Mrs. Woodyard's Music

Pupils to Present Program

A two-part program will be given Tuesday evening at the Pioneer Hall by groups studying with Mrs. Woodyard, local voice and piano teacher. The first part will be in charge of the rhythm band and singing class of pre-school children. These children have performed twice this winter but now are giving some of their numbers in the evening so the fathers and other friends who have not heard them may do so. Eighteen children will be in this part of the program.

The second half of the evening will be a musical comedy, "The Quest of the Gypsy," by a group of eighteen high school girls who have been studying voice in groups with Mrs. Woodyard. The following girls have parts in the comedy: Joy Norton, who sings the prologue; Ann Hawkins, Yvonne Kern, Donna Dean Bosserman, Emma Frances Mulkey, Muriel Davis, Elaine Gray, Calarbel Watson, Beverly Norton, Jerry Holcomb, Dorothy Hardenbrook, Patty Nosler, Dorothy Bell Newton, Patty Holverstott, Margaret Stewart, Jean Laird, and Louise Woodyard, accompanist. All friends are invited to hear this program which will prove to be most entertaining. A small charge of ten cents will be made. At Pioneer Hall Tuesday, May 17, at 7:30 p. m.

Bishop Attends Guild Meeting

The Episcopal Ladies met in the Guild Hall Wednesday afternoon and had as honored guest, Bishop Dagwell, who gave a splendid talk.
