, came up from Langlois last Friday evening to spend Christmas with Mrs. Strain's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hal Pierce.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Litzberger and family left Thursday to spend the Christmas holidays with their folks in Endicott, Wash. They plan to return Jan. 2.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Bosserman entertained a few friends for Christmas dinner Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Earl Noeler and Mary Alice and Mrs. George Batley.

A. O. and Ed Walker, and the former's sons, Richard and Bill, left Monday morning for Los Angeles to witness the Rose Bowl game at Pasadena on New Year's.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Purvance, Miss Margaret Purvance and Robert Waggoner spent the Christmas holidays with Mrs. Purvance's sister, Mrs. Robert Gile, in Roseburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Ayres accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Howard Schroeder, of Riverton, went to Forest Grove to visit Mr. and Mrs. Ned Coy for the Christmas holidays.

Miss Glylene Fitzpatrick, who is doing special nursing in Eugene, came in last Thursday to spend Christmas with her father, J. A. Fitzpatrick, who returned to Eugene on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. D. McCue had as dinner guests Christmas Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Tiedeman and son, of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Staninger and Miss Margaret Staninger.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Clark and Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Kuehn left last Friday evening to spend Christmas in Portland with Mr. and Mrs. Guss Tillman, parents of Mrs. Clark and Mrs. Kuehn.

Boy Wernich, who had been in poor health for two weeks previous, finally had to give up last Friday and go to bed. He was afflicted from a flu condition and for several days suffered intense pain.

Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Rackliff and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hicking, who spent Christmas at the Rackliff home, left Saturday for San Francisco, expecting to be home the day before New Year's.

Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Cruickshank on Christmas day attended the wedding of Miss Catherine Alexander, of Portland, and C. Milton Lee, of Salem, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Horace T. Byler, in Marshfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Drue Cunningham, No-D-Lay Cleaners, who were delayed a day last week in getting away for their Christmas vacation trip to his former home in Idaho, left Friday morning. They returned Tuesday night.

Frances Arrell, who has been attending a pharmaceutical school and working in Portland since September returned to Coquille Monday morning and will remain here until next fall when he will enter the school of pharmacy at O. S. C.

Mrs. Robert Shute, who before her marriage was Miss Barbara Unsold, arrived here last Thursday evening with her baby daughter, Isabel Beryl, from Los Angeles to spend the holidays at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Unsold. She will return south next week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Taylor drove to Portland last Thursday to spend the Christmas holidays with Mr. and Mrs. C. Gerlach, a niece and nephew. Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Kullback, mother and father of Mrs. Taylor, and Mrs. Katherine Orloff, a sister, accompanied them.

Rev. and Mrs. L. E. Neal left Monday morning for Eugene where they were to attend a three-day ministerial conference. From there they went to Portland to spend New Year's with their daughter and expect to return to Coquille next Monday. Mr. Neal is pastor of the Coquille Church of God.

Carol Ann is the name given the seven pound miss born to Mr. and Mrs. Don G. McEniry at the Coquille Hospital early Wednesday morning. She is a granddaughter of Henry Kern, of North Bend, but not his first grandchild. Both mother and babe are doing well and Don is the May happiness in fullest measure be the lot of every patron and friend of this pharmacy during the coming year. May all your undertakings be successful and satisfaction of accomplishing things worth while make 1938 the best year you have ever known.

Fuhrman's Pharmacy, Inc.

DRUGGISTS STATIONERS

proudest man in town.

Mrs. Lee Hand returned last Monday morning from a two weeks' visit in various California points and was met at Roseburg by Mr. Hand at 3:30 that morning, just a few hours before he received word of his mother's death. Mrs. Hand visited a sister at San Gabriel, brothers at Alhambra and Fullerton, relatives in Pasadena and Whittier, and joined another brother in Fresno for Christmas dinner.

Choral Club to Give Concert

The Coquille Choral Club, under the direction of Mrs. Maud Skaggs Woodyard, met Tuesday evening at the Christian church for their weekly rehearsal. The club will give a concert late in January, at which they will present a musical romance, "The Rosemaiden." An unusual amount of interest in the organization has been shown this season as the weekly attendance has averaged 28 members. The group is formulating a plan for patrons and patronesses who will act as official sponsors for the singers and residents of Coquille who are interested in music will be invited. A committee to carry out this project was selected, including: Donald Farr, chairman, Mrs. Roy Barton, F. G. Leslie, Aaron Wilson, Mrs. Woodyard, Mrs. June Walker, Rev. George Turney and Mrs. Stanley Ayers.

Hand Skinned in Wringer

Mrs. Bob Bennett, formerly of Coquille, who came down from Oregon City to be with her daughter, Mrs. Lyle Knox for a time, had the misfortune to get her hand caught in the wringer of the washing machine Tuesday evening. No bones were broken but the skin was laid back so that Dr. Richmond had to take twelve stitches to hold the loosened cuticle in place.

Mr. Bennett, who was an auto salesman here for some years, is now on a ranch near Oregon City.

New Year's Dance Committee

The second dance to be given by the Coquille Dancing Club which was organized a couple of months ago, will be held as a New Year's eve dance, Friday evening in I. O. O. F. hall. Clarence Osika is general chairman in charge of arrangements with the following men and the wife of each on the committee, Henry McCue, Brewer Mills, Jas. Mills, Hal Hatton, Ted Hornecker, Harold Gould, Cliff Gulseth and Dr. J. W. Harrison.

Spencer Foundation Garments and Bandeaux individually designed. For appointment call 191J or write Edna Taylor, 540 North Coulter, Coquille. * Nov. 18, 38

Dr. C. G. Stem, chiropractic physician, foot correctionist, electric therapist, 292 Moulton St., phone 86J. tf

A. L. Hooton, electrical contractor and dealer, 274 Second St., Coquille. Complete stock of wiring supplies.

Dr. C. G. Stem, Chiropractor. 292 Moulton St., phone 86J. tf

For sound Fire Insurance, go to Ned C. Kelley.
Cloverleaf Dairy, pure milk and cream. Phone 7R42. 20J
Calling cards, 50 for $1.00.

Will Use Funds to

Turf the Ball Park

To help raise funds for putting in a grass field at Athletic Park the Fraternal Order of Eagles will donate the net from their regular dance on Jan. 22 for that purpose. Seed for the sodding has already been promised and it is hoped to realize enough from this dance, with the contributions that there will be, to entirely cover the park with turf. Then when the lights plan materializes, as it looks now that it would, this city will have one of the few ball parks in the state which are lighted for night games and turfed.

Levines Here for Holidays

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Levine have been enjoying a visit this week from his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Levine, of Eureka, California. His brother, Clyde Levine, accompanied by his wife and two daughters, have also been here from Corvallis. His sister, Mrs. Mary Frye, of Eureka, was here for Christmas but returned home Sunday. They all enjoyed Christmas dinner together at the Levine home, at which time Mrs. Flora Dunn, Mrs. Clara Wheeler, John Baker and John Quick were also guests.

Milani Family to Klamath

The Joe Milani family moved last Sunday to the Klamath Falls section where he has purchased a small farm. The Milanis have resided on the river between Coquille and Arago for a great many years and are a family we all are sorry to lose, yet we wish them good luck in their new home.

Benhams' Delivery Hours

Beginning Jan. 3, 1938, deliveries will leave the following stores at 10:00 a. m. and 3:00 p. m.: Henninger's Market, Safeway Stores, Economy Market and Williams Grocery. 11*

THE APPOINTMENT OF

Mr. Wm. H. Barrows

AS AGENT AT Coquille, Oregon

Complete Information—can be secured at the office below concerning low fares, frequent departures, and service over Greyhound routes to any point in the United States.

DEPOT: ROXY BUILDING 2nd and Hall Sts.

PHONE: 245

ROXY

Thur., Fri., Sat. Dec. 30-31, Jan. 1

A Revelation in Entertainment!

Girls . . . Music . . . Romance . . . Stars . . . Comedy all done in ADVANCED TECHNICOLOR so dazzling that it takes your breath away!

WARNER BAXTER & JOAN BENNETT

VOGUES OF 1938

SPECIAL ATTRACTION
Hear "Buzz" Holmstrom tell his thrilling story of his 1100-mile trip down the Colorado River

LIBERTY

Thur., Fri., Sat. Dec. 30-31, Jan. 1

OUT OF THE TURMOIL AND STRUGGLE OF THE PIONEER DAYS IN THE LONE STAR STATE COMES THE GRANDEST of all HOPALONG CASSIDY ADVENTURES!

Clarence E. Mulford's

TEXAS TRAIL

Featuring WILLIAM BOYD GEORGE HAYES

FEATURE NO. 2

A lively bit of business about a couple of smart Alecs who weren't smart enough to fool each other!

ANN DVORAK and JOHN TRENT

"SHE'S NO LADY"
MATINEE SATURDAY 1:30

Sun., Mon., Tue. Jan. 2-3-4

A HIT! A WOW!
A LAUGH RIOT!

FOR GRAND FUN AND ROMANCE IT'S THE SEASON'S TOPS! By the Author of "MR. DEEDS."

JOAN LESLIE
BLONDELL HOWARD

"Stand In"

(Story of Mr. Deeds Goes to Hollywood)

Also "MERRIE MELODY COLOR CARTOON"

MATINEE SUNDAY 1:30

Sun., Mon., Tue. Jan. 2-3-4

A GIRL . . . A GOB . . . AND A MERRY SPREE!
THE MORE YOU MIX 'EM THE ZIPPIER THEY'LL BE!
IT'S LOADED! WITH LAUGHS, ROMANCE, MUSIC

"SWEETHEARTS OF THE NAVY"

with Eric Linden --- Cecilia Parker

FEATURE NO. 2

The world's most inhuman racket exposed in pulse-pounding action unmatched for thrills!

"DAUGHTER of SHANGHAI"

with ANNA MAY WONG CHARLES BICKFORD

MATINEE SUNDAY 1:30

Wednesday Jan. 5

BE IN EITHER THEATRE
Loaded with Laughs! Tingling with Tunes!

Lily Pons Jack Oakie

"HITTING A NEW HIGH"

EDWARD EVERTT HORTON ERIC BLORE

Wednesday Jan. 5

BE IN EITHER THEATRE
ROMANCE OF A BROADWAY WISE GUY WHO FELL IN LOVE WITH A DIME-A-DANCE SIREN

"THE GIRL SAID NO"

Irene Hervey - Robert Armstrong