Beulah Chapter's Friendship Night

One of the loveliest ceremonies ever presented by Beulah Chapter, No. 6, was the "Friendship Addenda," given last Thursday evening in the Masonic hall. Over eighty members of the order attended in honor of "Friendship Night." Each officer had as her guest an officer from another chapter in the county. The marching in double formation was a beautiful sight. At the close of the regular meeting, this beautiful ceremony was presented under the leadership of the worthy matron, Miss Bess Maury. The chapter room was likened unto a "Friendship Temple" and the guest members invited to enter by means of significant keys.

Mrs. Maud Woodyard, accompanied by Mrs. Stanley Ayers, sang a beautiful Friendship song during the ceremony. Others taking part were: Mrs. Belle Gould, Mrs. Florence Sanford, Mrs. Maxine Jeub, Mrs. Gladys Gano and Wm. C. Ulett. Dr. June Martin, member of the Jurisprudence committee of the grand chapter and a special guest of the evening, gave a lovely and inspiring talk on "Friendship" and told how much she was impressed with the beautiful ceremony. Mrs. May Keiser, worthy matron of Coos chapter, No. 99, and Howard Humboldt, worthy patron also gave splendid talks. Mrs. Henry Hartley, formerly of Coquille, but now of Bandon, told how glad she was to be back after a two years' absence.

After the meeting, a social time was enjoyed with old friends. Refreshments served in the banquet hall completed a delightful evening. The banquet room looked lovely with a color scheme of pink and white; beautiful-bowls of pink roses and other pink blossoms adding to the general effectiveness of the picture.

Portland Hotels As Usual

Portland hotel operators announced Tuesday that all of the eleven hotels, where a number of employees walked out last Wednesday on the eve of the Rose Festival, are now operating on a normal basis and in a position to give their patrons complete service.

Not only have all positions vacated by striking employees been filled without difficulty, states the announcement, but a large waiting list of applicants is on file at the central employment office of the hotel association.

Members of the association report that at no time since the strike was called has it been necessary for patrons to make their own beds, carry their own luggage or wash and iron their own linens, as the public may have been lead to believe through certain publicity to the contrary.

Matters in Probate Court

Ellis E. Shull was last Friday appointed administrator of the estate left by Karl A. Rolund, who died June 6. J. P. Beyers, Jesse D. Clinton and Mike Daniels were appointed administrators of the estate which is estimated to consist of $4,000 in personal and $1500 in real property.
