Chas. Sprague Looks Like A Winner

Coming down the home stretch apparently well out in the clear, Charles A. Sprague will spend the last week of the primary campaign in Portland, having already covered a large part of the outlying state.

During his stay there Sprague will deliver two radio addresses. The first will be over KOIN at 9 p. m. Friday, May 13, and the second will be over KGW at 9:45 Wednesday.

May 12. The Salem editor has a splendid radio voice and he gets over a real message to those interested in a revitalized republican party ready to meet problems of the day in an understanding and business-like manner.

Sprague has completed a swing over the state, during which he met thousands of voters and left with them an impression that presages his success at the polls Friday of next week.

While the Sprague campaign did not start until after the last date for filling, it has been an intensive one and reports arriving at the office of Robert Boyd, state manager, indicate it is a winning one. In a remarkably short space of time the Salem editor has become known over a great state in a manner that means votes. This has come about without flare of drums, for the Sprague campaign has been one to draw support of thinking persons who want energy coupled with a dignity in keeping with the office being sought.

Mr. Sprague was a Coquille visitor last Friday morning and made a very fine impression on the voters he was able to contact in the short time he was here.

Coquille Townsend Club

Townsend Club No. 1 of Coquille met for their social night at their headquarters in the Community Building Tuesday evening with a very large crowd in attendance. A splendid program was presented and enjoyed by all. It consisted of the following:

A cello solo was rendered by Mrs. Beyers, a piano solo by Irene Williams, a violin solo by Miss Lyndell Southstone, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Ralph Southstone. Mrs. Trela Ribero sang "One Rose." Miss Bettie Preston accompanied by her mother, sang "In a Little Dutch Kindergarten." Richard Sherman and Marion Gregory sang and played three selections, Gene Schroder appeared in a couple of songs and Levi Bunch told an old timer story.

Space and time prevents us from commenting on each individual, but they were all good and each one responded to encores from the pleased crowd. Dancing followed the program.

During the business session of the meeting, Tom Drake, president of the club, asked Townsendite to support Levi Bunch, republican candidate for sheriff, and Lans Leneve, on the democratic ticket for sheriff.

Constance Bennett And Brian Aherne Starred in Comedy

Head Distinguished Cast in "Merrily We Live," Opening at Roxy Theatre Tonight

"Merrily We Live," the Hal Roach-M-G-M uproarious successor to "Topper," one of last season's daffiest comedies, opens Thursday at the Roxy Theatre with Constance Bennett of the former hit once again cast in a comedy portrayal, this time co-starred with Brian Aherne who recently scored in the title role of "The Great Garrick."

The new picture, based on a screen play by Eddie Moran and Jack Jevne, was directed by Norman Z. McLeod, director of "Topper" and other film successes, and its supporting cast reads like a "Who's Who" of Hollywood celebrities.

Prominently cast are Billie Burke, Alan Mowbray, Patsy Kelly, Ann Dvorak, Tom Brown, Bonita Granville, Marjorie Rameau, Phillip

Reed, Clarence Kolb, Marjorie Kane, Paul Everton and Willie Best.

The action of "Merrily We Live" revolves around the antics of the Kilbourne family, as mad, fantastic and carefree a group as were ever assembled under one roof. Each is a rugged individualist, but together they present a united front that is bewildering to their sedate and conservative suburban neighbors.

The new picture marks the first co-starring appearance of Miss Bennett and Aherne.

Pythian Club Entertained

The Pythian Home Club was entertained at the home of Mrs. Frank Schram Tuesday for one o'clock dessert luncheon. The house was decorated beautifully with bouquets of calla lilies. The ladies spent the afternoon sewing for the Pythian Home. Those present were: Mesdames E. A. Wimer, Frank Pook, Blanche Davis, Harold Varney, Jack Arnold, George Gilman, Ray Pettengill, W. E. Cross, Neil McGilvery, Martha Bennett, Fred Hickok, Warren Davis, W. L. Kistner, a guest, Mrs. Russell Wilson, and the hostess.

Calling cards, 50 for $1.00.
