Ex-Member Visits Band

Macy Anderson, of Coquille, who spent three years as a member of the famous 7th Infantry band, of Vancouver Barracks, attended their concert last evening in the Armory at Marshfield and spent the evening visiting with his acquaintances. He reports that the concert was thoroughly enjoyed by a large crowd and the program was broadcast through remote control over station KOOS.

Macy tells this one on himself. During a rehearsal Bandleader Haynes, wishing to leave out a portion of the music and finding that someone would invariably get confused at each attempt, finally stopped the band and commanded, "Some of the more stupid of you mark your parts! Anderson, have you marked your part?" (Anderson marked his part.)

County Jail Arrivals

Dommuel McDommuel, who was a guest of the county for several days last week on a petty larceny charge and released, was picked up again at Gold Beach and on Monday was held over for the grand jury on a charge of grand larceny. He is accused of appropriating some radio equipment and a six gun at Gold Beach. Barney B. Conway picked up by the state police for illegal possession of deer meat was sentenced to 60 days in jail and to pay $2.50 in costs. Fifty days of the sentence was suspended.
