Church Crowded for Baccalaureate

The Pioneer church was crowded to capacity Sunday evening, with many who wished to attend the Baccalaureate services not being able to secure seats.

Rev. Geo. R. Turney made a most inspiring address, not of the stereotyped form, but one of appeal to the students who are just entering the wider walks of life, to distinguish between the true and the false values and to be true to themselves.

The music was excellent, the young ladies of the glee club making a fine impression on the audience in singing the anthem, "Praise Ye the Father." Under the direction of Miss Anita Pageler all musical departments in the schools have made splendid progress this year.

Another feature which appealed to the audience was that the service was not prolonged.

Tuesday evening Pastime won from Myrtle Point 8 to 3, and last evening Walt Moore's team won from Fuhrman's 6-2.

The Stevens' Hardware vs. Riverton, scheduled for tonight, was postponed until Friday evening because of C. H. S. commencement exercises.

Next week's schedule sees Myrtle Point meeting Plywood, Tuesday evening; Pastime vs. Fuhrman's Wednesday, Moore's vs. Stevens Thursday and Riverton vs. Junior C. of C. Friday evening.

Advertising Coquille in South

Mr. and Mrs. Lafe Compton left last Saturday morning for the Oregon Caves where the southern Oregon hotel keepers association held its regular session that evening. Mrs. Compton returned Sunday but Mr. Compton, with hotel men from Roseburg, Salem, Medford and Grants Pass went south as far as San Francisco, expecting to return the coming week-end. It was a publicity and advertising trip for them, and Mr. Compton took along a liberal supply of his hotel folders, which also contain considerable Coquille publicity, for distribution at leading hotels, travel direction bureaus and resorts.
