To Attend Bandmasters Assn.

Miss Anita Pageler, music teacher of the local public schools, intends driving to Corvallis to attend the state bandmasters' association meeting. She will be taken into membership of the group at a Friday night banquet, being the second woman in the state to be received into this organization. The class B and D groups will compete for the state high school band honors, but due to the difficulty of the required pieces and the lack of proper instrumentation, the local band is unable to enter the competition.

New Janitor at Court House

Carl C. Wilson, janitor at the court house for the past two or three years, has had to give up the job due to ill health. The county court yesterday named Earl Schroeder, of this city, to succeed him.

Births at Coquille Hospital

A nine-pound daughter, who has been named Janet Louise, was born to Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Swinney last Friday.

To Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Hardman, of Bridge, a 9½ pound daughter, Evelyn Arlene, last Friday.

To Mr. and Mrs. Jack Miller, of Coquille, on Sunday, an eight pound son.

To the Public

There seems to a rumor or idea, the undersigned is young and inexperienced in refrigeration work. For your information we submit the following: have been instructed in refrigeration in the following schools, Kelvinator, Leonard, General Electric and Frigidaire. Also have complete instruction in school of Electrolux gas and kerosene burning refrigeration. Have had seven years actual experience in refrigeration repair work. Have also had a large amount of sales experience. I am also a graduate of the L. L. Cooke School of Electricity, of Chicago, Ill. We guarantee all work to be satisfactory and will appreciate you calling us when in need of a refrigeration service man. Can furnish local reference if wanted. See adv. in this paper. Signed C. C. Smith.

The Hat Creeks Indians

Baskets made by the Hat Creeks Indians of past generations were of excellent workmanship. This art is probably more highly developed than any other practiced by the tribe. Most of the baskets were for practical use—burden baskets, or cooking utensils. Some, however, were made for the sole purpose of burial ornamentation.

Island of People

Barbados, British West Indies, is the most densely populated country in the world with the single-exception of Java. There are 1,000 inhabitants for each square mile of the island's area. Nearly the entire population is descended from negroes imported from West Africa during the Seventeenth and Eighteenth centuries.

Naming Our Robins

Early settlers on this continent observed red-breasted birds which reminded them of English robins, and that explains the name of much-loved birds we call "robins." The English robin is smaller, and belongs to a somewhat different family.
