Lincoln School News
"Cricket on the Hearth" Shown
At a special pay assembly Friday, January 14, the film "Cricket on the Hearth," was shown. The students recognized it as an old friend, for the story had been studied in literature classes.

6x Presents Assembly
The 6x home room presented the 6x assembly. The following numbers were announced by Jim Howe: poem, Donna Perkins; play, James Broshears, Patricia Berg, Delores Linn, Kenneth Hooton and Leona Arnett; poem, Ben Barton; skit, Ben Barton, Dick Greve, Wade Cowan, Fred Kunz, and Jim Howe; play without words, Juanita Culbertson, Marie Burg, Fred Kunz; an argument, Jim Howe and Patricia Berg. Following the program a very interesting one-reel film of the life on a rubber plantation in the East Indies was shown.

Basketball News
The Coquille Junior high school's basketball teams added another double victory to their list on Wednesday, January 12, when they defeated Bunker Hill's midget and first teams. The Coquille midget team was made up mostly of inexperienced players. Twelve of the young players saw action in the game and really looked as though they would develop into first string men with a little more practice and growth. Both Coquille and Bunker Hill played good ball for the small teams and the game ended with the close score of 15-12 in favor of Coquille.

The first string was somewhat handicapped by the loss of one player. Dick Vinton was ill with the flu. However, throughout the game all of the boys played a good game of ball and the J. H. S. team came out on the winning side with a score of 27-22.

Friday night, January 21, the J. H. S. will play two games in the Community Hall against Empire. The first game will begin a seven o'clock. The school greatly appreciates the support of the townspeople at these games.
