ARAGO

Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Barklow moved to Bend, Ore., last week.
Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Menegat and Donald, Mrs. August Anderson and Mark Garoutte spent the week-end at Lakeside.

The evangelistic services, being conducted by Captain Hall, started last Tuesday evening and will continue through this week. There will be special music every evening. Everyone is cordially invited to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert DeMoss were week-end visitors at the home of Mrs. Edith Woodward.

A lovely dinner, honoring the girls of the volley ball team, was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Menegat Wednesday evening, with Mrs. Menegat and Miss Esther Davidson as joint hostesses. Those enjoying this lovely meal were: Misses Marguerite and Lois Robison, Betty Blondell, Esther Barnett, Edith and Leona Mason, Maxine Rackleiff, Mary Jean McAllister, Mary Robison, Esther Davidson, Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Menegat and Donald, and Mrs. August Anderson. After dinner the guests enjoyed a pleasant evening playing games.

The home demonstration meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Edith Woodward Friday at ten o'clock. Everyone is asked to come early as Miss Case will be in charge of the meeting, which is on meat cookery, and it is wished to start promptly. Potluck dinner at noon.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Edgmon drove to Eugene last week to take Mrs. R. E. Doyle out to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Cooper. R. E. Doyle has been transferred from Powers to Cunningham.

The Arago grade school girls and boys went to Broadbent Friday evening for a volley ball game with the Broadbent teams. The Arago boys lost, with a score of 6 to 9. The Arago girls tied with the Broadbent girls.

Captain Hall conducted the Sunday morning preaching services. Sunday school followed with an attendance of 64. There was a potluck dinner at noon in the church basement, with quite a large attendance. S. C. McAllister was leader of the Christian Endeavor hour and Mr. Hall had charge of the evening service also. There will be another potluck dinner next Sunday, also the regular Sunday services.

Ladies Aid met Wednesday afternoon in the church basement, with the following attendance: Mesdames J. L. Burtis, J. D. Root, J. D. Carl, C. S. Webb, Ward Evans, Tyrrell Woodward. The ladies will meet again this Wednesday and finish making the curtains for the Aid room.

being asked to take part. Christian Endeavorers appointed to serve on the program committee are Cherie Mae Hartwell, Myrtle Beckett and Lou Hooton. A Good Friday service will be held again this year, with J. L. Ellis in charge of arrangements. The Bible School will sponsor an Easter egg hunt for the children on Easter morning.

Mrs. Dwight Culver spent Saturday in Myrtle Point with her sister, Mrs. Daniel Cribbins, who got home last week from the Mast Hospital, where she had undergone a major operation about a month previously.

Mrs. Ira Smith and daughter, Dorothy, returned Monday afternoon to the H. A. Hatfield home, after an overnight visit at the Paul Holland home at Norway.

Clyde Puett came in Friday afternoon from Klamath Falls and is staying with Glen Hutton. He hopes to secure employment in this vicinity. James H. Rookard left Saturday for Tenmile, having received word of the death, the evening before, of his sister, Mrs. Fred Breitenbucher. The Breitenbuchers have several friends among the older residents of this community, who deeply regret to hear this sad news.

Mrs. Clyde Harrison was hostess to a group of ladies at a party at her home Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Culver and children, Mary Lou and Evert, were dinner guests Sunday at the Louis

Root home at Myrtle Point. Mrs. Chas. Mack, who has been ill with yellow jaundice, is improving now.
