The Christian Endeavor meeting next Sunday evening will be conducted by Miss Myrtle Beckett. The topic is "Youth and the Homes of Tomorrow." The service will begin at seven o'clock with a special musical number. The society is giving a social Friday evening, May 27th, from eight to ten o'clock, at the Grange hall, to raise money for the insurance on the church. There will be a short program, followed by games under the direction of the social chairman, Miss Virginia Beckett. Home-made candy and pie will be on sale.

Mrs. Harold E. James came in from Central Point to attend the high school commencement exercises in Myrtle Point, her daughter, Helen, being one of the graduates. She is spending a few days with friends here and at Myrtle Point.

There was an attendance of 58 at Bible School Sunday. A committee, composed of Misses Lou Hooton, Betty Doney, Pauline Farmer and Virginia Lake, was appointed to arrange a program for Children's Day, June 5th. An organ solo by Clarence E. Ellison and a vocal solo with guitar accompaniment, by Lee Finley, of Coquille, were enjoyable features of the church service, which was conducted by Oren Hardenbrook, of Coquille. Next Sunday, after the Bible School hour and communion service, the congregation will go to Camp Myrtlewood (Lett's grove), where a ten-minute sermon will be given, followed by a pot luck dinner. Mr. Hardenbrook will be in charge of the recreational period in the afternoon. Everyone in the community is cordially invited to attend.

Mrs. H. A. Hatfield returned Friday from Pendleton, where she attended a lodge convention.

Mr. and Mrs. James Porter and sons, Jimmy Lee and Roy, moved Sunday to Sixes, where Mr. Porter is employed. Mrs. Porter was given a delightful surprise farewell party Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. I. B. England at Remote. There was a fine group of Bridge and Remote friends present and Mrs. Porter received a number of nice gifts.

A jolly birthday party, honoring the anniversaries of Evelyn Morrison and Marian Finch, was given Monday evening at the home of Evelyn Shields. Marian and Evelyn, who are "twins," have celebrated their birthdays together since they became acquainted when they were fifth graders. They are now eighth grade graduates.
