Job's Daughters Have Fathers-Mothers Banquet

Over sixty sat down to the Fathers' and Mothers' banquet given to Job's Daughters Monday evening in the banquet hall of the Masonic Temple. The tables had been beautifully decorated for the occasion with bouquets of iris and other spring flowers. Miss Eileen Percy, honored queen, welcomed the mothers and dads and B. W. Dunn responded to the greeting in a very hearty manner. Mrs. J. L. Smith had charge of the splendid dinner, assisted by a corps of workers.

The meeting of the Bethel followed in the Masonic Hall, which was attended by a large and enthusiastic group of mothers, dads and friends. The semi-annual election of Job's Daughters was held with the following being chosen. Honored Queen, Beverly Norton; Senior Princess, Ann Hawkins; Junior Princess, Margaret Stewart; Guide, Donna Dean Bosserman; Marshal, Jean Laird.

Mrs. Camilla Rietman, Bethel Guardian, being unable to be present, wrote a lovely letter to the girls and also to the Council members.

The annual installation of Council members was conducted by Ernest Purvance, past associate grand guardian, assisted by Margaret, Smith as installing guide; Donna Dean Bosserman, installing marshal; Muriel Davis, installing chaplain; Peggy Werlich, installing secretary, and Margaret Smith, installing pianist.

The following officers were installed: Guardian, Mrs. Catherine Ruble; Guardian Sec., Mrs. Helen Ayers; Guardian Treas., Mrs. B. W. Dunn; Custodian of Paraphernalia, Mrs. Edith McCue; Promotor of Hospitality, Mrs. Eva Watson.

The Bethel girls are sponsoring the picture, "Tom Sawyer," which will be shown soon. Wednesday evening, May 25, a dance was held for members and friends.
