ARAGO

The first meeting of the Arago W. C. T. U. was held Wednesday morning at ten o'clock at the home of Mrs. C. A. Keitner with the president, Mrs. J. W. Barnett leading. Mrs. Albert Lillie gave a talk on the evils of alcohol and the drug, marijuana, which was very good. The following members attended: Mesdames Sam Root, O. H. Aasen, Albert Lillie, Albert Gulstrom, Tyrrell Woodward, Nile Miller, Ralph Cameron, Frank Griffith, S. C. McAllister, Alma Halter, of Coquille, and the hostess, Mrs. C. A. Keitner. It was decided to hold their meetings on the first Tuesday of every month. After the meeting the ladies enjoyed a pot luck lunch at noon. In the afternoon the regular monthly missionary meeting was held at two o'clock, the meeting being called to order by the president, Mrs. Nile Miller. This was the regular election of officers, which resulted as follows: Mrs. H. E. Watkins, president; Mrs. Ward Evans, vice president; Mrs. O. H. Aasen, secretary, and Mrs. Tyrrell Woodward, treasurer. It was decided to change the meeting date from the first Wednesday of each month to the third Tuesday of each month. In addition to those attending the morning meeting there were present Mesdames Dave Root, Edith Woodward, J. W. Barnett and H. E. Watkins.

At the men's potluck supper Wednesday evening it was decided to call their organization the "Arago Men's Club." The following officers were elected for the coming year: J. D. Carl, president; Orvus Miller, vice president; Stephen Aasen, secretary-treasurer. All men are cordially invited to come and join them. They are planning on organizing an independent basket ball team.

There was no Bible study held this week as Mr. Alden Duff was conducting evangelistic services from Thursday evening until Sunday evening. Mrs. Helen Baugh, sister of Mr. Duff, was in charge of the services Saturday evening and also Sunday morning.

A home demonstration meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Edith Woodward Friday with Mrs. Jessie Ingram as instructor. This was an all-day meeting, with a pot luck lunch at noon. The subject discussed was "Line for the Individual."

Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Menegat and Donald were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Shaw. Friday evening the Girls' volley ball team and the boys' basketball team of Arago met the Riverton girls' and boys' teams on the Arago gym floor, with Riverton winning both games.

Shelby McAllister, of Marshfield, was a week-end guest at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. C. McAllister.

The regular Sunday morning services were held Sunday with Mrs. Helen Baugh conducting the preaching service. Sunday school followed with an attendance of 76. Christian Endeavor hour was led by Mrs. Sam Root and Alden Duff had charge of the evening service, assisted by Floyd Walker. Services next Sunday as usual.

The regular monthly pot luck supper will be held in the church basement Wednesday evening at seven o'clock. Everyone is cordially invited to attend.

Ladies Aid will meet Wednesday at two p. m., at the home of Mrs. Albert Lillie.

Bible study class will be held Thursday evening at the church at eight o'clock and the lesson will be on the fifth chapter of Ephesians.

Mr. and Mrs. Tyrrell Woodward, accompanied by Mrs. Helen Baugh, Miss Bernice Gillespie and Mr. and Mrs. S. C. McAllister, drove to Camas Valley Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Baugh remained there where she is to conduct evangelistic services for a few weeks.

Miss Mary Jean McAllister was a Sunday dinner guest of her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Aasen.

Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Haberly and sons, Billy Bob and David, of Myrtle Point, were Norway visitors Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Jackson and Dianne, of Coquille, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Myers.

Mrs. Ed Myers, who has been staying at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Wayne Woodward, since leaving the hospital, was able to be moved to her own home Monday afternoon, although she is still unable to do any work. It has been eleven weeks since she was hurt in the car accident.

Mrs. Marvin Shaw spent Tuesday in Coquille, visiting Mrs. Geo. Zinzerling.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Doyle and Jane, of Powers, were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Edgmon.

Marguerite and Lois Robison have been ill and unable to attend school for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Zinzerling and family, of Coquille, were Arago visitors Saturday. Junior Zinzerling, who had the misfortune to injure his eye some time ago, has completely recovered.

BULLARDS

A meeting sponsored by the Home Economics Extension Service was held at Bullards hall Wednesday, January 5, with Mrs. Jessie Ingram, home demonstration agent in charge. Her topic was "The Effect of Line in Dress," and was presented in a very pleasing manner to the twenty-four ladies present. A potluck lunch was enjoyed at noon. An organization was formed which is to be known as "Bullards Extension Unit." The following officers were elected: Leafy Bullard, chairman; Myrtle Herman, vice chairman; Ruth Lennon, secretary; Florence Houdyshell, publicity. A number of ladies chosen as local leaders will attend a meeting to be held in Coquille on January 25, for the purpose of training them in the subjects they are to present to their local unit. Part of the future meetings will be in charge of these local leaders and some one from the Extension Service will have charge of the others. Any homemaker is welcome to attend any of these demonstrations.

Mrs. M. A. Bullard is confined to her home with a severe cold.

"Live, Love and Learn" Comes to Liberty Sunday

Robt. Montgomery, Rosalind Russell Star in Greenwich Village Romance

Teaming Robert Montgomery and Rosalind Russell for the third time, with Robert Benchley featured in one of his funniest characterizations and with Helen Vinson as the "other woman," the new M-G-M romantic comedy, "Live, Love and Learn," comes Sunday to the Liberty Theatre for a three-day showing.

Placed largely in the colorful atmosphere of Greenwich Village's Bohemian art colony, "Live, Love and Learn" develops a sparkling study of the married life of a penniless artist and the girl who forsook wealth and society to marry him.

The distinguished supporting cast of "Live, Love and Learn" is headed by the inimitable Benchley and the glamorous Miss Vinson. Other players include Mickey Rooney, Monty Woolley, E. E. Clive, Charles Judels, Maude Eburne, Harlan Briggs, June Clayworth and Al Shean.
