Townsend Business Session

Topping the evening off with the masterful playing of two piano solos, by Fred Durham, a wonderful violin solo by Jimmy Backman, accompanied on the piano by Mr. Durham and three choice violin selections by Amos—minus "his gang," the local Townsend Club closed their regular business meeting Tuesday evening.

The business session was a lively affair and with a large crowd in attendance. It was decided to try and revive the Fairview Townsend Club which disbanded several months ago when their community building was destroyed by fire.

Next Tuesday evening is social night. Dancing and program. Gentlemen are expected to bring along a few weinies, which will be eaten, together with buns, later in the evening.

Some one is lucky and doesn't know it: Number 86 received the pillow given away by the local club. If you have number 86, please present it and get the pillow.

J. N. Jacobsen Is New

President of the Eagles

The local Aerie of the F. O. E. met in regular weekly session at their headquarters in the I. O. O. F. hall Thursday evening. The meeting was largely attended in spite of the heavy downpour of rain, which kept many at home. Ray Gilkey, past worthy president, conducted the installation ceremonies of the order. J. N. Jacobsen was installed as president, Ernie Johnson, vice president and Brothers Whereast, Nye and Yarbrough as directors.

A talk on the paper industry by Frank Ball was postponed until next meeting night, which is social night for the order.

Brother Lamb distinguished himself by bringing in the applications of ten candidates. Competition in a drive that is forthcoming is expected to be keen. Rumors are heard of two members of the local Aerie, old war horses in the campaign game for membership drives, as being about to spring something of unusual interest to the Aerie. All members are anxious to get the low-down on the matter, but to date the two members in question have failed to put out any information regarding the plans. They can never be found together and when approached alone, each is wont to pass the buck to the other. It is expected that an announcement will be made soon concerning the "dark secret."
