Donald Selland, of Dora, is receiving treatments at the Coquille Hospital for the elbow dislocation and arm fracture which he suffered while at work on Tuesday.

The Coquille Woman's Club is furnishing the program for the Marshfield Civic club Friday afternoon at Marshfield. It is hoped a large group of Coquille members will attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Levine and children, who had been stopping at the home of Mrs. Flora E. Dunne the past ten days, returned to their home at Monroe, Oregon, last Saturday.

Ray Schott, who was formerly employed in the county's road department, was a Coquille visitor Tuesday. For several years he has been employed in the state tax commissions offices in Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Bourns and son, Bill, left last Wednesday for their home in Fort Bragg, Calif., after spending a week with Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Currie. Mrs. Bourns is a sister of Mrs. Currie.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Boober returned Tuesday evening from a few days' trip to Portland. Mrs. Julius Rubie and daughter, Laura Emily, accompanied them to spend a week with Mrs. Rubie's mother.

Mrs. Robert Shute and daughter left Sunday morning for their home in Los Angeles, after spending the holidays at the Unscold home here. Miss Beryl accompanied them as far as Arcata, where she resumed her studies in the teachers' college.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Long, who left Coquille twelve years ago and went up to Port Angeles, were Coquille visitors last Thursday afternoon. They had been to San Francisco to spend Christmas with their son. They are now living in Port Townsend, where Ray operates an auto repair shop of his own.

Mrs. Mable Laird arrived here Monday morning from San Francisco, where she and her son, Lloyd, are spending the winter. She came on business and after attending the Eastern Star installation Tuesday evening left for the city on Wednesday. She likes it there and enjoys all the sights and advantages the city by the Golden Gate offers.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Thomas surprised their many friends here by coming in from Corvallis last Friday evening. They went over to the Bay Saturday and returned home Sunday. Both are looking extremely well. While he still does not engage in any strenuous work, Ray is feeling very well this winter and has practically recovered from the illness of a year ago.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Knife and family spent the New Year's week-end at the Richmond cottage in Bandon. New Year's day the following were guests at the cottage: Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Bruner and daughters, of Dairy, Oregon, Mr. and Mrs. Fremont Jeffreys and family, of Randolph, Oregon; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Christian, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Finley and family, Mrs. Inez Pinkston, Mr. and Mrs. Cyril McCurdy and Jimmy and the hosts.

It Did a Rushing Business
The state's Employment Security agency representatives from Marshfield had a busy time the first three days of the week interviewing and registering those who are unemployed and either want jobs or the benefits of unemployment insurance. The city hall was besieged Monday by the unemployed.

Bill Graham Slowly Improving

W. S. Graham, who came over from Medford to spend Christmas and the holidays with his father, J. D. Graham, and other relatives and friends here, returned home last Sunday, his cousin, Wm. Summers, coming over for him.

It is twelve years since Mr. Graham left Coquille to engage in the mining game in the Grants Pass district. He followed it until four years ago when a cave-in crushed one of his legs. The doctors who treated him thought it was just a broken bone and put a cast on his leg, only to find when the pain became so intense that a splinter from one bone had been lodged between the two bones and had almost pierced the skin. He used crutches for a long time and only recently has been able to get along without them.

Pontiac Co. Has Picture Show

The Chief Pontiac Co. salesroom was filled both afternoon and evening Tuesday for the free motion picture show which featured Pontiac manufacture, the Indianapolis speedway races, the opening of the Golden Gate bridge and the coronation in London. There was also a Mickey Mouse cartoon, which delighted the younger portion of the audience.

Walter Eagan expressed himself as greatly pleased with the reception accorded the show both afternoon and evening.

Bandon Lady Passes

The body of Mrs. Minerva A. Kennedy, who died at Bandon last Wednesday, at the age of 74 years, three months and eighteen days, was taken to Portland by the Schroeder Bros. funeral car. The interment was in the Louisville cemetery, Clark county, Wash.

She was born in Illinois, Sept. 11, 1863.

Special Notice
LOST, STRAYED OR STOLEN—55 once valuable church members. Mostly blonds and brunettes—some silvers. When last seen they were bogged down in overstuffed day-ports and practically covered with Sunday papers. If seen, approach very carefully, as they will stamped at the mere mention of Prayer Meeting, and many of them get the jitters when you suggest church attendance.

Year's Jury List 300 Names
The jury list of about 300 names was drawn by the county court yesterday. It is from this list that 30 or more names will be drawn for each circuit court term during 1938.

The names of judges and clerks of election were also selected by the court but they will not be officially appointed until after the 30 days has elapsed during which they can file notice of declination.

Belle Knife Hospital
Mollie, the eight-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Lund, who was injured by falling on his knife while visiting at his grandparents near Broadbent last week, is able to sit up today. An operation was necessary, the knife piercing the abdomen but not the intestines.

Jack Jordan, one of the foremen at the Smith Wood-Products plant, entered the hospital last Thursday for treatment for pneumonia.

Mrs. Don McGilvery underwent a tonsillectomy this morning.

W. L. Kistner, who underwent an operation for double hernia three weeks ago, was able to leave the hospital yesterday and go to his home.

Edwin Barker, of Myrtle Point, was dismissed yesterday after receiving treatment for a week.

County Jail Receives Them
John Kerby, Jos. Reis and Michael Twohy are the three men arrested at North Bend last Wednesday for breaking into the Ray Oederkirk store one night. They were brought to jail here Thursday with their bail set at $1500 each.

Steve Hiller and Glen Sparagie were also brought from North Bend Thursday to serve 30 days on a petty larceny conviction in justice court.

On Friday Hugh Freeley was brought from North Bend, with bonds set at $1500. He is charged with larceny from the person.

75 Cases to Be Dropped
Notices have been sent by County Clerk Oddy to the attorneys of plaintiffs in cases now appearing on the circuit court docket for Coos county in which no action has been taken for the past year. If there is not some move made to keep them on the docket they will be stricken therefrom early in February.
