Mrs. Ruth Beyers played two lovely cello solos, accompanied by Mrs. Birdie Skeels. At midnight ice cream, cake and coffee were served in the banquet hall.

The Loyal Womens Class met in the parlors of the Church of Christ last Thursday afternoon for their regular business meeting, which was presided over by the president, Mrs. Henry Cardwell. Mrs. Mary Burns, mother of Bobby Burns, the eminent pianist, was especially honored, in celebration of her 80th birthday, which occurred Tuesday of last week. A lovely potted plant was presented her by the class, as well as individual gifts being given. A very special birthday cake with candles was baked in honor of the occasion. Mrs. Gus McCullough and Mrs. Ed Cardwell were appointed captains in a new contest to last until Easter, the points to be judged on attendance, study of the lesson, and number of Bible chapters read. After the business meeting, refreshments were enjoyed with refreshments. Mrs. Burns told the class members she had received 45 birthday cards and that this was the first real surprise party she had had since she was a little girl. The following ladies were present: Mesdames F. A. Stanger, A. S. Bean, Oren Hardenbrook, Earl Downing, Gus McCullough, John Sanders, Fred Schaefer, Henry Cardwell, Nellie Prey, Harold McCue, Frances George, Miss Jennie Lafferty and the guest of honor, Mrs. Mary Burns.

The Guardians Council of Job's Daughters met at the home of Mrs. June Walker Monday evening. Rietman, R. E. Boober, J. L. Smith, J. E. Axtell, Jas. Watson, Harold McCue, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Boserman and the hostess.

The local W. C. T. U. meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Georgia Richmond last Friday afternoon. Plans were discussed for a regional conference in the spring to include Douglas, Josephine and Coos counties, with Coquille as hostess; Mrs. Necia Buck, of Portland, and other state officers to be in charge. Mrs. Esta Ellis, medal contest director, announced that the Coquille churches would conduct silver medal contests Wednesday evening, Feb. 24 at 7:30 p. m., with 15 or 20 young folks taking part. Each church is to sponsor its own contest which will feature scripture readings. A city contest will follow shortly. Other cities in the county are conducting these contests and it is to be hoped to have a county contest in the near future. Many people expressed appreciation of the W. C. T. U. radio programs featured over KOOS at Marshfield each noon and Thursday at 2:15 p. m. The series is being used at present over 53 stations, covering the entire nation. This is just one phase of the educational campaign being carried on by the national W. C. T. U. and its 10,000 local unions. A new 1938 series of twelve dramatized episodes prepared for use as electrical transcriptions is being released immediately. One dollar per year is given by each local union to carry on this educational work. Members are kept informed as to which congressional measures they should support or oppose.

Mrs. Luella Smith gave a splendid talk on "Faith." The Lillian Stevens legislative fund was discussed by Mrs. V. L. Bailey. Mrs. G. A. Gray told of the life work of Mrs. Stevens as related by her daughter. Mrs. Stevens was one of the authors of the W. C. T. U. constitution and later became national corresponding secretary. After the program and business meeting, Bible games were played. Mrs. Richmond served refreshments to the following ladies:

Eastern Star Session
Beulah Chapter, No. 6, O. E. S., held its first meeting of the New Year last Thursday evening with Miss Bess Maury, worth matron, in the chair. A fine crowd was in attendance and thoroughly enjoyed the meeting and entertainment which followed. Mrs. Mildred Tyrrell sang two lovely solos, accompanied by Mrs. Maud Woodyard, and those two clever tap dancers, Barbara Leslie and Elaine Gray, executed some attractive steps. Mrs. C. A. Rietman accompanied them on the piano. Refreshments were served in the banquet hall and a social time enjoyed.

Mark Seeley a Thespian
Mark Seeley, son of Mrs. Florence Seeley of Coquille, has been selected for the part of Engstrand in "Ghosts," well known play by Henrik Ibsen, to be produced by the associated students of the Southern Oregon Normal school, the second week in March. Mark attended the S. O. normal during the 1935-36 school year and re-entered there this month, after attending normal at Monmouth for two quarters. Dr. C. G. 4-H Attendance
Enthusiasm as to 4-H club work was shown by the number of people who gathered to hear Miss Helen Cowgill in her meetings last week. The leaders and 4-H members had brought in many articles which Miss Cowgill used in teaching those present to judge 4-H work. Miss Cowgill had with her a splendid display of canning and clothing of winning club members. At the Myrtle Point meeting County Agent George Jenkins talked on the 4-H achievements in Coos county and led a discussion in handicraft. At this 4-H leaders' meeting an election placed the following people in office: Mrs. Gertrude Monson, president; Mrs. Frances Hill Leathers, vice president, and Mrs. Floyd Summer, secretary-treasurer.
Music Festival
The Music Festival committee has completed arrangements for spring festival except fixing of the date. The office of the county school superintendent is sending out the instructions, lists of songs, etc., to each school. One new feature for this year is the inclusion of representatives of our little first and second grades. Ensemble groups will sing as follows: Group 1 made up of 1st and 2nd graders; Group 2 of 3rd and 4th graders; Group 3 of 5th and 6th; and Group 4 for 7th and 8th. The indications are that this year will show a larger number of children than ever before participating in this program. The committee members are W. C. Germain, Marshfield, chairman; Mrs. Marie Wagner,

"Manhattan Melodrama" Back For Return Engagement at Liberty Sunday, Monday, Tuesday

Back—to bring you a real heart thrill in one of the greatest romantic smash hits of all time—Clark Gable, William Powell and Myrna Loy are starred in "Manhattan Melodrama," at the Liberty starting Sunday. It is their first appearance as a starring trio, and the first time Gable and Powell have appeared in the same picture. The story is a fast-moving melodrama of New York life, with Gable as a big-shot gambler, powerful and dramatic figure in the city's demi-world. Powell, as the district attorney, his life-long friend, is called upon to prosecute him for murder.

Bandon; Miss Velma Austin, Myrtle Point; Miss Anita Pageler, Coquille, and Miss Emma Lou Watson, Catching Inlet, Marshfield.

Jack Cramer at Eugene Hi
Edythe Farr, a senior in music at the University of Oregon, was recently honored by being initiated into Phi Lambda Theta, national educational honorary sorority. Giving a very interesting speech at the initiatory banquet about the educational system of Australia was Dr. J. F. Cramer, superintendent of Eugene city schools. "Jack" Cramer, as he is known to his many friends in Coquille, recently completed his work for his doctor's degree by spending a year of research work on education in Australia. Jack was principal of Coquille high school while Edythe was a student here.

Throat Raw And Sore?

If you have a sore throat due to cold and want a real relief quickly, don't take chances on old-fashioned gargles or surface remedies. Take Thoxine, the famous internal throat medicine that so many families are now using. The very first swallow starts relief, soreness is soothed all the way down, it then acts thru the system; often in a few minutes you can swallow without pain. And for a cough caused by an irritated throat there is nothing better, it usually stops at once. Your doctor will approve the ingredients, all are listed on the carton. Wonderful for children, too. Buy Thoxine, 35c, 60c, $1.00. Hudson's Drug Store.
