B. P. W. Club Has Mother-Daughter Banquet

An unusually large group sat down to one of the loveliest Mother and Daughter banquets ever held in Coquille, Monday evening in the Pioneer banquet hall. It was given by the B. & P. W. club with the executive council in charge: namely: Mesdames Viola Newton, Gladys Gano, Clarence Osika, Margarita Brodie and Miss Edna Robison. The table was decorated beautifully in the pastel shades, with May baskets and candies as centerpieces.

During the splendid banquet, a very pleasing program was enjoyed. The club collect was led by Mrs. Clara Bosserman, after which group singing was enjoyed, led by Mrs. Ruth Beyers. Mrs. Gladys Gano gave the address of welcome, which was responded to by Mrs. B. W. Dunn. A lovely piano solo by Miss Inez Rover followed. The mothers and friends were introduced and a delightful vocal solo was given by Mrs. Leona Bryant. Mrs. Inez Chase spoke of her "First School" and Mrs. Bertha Smith on "Recollections." Group singing and a social time completed a most happy evening.

Members present were: Mesdames Harriet Osika, Marjorie Rowland, Georgia Richmond, Naomi Robison, Clara Stauff, Belle Knife, Jennie Price, May Barton, Ida Owen, Gladys Gano, Viola Newton, Bertha Smith, Ruth Beyers, Salma Caughell, Edith Walton, Annie Robinson, Clara Bosserman, Inez Chase, Leona Bryant, Martha Mulkey, Misses Myrtle DeLong, Lotus Eaton, Ida Oerding, Geneva Agostino, Alfa Bang, La Verne Knife, Beattie Payne, Myrtle Minter, Ruth Towne, Catherine Barker, Inez Rover, Eva Schroeder.

Guests present were Mesdames Belle Gould, Allan Hall, Capitola Fitzgerald, Amos Payne, Minnie Lewis, Jean Graybeal, Hettie Leslie, R. V. Ames, Nellie Purvance, Louise Minter, Julia Root, Towne, J. S. Barton, A. J. Sherwood, Hulda Elingson, Estelle Dunn, Maud Woodyard, Ella Nelson, Mary Newton, Jas. Watson, Frank Rover, Levi Snyder, Sadie Jayes, Lois De Long, Inez Pinkston, B. W. Dunn, Vesta Soper, E. F. Brodie, Clara Wheeler, Folsom, Geo. Taylor, La Vine Finley, Katie Pearl, Anna Rooney, Edna Slater, Miranda Way, Jennie Rose, H. N. Oddities in the News

A prominent pharmacist on Coquille's First street stopped his car, double parked, and left it running, while he went into Brandon's recently. When he came out he proceeded on foot—down to the Rackett Pharmacy. After an hour of gasoline wasting, the cops took the car in charge and it cost Dave a dollar to reclaim it.

Jay Smith recently bought what he says was the finest looking heifer he ever saw from Arthur Ellingson. He expected to move it to his range last Thursday but on Tuesday Mrs. Ellingson called him up and said: "You better come get your heifer; she has electrocuted herself."

An extension cord, attached to a socket had been hung over a boat Mr. Ellingson was building and the heifer had taken the lower socket in her mouth. A hole was burned in her tongue and she had dropped dead when she started to suck the socket.

Geo. Turney To Head Rotary Coming Year

The surprising amount of real music that can be gotten out of a clarinet was very ably demonstrated by George Fuller of the local high school faculty, guest entertainer at the Rotary club luncheon Wednesday noon. Accompanied in his usual efficient manner by Bobbie Burns, Mr. Fuller presented two solos that were more than appreciated by the attending Rotarians. Bonnie Gage sang two very pleasing solos, also accompanied by Mr. Burns.

The new officers selected by the recently elected directors were announced as George Turney, president, Muri Pettit, vice president, and Elton Schroeder to succeed himself as secretary-treasurer.

After announcing some time ago that all the seniors had been entertained by the club, Clarence Osika hunted around in his pockets and found another in the person of Virginia La Branche, who was present.

Guests present were Mr. Studross, of Portland, L. C. Brett, of Salem, Raleigh Green, of Myrtle Point, and Roy Wernich, of Coquille.

Junior-Senior Banquet Held Last Friday

Good luck charms were much in evidence at the Junior-Senior banquet, in order to dispell the jinx of the date, Friday 13th. One hundred and fourteen members of the faculty, school board and junior and senior classes gathered at the Odd Fellows hall to observe the annual custom of feting the graduating class.

The delicious food was served by the ladies of the Rebekah lodge, assisted in serving by ten sophomore girls.

The theme of the cleverly arranged program will be seen in the following entertainment:
"Do you believe in signs?"
Welcome - Jack Martin
"Yes, Some Signs" - Mary Robb
Response - Sylvia
Vocal solo - Leonard Farr
"Red sky at morning—Sailors' warning"—Your four years' work

"Makes a man Healthy, Wealthy, and Wise"—Your diploma - Mr. Osika
Scarf Dance - Chaminade
Piano Solo Donna Dean Bosserman
"See a Pin and Pick it Up"
Your future - Jane Kramer
"Your Opportunities" - Mr. Dunn
Repass Band-March
Accordion solo Kenneth Lawrence
"A stitch in time"
Presentation of the Senior Can
Orville Clinton, Senior Pres.
"Saves Nine"
Acceptance of the Can - Ralph Fuhrman, Junior Pres.
Song, "Coquille High" Entire Group
During the banquet Yvonne Kern led the group in clever songs, while Dick Stager, toastmaster, produced many surprises in the form of belated Christmas gifts in seasonal wrappings, to present to certain members of the faculty, classes, and waitresses.

Following the banquet a group known as the XDT's entertained at a dancing party in the Odd Fellows hall, chaperoned by some of the parents and with the enjoyable music furnished by Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bull.
