A lovely dinner party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Bosserman Sunday evening with Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Boober as joint hosts. The rooms looked lovely with various potted plants and bouquets of spring flowers. The dining table carried out a color scheme of green and yellow with a beautiful centerpiece of daffodils and narcissus flanked by yellow tapers. The dishes were of green glass and helped give a real spring-like effect. After a most delicious dinner, contract bridge was enjoyed—the ladies competing against the men with the former winning by a large margin. Those present were: Messrs. and Mesdames E. D. McCune, Julius Ruble, R. E. Boober and W. E. Bosserman.

Mrs. J. E. Axtell entertained the "Ecadriens" Monday for one o'clock luncheon at the Rosebud Cafe. The ladies later went to Mrs. Axtell's home where an afternoon of sewing, knitting and chatting were enjoyed. Those present were: Mesdames J. L. Aasen, Geo. Batty, Geo. Johnson, F. A. Robb, Earl Nosler, W. E. Bosserman and the hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Leland Petersen were hosts to a lovely party Saturday evening at their home on the Bandon highway. Spring flowers formed an attractive setting for a delightful evening. Contract bridge was played, after which delicious refreshments were served by the hostess. Those present were: Messrs. and Mesdames Kenneth Graham, Leland Peart, Paul Simpson, R. T. Slater, Julius Ruble, J. D. Gillespie, E. C. Ashworth and the hosts.

Mr. and Mrs. John Jayes were hosts for a six-thirty o'clock dinner party Friday evening at their home on Henry St. Bouquets of spring flowers were about the rooms. After a most delicious dinner, the ladies spent the evening sewing and chatting while the men attended lodge. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Taylor, Mrs. Sadie Jayes, Mrs. Annie Robinson, Mrs. Bertha Smith and the hosts.

Mrs. Wm. Barrow entertained with a lovely party and shower for Mrs. Lyle Harrell Saturday evening. The rooms looked lovely with bouquets of camellias and daffodils. The gifts were presented in an attractive pink and blue crepe paper umbrella. After the gifts were unwrapped, the guests assembled at individual tables for dessert. The place cards were most attractive, carrying out the motif of the shower as were the pink and blue tallies. Contract bridge was played with Mrs. John Clabaugh winning high score and Mrs. Elbert Schroeder receiving consolation. Those present at this delightful affair were: Mesdames Eric Tucker, Henry McCue, Harold Gould, Lewis Wiltshire, Verrill McCurdy, Dan Fish, Marlin Brandon, Elbert Schroeder, John Clabaugh, Mrs. Don McNery, of North Bend, the guest of honor, Mrs. Harrell and the hostess.

Mrs. J. L. Smith was hostess to the Justamere club ladies for one o'clock luncheon Thursday. The room and table looked lovely with bouquets of spring flowers. After a most delicious luncheon, the ladies spent the afternoon sewing, knitting and chatting. Those present were: Mesdames C. J. Fuhrman, W. S. Sickels, H. A. Young, J. A. Lamb, F. L. Greenough, L. H. Hazard, Hal Pierce, E. E. Johnson, O. C. Sanford, R. A. Wernich, A. J. Sherwood, Bert Folsom and the hostess.

Mrs. Paul Simpson entertained her bridge club for one-thirty o'clock dessert luncheon Friday. Bouquets of daffodils and violets made the room look gay and colorful. Contract bridge was played with Mrs. R. T. Slater winning high score and Mrs. Leland Peart second. Those present were: Mesdames Kenneth Graham, Leland Petersen, R. T. Slater, E. C. Ashworth, Leland Peart, Julius Ruble, Geo. Holbrook, J. D. Gillespie and the hosts.

The "Charta club" was entertained by Mrs. Ted Snyder last Friday for one-thirty o'clock dessert luncheon. Cards were enjoyed throughout the afternoon with Mrs. Paul Brinkley winning high score. Those present

Washington School

A dental survey was held in the schools last week. The object of this survey was to promote better teeth and health especially through home care and treatment. Mrs. Chase's room won the $3.00 prize for having the greatest per cent of parents present.

Margaret, Joseph and Casper Leuzinger, of Tillamook, enrolled in the third and fifth grades this week.

An immense teddy bear, about 40 inches in length, is paying the first graders a visit this week. They have enjoyed this stranger very much.

The fifth grade was responsible for the assembly program this week. Besides two musical numbers, several members of the history class gave reports on biographies studied this year.
