Red-Hot Romance In "Sweetheart Of The Navy"

Something special in screen entertainment is promised local moviegoers at the Liberty when that newest and gayest comedy, "Sweetheart of the Navy," co-starring that popular romantic team, Eric Linden and Cecelia Parker, is shown Jan. 2, 3, 4. "Sweetheart of the Navy," is said to be a red hot, romantic comedy with music, beautiful girls and rollicking young sailors on shore leave, and a two-fisted gub, who finds his fate in a cabaret, after wrecking it. Its action never lags and it is studded with wisecracks and surprise situations.

Farmers Still Have Time to File Work Sheet

Coos county farm operators who have not had an opportunity of filling out a work sheet in connection with the Agricultural Conservation program may do so up until January 15, according to information just received at the county agent's office from the State Conservation committee.

These sheets may be filed at any time at the county agent's office or for the convenience of those in the northern and western part of the county the following committeemen will assist operators in their respective communities in filing the information.

C. M. Conner—Coast highway near Hollow Stump, six miles north of North Bend.
George Landrith — Coos River, Marshfield, Oregon.
Fred Messerle — Catching Inlet, Marshfield, Oregon.
J. Q. Corrie, Bandon.

County Jail Arrivals

Arthur J. Ditter, who was unable to pay the final 10 of the fine assessed against him for failing to stop and render assistance at an accident, voluntarily entered the county jail this week to serve five days. He wanted to leave the county but not with a fine hanging over him here.

Walter Bill McGregor, who gave his home address at Los Angeles, was brought to jail here from Gold Beach last night. He was bound over to the grand jury in justice court at Gold Beach on a grand larceny charge.

Hold-up Men Captured

Sheriff Howell and Deputy Culver went over to North Bend this morning to bring to jail here three young fellows who tried to rob Ray Oederkirk there Tuesday night. The latter heard a noise in his store adjoining his home and went to investigate. One of the trio attempted to stick him up, but Oederkirk hit him over the head with his gun and the fellow left in a hurry.
The North Bend police found them yesterday in a deserted shack.

Social Notes

Mr. and Mrs. U. E. McClary entertained some friends for a delightful six o'clock buffet dinner Wednesday evening at their home on Coulter street. The table looked lovely with holly and silver decorations and green tapers in novel red holders. The dishes were red and green to match the color scheme. After a most delicious dinner, contract bridge was played. Mrs. R. E. Boober won high score for ladies and Mrs. H. L. Clatterbos low. Mr. Lefe Compton won high score for men and Mr. Julius Ruble low. Mrs. Boober and Mr. Clatterbos won traveling prizes. Invited guests were: Messrs. and Mesdames H. L. Clatterbos, Louis Wiltshire, Julius Ruble, Lefe Compton, R. E. Boober, H. S. Norton and Lanis Bosworth.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wheeler were hosts to a delightful six-thirty o'clock dinner party Tuesday at their home on No. Coulter St. The table and room looked lovely with decorations of holly. After a delicious dinner, a social time was enjoyed. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Charles Levine, of Eureka, Calif., Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Levine, Mary and Betty, of Monroe, Oregon; Mrs. Ed Levine and son, Johnny; Mrs. Flora Dunn, Mrs. Clara Wheeler, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Barrett, Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Spangler, John Quick and the hosts.

Mrs. Inez McElhane entertained with a lovely party Wednesday afternoon in honor of two friends from Eugene, Mrs. Ruby Clark and Mrs. Florence Dunbar. The guests had a pleasant afternoon playing pin-ocle, Mrs. Ada Hurlburt winning first prize and Miss Janet Lewis receiving consolation. Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess to the following ladies: Mesdames Agnes Lewis, Nellie Wheeler, Wales, Ada Hurlburt, Misses Klio McElhane, Janet Lewis and the honored guests. Mrs. Clark, Mrs. Dunbar and Mrs. Hurlburt are sisters.

Mrs. Lee Hand and Mrs. Geo. Bradburn, of Marshfield, a sister of Miss Beneva Volkmar, formerly of Coquille, gave a lovely party at the Coquille Hotel Tuesday evening to announce the betrothal of Beneva Volkmar, of Condon, Oregon, to Mr. Edwin Keltner, formerly of Arago, now county agent at Salem. The announcements were cleverly concealed in baskets of candies passed to the guests. Cards were enjoyed throughout the evening. Dainty refreshments consisting of white cakes decorated with pink roses and red adorned with pink hearts topped by tiny cupids were served from a table decorated with chrysanthemums and tapers in the pastel shades. Those present were Mesdames Darrel Brodie, Dennis Waggoner, Craig Perrott, Harold Stevens, Marion Endicott, of Myrtle Point, Evelyn Elliott, Misses Eunice Carmichael, Jessie Lawhorn, Helen Glenn, of Bandon, Alberta and Erola Volkmar, of Myrtle Point, sisters of Beneva, Geneva Agostino, the honored guest and the hostesses.

Hopalong Cassidy Hits "Texas Trail" at Liberty

Hopalong Cassidy and his pals, Lucky and Windy, join the Army in the new Hopalong picture, "Texas Trail," which opens tonight at the Liberty Theatre. "Texas Trail," one of the most exciting films of this smashing series, deals with the Spanish-American War period, when Cassidy is commissioned by the Army to round up a huge herd of wild horses. Rustlers hear of the plan and try to steal the horses, overpowering Hopalong and his men while they sleep. But Cassidy fights his way out of the spot in one of the best scraps of his career, and joins the Army to go to Cuba after completing his mission.
