Legion members, as Commander F. W. Martin stated, was delivered by Norene Robison.

Major Allan A. Hall spoke briefly, asserting that Memorial day arouses an emotion that no other celebrated day ever has.

Following Mr. Hall's address, "Roses of Picardy" was sung by Rev. Geo. R. Turney, accompanied by Bobbie Burns, and prior to the benediction pronounced by Rev. G. A. Gray, the audience joined in singing a number of songs popular during the World war.

Services at the bridge and the cemeteries concluded the observance of Memorial day.

these papers and there were half a dozen members of that graduating class present. The record showed that the greater percentage of them are married, nearly all actively engaged, and the only discordant note in the story of modified successes was the response from one that he or she was not happy, with emphasis on the "not."

In presenting the class for receiving diplomas, Clarence Osika, high school principal, introduced the honor students and those earning honorable mention, with their scholastic rating for the high school course. "One" is the maximum mark any student may receive and the record showed Maxine Knight had been credited with a 1.1, Wilda Mae Van Meter 1.2, Annamæ Holverstott 1.3, Beverly Norton 1.4, Helen Biasca 1.6, Elaine Gray 1.6, Imogene Hickam 1.7, Lucille Sherwood, Emma Frances Mulkey and Orville Clinton each 1.9, and Margaret Stewart 2.

The whole program was one of which the class and faculty may well be proud. The high school band and the double trio of undergraduates added to the pleasure of the evening with well rendered numbers.

And before the class of '38 dispersed, never to meet again with all present, they formed a semi-circle across the front of the building where they received the congratulations of their friends.

Secretary of State Snell

Appreciates Election Tribute

Secretary of State Earl Snell has issued a word of thanks and appreciation to his friends throughout the state, who brought about his nomination in the recent primary.

In addition to building a fine record for efficient and courteous administration of a big job, Snell's first term in office has been marked by the inauguration of a most successful and extensive traffic safety campaign. His work along this line has resulted in marked decreases in accidents, a steady reduction in fatalities from month to month, and placed Oregon in the first rank of the states of the union in point of accomplishment in this work.

In the recent primary, Snell polled the largest vote of any candidate running for a party nomination, his total being exceeded only by two justices of the supreme court, who ran on a non-partisan ballot and received votes from both parties.

Scouts Going to Lucky Boy Camp

Two Coquille Boy Scouts—Kenneth Lawrence, Jr., and Clarence Campbell, of Troop No. 63—have already signed up for attendance at the Lucky Boy scout camp on Blue river, 50 miles east of Eugene, Scout Executive Doman stated Tuesday, and many more from the two troops here are expected to attend. Those contemplating a two weeks' outing at the camp are urged to send in their applications at once, so that arrangements can be made before June 10.

The camp will be maintained from July 3 to Aug. 14, three two-week periods. The cost to each Scout is not much more than his rations for the two weeks. If 50 per cent or more of the troop attends the cost is $10 for each for the two weeks; if less than 50 per cent of any troop goes out, the cost is $13 per Scout for two weeks.

Registration at High School

The registration at the high school reads 305 during the year, which is the largest so far recorded in the history of the school. Due to the decreasing local population the average daily attendance has dropped from 289 in October to 255 in May.

For next year's work 270 students have already registered.

The following students show a perfect attendance record for the entire school year: seniors, Janice Anderson; juniors, Leah Rover, Leonard Farr, Allan Zinzerling, Mary Matthews; sophomores, Howard Taylor, Bill Yarbrough, Wendell Goodwin, Dova Gilman, Jean Laird; freshmen, Burton Johnson, Carl Johnson, Howard Moy, Chas. McIntee, Bud Trendell, Gerald Pettengill, Donna Dunn, Doris Hadall, Marjorie Hardenbrook, Alta Stull. Grange News

Things were not what they seemed at the Coquille Grange last Friday evening when Master Josh Ruble "auctioneered" the ladies' feet. Those same feet were so thoroughly distinguished, only one brother was able to recognize the foot he successful bid on. In the end every one was very much satisfied with the basket lunch, prepared by the owner of the foot.

The main business of the evening was the election of alternates to the State Grange to be held in Klamath Falls in June. Mr. and Mrs. Eaton received the fourth degree obligation.

The lecture hour was turned over to Mrs. Carlton Smith and Mrs. Alex Mackey. Mrs. Smith instructed the members how to play a very clever story-telling game. A humorous skit, "A Bit of Blue Ribbon" was put on by Bertha Cross, Edna Rakestraw and Cora Mackey. A patriotic number by Wallace Cross told the audience, "How to Respect the Flag."

In addition to the basket supper, coffee was served by the Grange.

Ford Exhibit At New York World's Fair

THE theme of the Ford Motor Company's exhibit building at the New York World's Fair in 1939 will be prophetic of the advances America may expect in transportation in coming decades, according to an announcement by Edsel Ford, president of the company.

Based upon an exposition of the institutional character of the Ford company and the fundamental policies which have directed its growth during the past 35 years, the fair exhibit will reach its climax in "The Road of Tomorrow," an elevated highway more than half a mile long, rising upon a series of spiral ramps, traversing the borders of a patio and finally circling the main building on a deep setback at the top of the walls.

The exhibit, in four rather distinct parts, will include an entrance rotunda facing the main west gate, a spacious Manufacturing Hall, a picnic, with picnic playing fountain and large rest areas, and the elevated road. From the west side of the patio, steps will rise to a broad mezzanine. There Ford V-8 and Lincoln-Zephyr cars will load passengers for the ride over "The Road of Tomorrow."

From the loading platform the cars will pass to the south, enter the spiral ramps, climbing to the upper level and following the elevated highway as it passes over the mezzanine, west along the south wall of Manufacturing Hall, through a tunnel lined with photomurals; thence circling the top of the building, through a glass tunnel high in the Rotunda; down the ramp to the second level, around the patio and back to the starting point.

At night flood lighting will fall upon the cars as they circle the highway high on the walls of Manufacturing Hall, playing moving shadows on the building walls, in full sight of the whole fair grounds. The building will occupy the highest location on the grounds. It will be decorated in white, red and blue and will be floodlighted at night.
