Telling About People and Events in the City and County

Mr. and Mrs. Hal Howell and Miss Mary Collins drove to Portland to spend the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Rover and family drove to Crater Lake and Ashland over the week-end.

Rev. and Mrs. H. A. Minter and family drove to Fort Orford Monday to spend the day. He was chosen to deliver the Memorial Day address in that city.

Mrs. Mary McKeown and Norene attended the commencement exercises at the University of Oregon Monday where Madeline McKeown graduated with honors.

Two divorces were granted by Judge Brand on Tuesday, to Alva Huntley separating him from Helen Huntley, and to Midred E. Johnson from Harry T. Johnson.

Mrs. R. N. Finley and her daughter, Miss Geneva Agostino, drove to Portland Saturday, accompanied by Miss Lotus Eston, to visit Mr. Finley, who is in the Veterans' Hospital there.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Gillespie spent a couple of days the first of the week on the coast. When they caught a few, but that fishing is better in Coos and Curry county streams than it is up there.

Mrs. Clifton Brockmann is rejoicing this week over the birth of a nephew. The little boy was born May 19 to her brother, Frank Terres, and his wife of New York city. This is their first child.

Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Harriman left here Saturday and visited Mr. and Mrs. Ben Spalding, old friends of theirs in Grants Pass, then visited the Oregon Caves and returned Monday evening via Crescent City and the coast route.

The D. E. Rackleff and C. M. Gray families returned Tuesday morning from Portland. They attended two double header, baseball games and saw the night dog racing at Multnomah stadium and enjoyed the two-day holiday trip.

Word was received from Mrs. Chris Terres, who has been visiting her daughter, Kathleen, during the winter, that she has moved to Berkeley for the summer to avoid the Los Angeles heat. She will probably return to the southern city for the winter before returning to Coquille.

Robert Ahr, repair man, writes that he will be in Coquille soon on his tenth trip here, and asks that housewives look over their stock of cooking utensils, aluminum ware, etc., that may need repairing and have it ready for him. He also covers umbrellas, grinds scissors and does a general repair business.

The public is cordially invited to visit Brockmann's Rose Gardens at any time during June. The roses are reaching the peak of their beauty at this time and all who wish to come are welcome to enjoy the 280 bushes in bloom. The place is on the Marshfield Highway, directly opposite the Oregon Myrtlewood Factory.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Brockmann and her mother, Mrs. A. G. Towle, drove down from Portland to spend several days visiting at the homes of their sons, Vernon and Clifton Brockmann. The three families drove over to Umpqua Beach Sunday where they enjoyed a family reunion with Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Towle, and family of Gardiner.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry L. Claterbos and daughter, Jeanne, left Sunday morning on a two weeks' vacation trip. They went first to Crater Lake and Klamath Falls and were then going up to their former home at Union, to Pendleton, White Salmon, Wash., and will be back for the state bankers' convention in Corvallis on June 13 and 14.

Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Greenough, their son, Tallant, Miss Grace Ellingsen, Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Emery and daughter, Betty, spent the double holiday on the McKenzie. Harrison Greenough, who had come down from Seattle to attend the commencement exercises at O. S. C., where he received his diploma, was also one of the party. Tallant came in from Eugene last Friday.
