ARAGO

The Arago unit of the W. C. T. U. met at the home of Mrs. Edith Woodward Tuesday afternoon. The meeting was opened by the president, Mrs. J. W. Barnett. The devotional was led by Mrs. Ralph Cameron, after which a short business meeting was held at which time a motion was made to use some of the funds now on hand to purchase literature to be used in the Arago school. A special vocal duet was rendered by Mrs. Wayne Woodward and Mrs. S. C. McAllister. Frances Willard, the world's most famous W. C. T. U. worker, was the topic for the afternoon and special talks on her life were given by the following ladies: Mrs. Ralph Cameron, Mrs. Tyrrell Woodward and Mrs. Sam Root. After the meeting the hostess, Mrs. Sam Root, served cake and chocolate to the following members: Mesdames J. W. Barnett, J. D. Root, Tyrrell Woodward, Wayne Woodward, Ralph Cameron, Glenn Griffith, S. C. McAllister and Edith Woodward. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. C. A. Keltner on March 15.

The regular weekly bible study was held Wednesday evening at the church with J. D. Root leading in place of Rev. W. A. Stephens, who was unable to attend on account of high water. The discussion was on the third chapter of Philipines and the following members attended: Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Watkins, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Munford and Leatha, Mr. and Mrs. S. C. McAllister, Mrs. Ward Evans and Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Root and John Paul. They will meet again Wednesday evening at eight o'clock at the church.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Rackleff returned from the Dairymen's meeting in Corvallis last Thursday. Mrs. O. H. Aasen also returned with them after visiting her parents in Portland for a few days.

Rev. M. Ballard, of the Eugene Bible School, who has been supplying the Church of Christ pulpit at Coquille, conducted the Sunday morning church service. Sunday school followed with an attendance of 82. H. E. Watkins was leader of the Christian Endeavor hour and Rev. Geo. Turney delivered the evening message. Services again next Sunday as usual.

There will be an all-day meeting of the patrons of the cheese factory, in the church basement Thursday, with a free lunch at noon. The Arago Ladies Aid has been hired to furnish the lunch.

The first and second basket ball teams and the girls' valley ball team played the Powers teams at Powers last Friday evening with Arago's first team winning with a score of 19 to 17 and the second team losing to Power by a score of 23 to 12. The Arago girls won the volleyball game from the Powers girls.

Ladies Aid met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. D. Root, with the following members present: Mesdames J. D. Carl, C. S. Webb, Albert Lillie, Albert Gustrom, Ernest Hammark, J. L. Burtis and J. D. Root.

Dr. M. B. Shaw and Mrs. Alma Curry, from Nova Scotia, Canada, arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Shaw, Sunday, to spend a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Mast, of Allegheny, spent the week-end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ward Evans. Mrs. H. E. Watkins and Jean, Mrs. O. H. Aasen, Mrs. Alden Butler and Mrs. Ward Evans attended the Missionary meeting held at the Presbyterian church in Myrtle Point Monday.

The singing class met at the home of Mrs. Edith Woodward Monday, with Mrs. Maud Woodyard, of Coquille, directing. Mrs. Woodyard purchased some new music for the class and they commenced work on it and are planning on giving a program in the near future. Anyone who wishes to help is requested to be present at the next meeting, as there is lots of work to be done before the program can be presented.

Following is a list of those present: Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Woodward and Gerald, Mrs. Naomi Robison, Mrs. Reginald Menegat, Mrs. S. C. McAllister and Mary Jean, Miss Leatha Munford, J. D. Root and Mr. and Mrs. Sam Root.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Haga and Grover, of Bear Creek, visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Farrier Monday.

Tyrrell Woodward has sold his house to Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Barklow and is making preparations to build a larger home.

Friday, February 18, Superintendent Dunn presented and explained some moving pictures on the subject of health.

Junior Band Gives Program
The Junior Band had its first public appearance at the regular assembly on Monday, February 14. Miss Fageler first told something about each instrument and the general work of the band. The program consisted of two trumpet solos by Richard Carmichael, a baritone and oboe duo by Dale Stevens and Harvey Cole, and several numbers by the whole band, among which were a waltz, a choral or hymn, a trio of reed instruments and a number which gave each instrument a chance to demonstrate its use in the band.

Junior High Carnival a Success
The Junior High Carnival, which was held Friday, February 18, was very successful. The affair was well attended and everyone derived a great deal of enjoyment from the evening's entertainment.

"Rin-Tin-Tin" Picture Shows
The moving picture, "A Lighthouse by the Sea," starring the dog actor, Rin-Tin-Tin, was shown at a special pay assembly on Tuesday, February 21st. Everyone enjoyed it a great deal.

Basketball News
The A. J. H. basketball teams journeyed to Bunker Hill Saturday afternoon to participate in games with the midget and first teams of that school. The first string returned home victorious with a score of 13-0. This is the second time this season the score has been in favor of the Coquille boys after a game with Bunker Hill. The midget team did not fare so well and lost by the close score of 7-9. This game was hard fought and very close, throughout.

Earlier in the week, on Wednesday, the midget team played at Riverport but were unable to bring back a victory. The Riverton team gained steadily on the local squad during the entire game, so that it ended with a score of 3-13 in favor of Riverton.

Grade School Tournament to be Held in Coquille
The grade school tournament will be held in Coquille on Saturday, March 5th. Games will be played throughout the day and the public is invited to attend. The finals will be played on the evening of Friday, Mar. 11. Admission will be: season ticket pupil, 15c; season ticket adult, 25c; any half day or evening: pupils, 10c; adults, 15c.

Washington's Birthday Observed
Washington's birthday was observed by the high school. The Junior home-rooms, under Mrs. Oiska and Mr. Fuller, combined to read and discuss two interesting articles from the Scholastic magazine. These articles were "Winter at Jockey Hollow Camp, 1779," and "One Time That Washington was Scared." Videlle Kelley was in charge of the program.

Mr. Johnson, in a Senior home-room, gave an outline of Washington's life, discussing the cherry tree story and interpreting it in terms of modern life. Much of it was based on the Encyclopedia Britannica.

The Sophomore and Freshman home-rooms, in charge of Miss Naef and Miss Barker, based their program on an editorial that appeared in the Hi-Times called "Happy Birthday." The article discussed Washington's contribution to all sections of the United States. Geraldine Cole directed discussion of the article in Miss Barker's room, after which Miss Barker gave a short talk stressing Washington's home, family, education and vocation.

In Mrs. Beyers' Freshman home-room, a discussion was held on "A Successful Man." This discussion was a modern version of what constitutes a successful man. Those qualities found in Washington are applicable to the successful man of today.

Miss Schaefer's Sophomore home-room was entertained by an instructive article on the first celebration of Washington's birthday. Elaine Young read the article.

Bazooka Bob Does His Stuff

Bob Burns Co-starred with Jack Oakie, Kenny Baker and Ann Miller in a Hill Billy's Romance

"Radio City Revels" Musical Riot

Comes to Roxy Sunday for Three Days

With a brilliant array of stars to present its unique story and catchy melodies, RKO Radio's "Radio City Revels" offers a real modern novelty in screen entertainment.
Bob Burns, Jack Oakie, Kenny Baker and Ann Miller head the cast of the tuneful offering, which is based on an ingenious theme—Burns' queer faculty of writing catchy songs in his sleep.
A show-boat entertainer from Arkansas, Burns wants to be a songwriter, but is unaware of his unusual talent. But Oakie, a broken-down Tin Pan Alley composer, uses Burns' peculiarity to his own advantage to secure a contract to write the score for the "Revels," which will celebrate the fifth anniversary of Radio City. Intertwined with this scheme is a romance between Kenny Baker, a radio singer, and Ann Miller, a dancer; another romance between Burns and Helen Broderick, and the frantic efforts of Oakie and his pal, Berle, to further Miss Miller's career and to keep their Arkansas meal-ticket happy.
The complications that ensue from these conflicting interests, and the many songs and dance numbers that form an integral part of the story, all keep the picture swinging along at a delightful pace and provide something really new for picture patrons. And the final scenes in the big broadcasting rooms and the theatres of Radio City offer plenty of novelty as the background to a group of notable specialty acts.
