

Levi L. Bunch Outlines Policy Policy as Sheriff

LEVI L. BUNCH, of Coquille; Republican candidate for Sheriff; Born in Coos County in 1885; lived here the better part of his life; received his common school education here; finished school education at Walla Walla College, Washington.

I have pledged when nominated and afterwards elected in my petition on file, that I will perform the duties as required by the laws of Oregon, which means in general as enumerated in the Oregon Code and statutes: "That the sheriff is the chief executive officer and conservator of the peace of the county."

In the execution of his office, it is his duty:

1. To arrest and commit to prison all persons who break the peace, or attempt to break it, and all persons guilty of public offenses;
2. To defend his county against those who, by riot or otherwise, endanger the public peace or safety;
3. To execute the process and orders of the courts of justice or of judicial officers, when delivered to him for that purpose, according to the provisions of this Code or other statute;

4. To execute all warrants delivered to him for that purpose, by other public officers, according to the provisions of particular statutes;

5. To attend the terms of supreme court, circuit, or county court held within his county, and to obey its lawful orders or directions."

In addition to the general duties of the sheriff, he is the tax collector of all taxes of the county. Thousands of dollars are lost to the county in personal taxes. It is my pledge and purpose, when elected, to use every effort to collect these taxes promptly when assessed and not wait until the property on which transient or movable property taxes, which can not be attached to real property, is moved out of the county and the tax lost.

It is a well known report that narcotics are being unlawfully peddled in the county; intoxicating liquors are being sold to minors, and vice rings are operating their nefarious business in the county. I pledge to perform the duties required of a sheriff and an active support to all officers in the enforcement of law, and my own personal action to clean up this menace to the people, and as far as lies within my power to make more moral the conditions of our county.

My candidacy is respectfully submitted to the voters of Coos County.

Chanays Are In Florida

Latest report from Mr. and Mrs. George H. Chaney and sons, Patterson and Alan, who are on a trip back east, gives their location as Orlando, Florida. There they were guests of Mrs. Chaney's aunt, Mrs. Henrietta Ford, and at her home celebrated the tenth birthday of their youngest son, Alan, on May 3.

From Orlando they expected to go to Miami and then follow the Overseas highway to Key West. This PWA project, costing $57,000,000, was opened to motor traffic March 29, and will be formally dedicated July 4.

Taking the coast route, they plan to spend several days in Washington, D. C., and the latter part of June be in New Jersey, where they will remain for a week at Mountain Lake for a visit at the home of Mrs. Chaney's brother, Dr. Roy Dufford Ribble.

We Shouldn't Complain

And we in southwestern Oregon are prone to complain about the 80-odd inches of rain we have had since the first of last September! Listen to this account sent from the Hawaiian Islands by Mrs. Jennie Williams, sister of Mrs. J. A. Lamb, who was raised in Oregon and has lived in Hilo, Hawaii, for the past two years. The figures are furnished by the U. S. Weather department:

From April 1 to April 14, 95 inches. From April 1 to April 14 it was 31.17 inches, and for 24 hours, April 9, the gauge showed 14.32 inches. That's about four times as much as ever fell in southwestern Oregon in 24 hours. Rushing rivers swept through down town Hilo, tearing up streets, damaging store stocks and blocking traffic. The residential sections were also flooded.

dusty pink, with a small navy blue hat and accessories. Miss Young wore a beige and wine ensemble with a natural straw hat.

At the close of the ceremony the bride party and guests left the church to the strains of the Mendelssohn wedding march, played by Mrs. Woodyard, and assembled later at the home of the bride's parents, where a wedding reception was held. The reception line consisted of the newly married couple and their parents. Mrs. Wilme Malvie and Mrs. J. E. Russell, both of Portland, and Mrs. William Pook, of Coquille, presided at the table from which refreshments were served.

After the reception, the young couple left on a short wedding trip, after which they will make their home in Medford, where Mr. Roake has prepared a home for his bride. For travelling, Mrs. Roake wore a two-piece suit of grey lighted with bright color trim, and with harmonizing accessories.

Mrs. Roake is the younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pook of this city. She is a graduate of the local high school, where she was one of the most popular members of her class and where she received many distinctions, including election to be as May Queen during her senior year. She finished her education at the Northwestern Business College, in Portland, and for the past year has been employed in the office of the Smith Wood-Products Company. Mr. Roake is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Roake, of Portland. He is a graduate of the University of Washington and at present serves as field clerk for the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company at Medford. Their many friends in Coquille and elsewhere wish them all possible joy for their future.

Out-of-town guests present for the wedding and reception, in addition to those mentioned above were W. Roake, grandfather of the groom; Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Greer, of Portland, sister and her husband, of the groom; A. H. Graham, of Seattle; Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Hanna, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Schroeder, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hanning, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Lawrence, H. A. Cooper, all of Medford; Mrs. E. J. Russell, of Portland, and two sisters of Mrs. Pook, Mrs. J. A. Tobin, of Grants Pass, and Miss Wilma Mackenzie, of Portland.

On Tuesday evening of last week Misses La Verne Knife and Carol Young entertained with a dinner party at the home of the latter, complimenting Miss Jeannette Pook. The guest list included: Misses Dolores Belloni, Vesta Miley, Marjorie Knight, Lois Schroeder, Mrs. Wm. Pook, the honor guest and hostesses.

Tom Stevens and Mary

Archibald Wed Sunday

Thomas Francis Stevens, third son of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Stevens, of this city, was united in marriage at 11 a. m. last Sunday morning to Miss Mary Frances Archibald, daughter of Mrs. Harry Daisley, of North Bend, the ceremony being performed at the Daisley home by Rev. Mrs. Benton, of Eugene, an aunt of the bride, in the presence of about twenty-five members of the two families and guests.

The wedding march was played by the bride's mother, Miss Caroline Signales as bridesmaid, and Don L. Stevens, brother of the groom, attended him.

The rooms of the Daisley home were beautifully decorated with rhododendrons and greenery.

After a bountiful wedding dinner the happy couple left on a trip north into British Columbia, expecting to return in a couple of weeks.

The younger members of those present had decorated Tom's car with tin cans, old shoes and a "Just Married" sign, but when they started to escort the couple out of town, Tom outraced them, and going across the Coos Bay bridge at 75 m. p. h. the wind whipped all the decorations from the car and dropped them in the Bay.

The bride graduated from the North Bend high school in 1937, the groom from Coquille High in '33, since which time he has assisted his father in the conduct of the People's Market. He is a splendid young man, steady, reliable and courteous.

Upon their return the latter part of next week they will go to the home Tom has prepared for his bride on Spurgeon Hill, on West Fifth, just off Schroeder street.

City Police Cases

Three arrests for drunkenness were made by Coquille police last Sunday. Johey Brown, who was also charged with committing a nuisance in the north end, paid a $20 fine.

Carl Western was given a $10 suspended sentence and Percy Bean forfeited the $5 bail he posted.

Seeking Funds to Complete High School Gym

grant is not approved, no damage has been done and the matter can then be dropped. But it will hardly appeal to even those who may have opposed building the gym in the first place, as the logical thing to do to vote against its completion now when $4500 of taxes will be all that is needed to completely equip it and a grant of $3700 more may be received.

The school district's budget committee which will meet May 17 to prepare an estimate of next year's expenses was named by the board to consist of W. E. Bossman, Mrs. M. E. Wilson and C. W. Kline.

School District No. 8, with its school census showing 1010 when it was taken last October is now a district of the first class.

There is practically no advantage in being a first class district except that it gives a little more prestige and allows a greater leeway in the selection of courses of study.

One thing it will mean, however, is that there will be five directors on the school board instead of three. And according to the school law the three now serving will all hold office for another year.

The two new directors must be nominated by petition before the annual election in June.

Two candidates who have been suggested for election in June are Willard E. Bossman and C. Weldon Kline. Both are good men who would fit in well with the present board members.

Rebekahs Have Homecoming

Mamie Rebekah Lodge, No. 20, observed their annual home-coming after the regular lodge session last night. They also had a short program in observance of the 112th anniversary of oddfellowship. A good crowd responded in person and also by letter telling the time they joined the order and interesting facts concerning the same. Members adjourned to the banquet hall, where moving pictures of Coquille, San Francisco and other scenes were displayed by Mrs. K. P. Lawrence to the delight of the audience. Miss Patsy Holverstott entertained with two lovely piano solos and Miss Videlle Kelley was most expressive in a splendid humorous reading. Delicious refreshments were served by the committee. Iris and marigolds adorned the tables. Mrs. Myrtle Benham and Mrs. Hester Holverstott were chosen as delegates to the Rebekah convention at Pendleton. They leave Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schorr are also attending. Mr. Schaer being a delegate from the L. O. O. F.

Oregon Unemployment

Checks Near Top

Oregon unemployment compensation checks averaged $11.92, placing this state within a few cents of the top spot held by Arizona, as the commission passed the two and a quarter million dollar total distribution mark.

Figures for all the 23 states paying benefits have not been released, but Oregon's average is far above most. West Virginia checks are averaging $9.78, Pennsylvania's figure is $11.34, while in the far south, North Carolina's average is $5.75 and Alabama's is $6.75.

More than 600 workers now have received their 14th check and check No. 250,000 will be issued next week. Claim determination continues at an even pace, however. Commission records show that due to continued unemployment between 300 and 400 new claimants are now receiving their initial benefit checks.

"This indicates constant registration and filing of new claims," declared Administrator D. A. Bulmore, "although those first on the list are being paid out at a rate to approach an offset, tending to stabilize check production."

County Jail Arrivals

Jas. Curtis Pette was brought over from Marshfield last Thursday, he having been fined $10 in justice court for contributing to the delinquency of a child, and $5 for being drunk and disorderly.

State police arrested Don Richard Bishop last Sunday for driving while intoxicated. He pleaded not guilty and has not yet been tried in Justice Barton's court. Dorothea Florence Woods who was with him was fined $10 for being drunk on a public highway.

Burns and Allen Head Laugh Cast at Roxy Sun., Mon., Tues.

Gracie Allen, George Burns and Martha Raye, who panicked audiences in "College Holiday," head the all-star cast of the new Paramount musical comedy, "College Swing," which will open Sunday for three days at the Roxy Theatre. In this story of a collegiate nitwit who takes over a leading American university and runs it to suit herself, the three gay clowns are assisted in their antics by Bob Hope, who climbed into the top drawer of stardom by virtue of his single performance as the master of ceremonies in the recent "Big Broadcast of 1938."

The story of "College Swing" is the high-gear fantasy which has always provided Burns and Allen with their most successful material. It opens in Puritan times with a wealthy old New Englander making a will bequeathing the college he has founded to the first female member of his family who passes an examination in it. The camera then slides on down two centuries and shows Gracie, his descendant, getting herself in shape for the big test.

With the aid of a resourceful young student, Bob Hope, Gracie discovers a short-cut to knowledge which would make Einstein look like a plucker. She passes the examination with flying colors and takes control of the university immediately. Under Gracie's regime, an educational revolution takes place. "Liberal education" is made "liberal" in every sense of the word, with Gracie as "Dean of Men," Martha Raye as a member of the faculty and Hope as "Professor of Applied Romance." He "applies" it to, of all people, Martha, thus forming the screen's newest love team.

Edward Everett Horton fresh from his role as Claudette Colbert's coniving father in "Bluebeard's Eighth Wife," plays an important part as the woman-hating multi-millionaire who learns about romance from Gracie, and, what is even stranger, likes it! George Burns appears as his secretary, who is unable to prevent his master from becoming entangled in the wiles of America's most novel "educator."

C. H. S. Wins Second

Krantz won the shot put, his toss being 43 feet, 2 inches, and the discuss event, tossing it 108 feet, 7 inches. Goodman, of Coquille, won the javelin, hurling it 144 feet, 1/2 inch.

Lewis, Coquille, was third in the 200 yard hurdles, Smith was third in the 220 yard dash, Wheaton fourth in the half mile run, Smith second in the shot put, Goodman tied for fourth in the pole vault, Smith was second to Krantz in the discus, Krantz was third in the javelin and Goodman was second in the broad jump.

Why shouldn't I take life easy? I have an Electric Range and I'm feeding my family better than ever before. They enjoy the fine meals my electric range prepares and we all have such a grand time together when they are home because I am no longer too tired or busy to enjoy their company. Of course the main reason for having an electric range is the wonderful foods that come from it. But there's also the saving of time and energy, the freedom from the sort of work that makes women so weary that they just can't help nagging. An electric range is the stove you've dreamed of. The stove that cooks without heating up the kitchen. The stove that watches the cooking process for you. Scientifically regulating the heat to the correct temperature. You can cook a whole meal without ever being in the house . . . and cook it more perfectly than would have been possible with old-fashioned cooking equipment even if you spent the whole day watching it.

No Charge for Wiring in Connection with Range Service.
