"Family Affair" Enjoyed

Many a laugh resulted from the presentation of the farce comedy "A Family Affair" at the Community Building Tuesday evening, and the members of the cast gave a mighty good demonstration of their abilities as actors.

The building was well filled, over $107 being received from the sale of tickets and door admissions.

It was presented by the Coquille Townsend Club and they could well be proud of the performance.

Too many babies—four where only one was expected—was the comical situation in which a bachelor, (played by Pete Peart), found himself when he desired to show an offspring to the deacon, (Ernest Embree), who was ready to make a thousand dollar settlement on the "boy."

Several specialty numbers between acts and the dancing which followed the play provided a large evening's entertainment for two bits.

Vacation Bible School

BY JOSEPHINE BROCKMANN
The Daily Vacation Bible School started in the Pioneer church Tuesday under the sponsorship of the Methodist and Baptist Churches, Church of Christ, Assembly of God, Church of God and Episcopal Church.

One hundred and twenty-four children and 19 workers attended the Tuesday session, while on Wednesday morning the number was increased to 175 students and 20 helpers.

The classes are divided into four departments—beginners, ages four and five to intermediates, aged up to 15. Most departments are divided into classes according to age.

Classes will be held each morning, Tuesday through Friday, beginning at nine o'clock, closing before noon. Send your child in the morning if you have not already done so. Bible training, supervised recreation and handwork are features of the school.

L. A. Liljeqvist Buried Monday

Final rites for L. A. Liljeqvist, of Marshfield, who passed away at Palo Alto, Calif., early last Thursday morning, were held in the Episcopal church at Marshfield, Monday afternoon, by Rev. F. G. Jennings, a brother-in-law of the deceased, who gave the Episcopal burial service.

Two beautiful solos were rendered by Mrs. C. W. Endicott.

Coos county bar association and the state bar association were largely represented and many beautiful floral tokens were emblematic of the high esteem in which Mr. Liljeqvist was held.

Pall bearers were O. C. Sanford, of Coquille; Bennett Swanton and Jos. McKeown, legal partners of the deceased; C. W. Endicott, Reidar Bugge and Dualey Peabody, of Marshfield.

Interment was in the Sherwood plot at the Masonic cemetery just outside Coquille.

Supt. Dunn Addresses Rotary

Superintendent B. W. Dunn, of the local schools, was the principal speaker at the Rotary luncheon Wednesday. He gave some interesting details as to how the schools of Oregon were financed, in comparison with other states. Among other things he stated that the irreducible school fund derived from the sale of school lands which was originally intended to cover the major portion of the costs of education, through poor investments and other causes, now produced but a trifle over $1.30 per pupil annually.

Fred Jensen Produced Cigars in Honor of a Son

Fred Jensen produced cigars in honor of a son born last Friday. Rotarian guests present included Starr Baldwin, publisher of the St. Helena, Calif., Star, and Dr. J. E. Richmond, of Eugene, Oregon. Other guests were Geo. Lewis, of Portland, and Bobby Burns, of Coquille.

Accompanist for a brief singing session was Marilyn Compton.

Levelle Walstrom Going East

Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Sanford intend driving out to Eugene Sunday, taking their niece, Miss Levelle Walstrom, with them. She is vice-president of the Delta Delta Delta sorority at U. of O. and is a delegate to the fiftieth anniversary national convention of the society, which is to be held in Swampscott, Mass., near Boston, June 25 to July 1. She will be one of 1200 delegates present.

She will take the train at Eugene, going to San Francisco and then to Los Angeles, where she will meet a friend who is also a delegate. From there they will go to New Orleans, to Washington, D. C., to New York and Boston. Miss Walstrom will be gone more than a month and expects to return by the Canadian route.

Miss Walstrom's activities in Coquille High are well known here. She was for three years a member of the C. H. S. debate team which twice won the southwestern Oregon championship debate, and upon graduation was awarded a scholarship at the university. She is also a past Honored Queen of the Coquille Bethel of Job's Daughters.

Visit Mrs. Strain at Langlois

A group of Coquille ladies motored to Langlois Thursday for an all-day visit with Mrs. Everett Strain, daughter of Mrs. Hal Pierce. The ladies had a most enjoyable time out-of-doors gathering wild flowers of all descriptions. A lovely lunch was served at noon.

Those going from here were: Mesdames Hal Pierce, T. B. Currie, J. L. Aasen, H. S. Norton and E. M. Kay.

Bats Are Misunderstood

Bats, like owls, because they are night flyers, are much misunderstood and victims of much unfounded superstition. A bat does not fly blindly about, as many people suppose, but is better guided than most birds.
