ARAGO

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Edgmon, Kenneth, and Miss Frankie Edgmon, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Farrier and Jack, Mrs. Daisy Doyle and Mrs. Arthur Doyle drove to Sixes Saturday and enjoyed a picnic there.

The regular weekly bible study met Wednesday evening at the church with the following attendance: Mr. and Mrs. S. C. McAllister, Mrs. Ward Evans and Mrs. Naomi Robison. They will meet again next Wednesday at the church.

Mrs. H. E. Watkins, Jean and Anne, drove to La Grande last week to spend a short time visiting relatives there. They were accompanied by A. T. Hill, who had been visiting his daughter, Mrs. Watkins, at Arago, the previous week.

Ladies Aid met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. L. Burtis, at which time the ladies gave a surprise miscellaneous shower for the new bride, Mrs. Shelby McAllister, and also a surprise handkerchief shower for Mrs. Ward Evans in honor of her birthday. After the gifts had been opened and admired the hostess served her guests with a lovely luncheon of ice cream and cookies. Those present were: Mesdames Frank Burbank, Earl Edgmon, Arthur Doyle, Albert Lillie, Marvin Shaw, Adrian Halter, George Zinzerling, Stanley Halter, L. A. Myers and Lillaverie, J. D. Carl, L. M. Aasen, J. D. Carl, O. H. Aasen, Glenn Griffith, Lawrence Rackleff, S. C. McAllister, Ward Evans, Shelby McAllister, J. L. Burtis and the Misses Bernice Gillespie and Mary Jean McAllister and Frankie Edgmon.

Rev. G. A. Gray, of Coquille, conducted the regular Sunday morning church services. Sunday school followed with an attendance of 35. S. C. McAllister was leader of the Christian Endeavor hour and Elwyn Nosler had charge of the evening services. There will be services again next Sunday as usual.

There will be a picnic in the Norway grove, July 4th, to which everyone is cordially invited. This is sponsored by the Christian people of Coos county.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Barklow, accompanied by Oliver Myers left Tuesday morning for Spray, Oregon, where the men will be employed this summer.

Johnny Myers, of Broadbent, is helping Ed Myers on the ranch for a while.

On June 26th there will be a special program at the church combining Father's day, Flag day, Children's day and Promotion day all in one. The committee has prepared a fine program for this occasion and everyone is cordially invited to attend.

Mrs. L. A. Myers and Lillaverie and Mrs. Gordon Fleming, Donald, Virginia and Glenn camped at Charleston Sunday night, returning home Monday.

Joe Bognuda arrived from Ferndale, California, last week and is visiting his wife here.

Sunday guests at the home of Mrs. Daisy Doyle were: Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Centers and Thane Goodman, of North Bend; Mr. and Mrs. James Combs, Mrs. Robert Martindale, Mrs. Wayne Martindale, Dick Martindale, of Camas Valley, and Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Doyle and Jane, of Coquille.

Thane Goodman, of North Bend, has been visiting at the home of his cousin, Mrs. Earl Edgmon, for the past few days.

At a lovely luncheon served at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Aasen, last Sunday, Miss Lavaun Aasen announced her engagement to Mr. Jesse Dunning, of Seattle, Wash. Guests present at this lovely affair were: Misses Arlie Aasen and Lucille Filcroft, of Coquille; Lola Norris, Dolly Booth and Mrs. E. F.

Hoffman, of Myrtle Point; Leatha Munford, Jean Watkins, Patricia Griffith and Mrs. L. M. Aasen and Lavaun, of Arago. The table was beautifully decorated with orange blossoms and rosebuds, with a large blue and silver airplane sailing above it, then a streamer of ribbon running to each plate, fastened to a miniature plane as place card. As each one pulled her streamers a wee envelope appeared containing the news of the engagement. The luncheon was served in three courses and the afternoon was spent playing progressing games on the lovely lawn at the L. M. Aasen ranch.

Miss Lavaun Aasen left Wednesday for Seattle, Wash., to attend a five weeks' summer course at the University of Washington. She will visit at Olympia and Wenatchee, Washington, for a week before the term begins.

The regular monthly meeting of the Missionary society was held at the home of Mrs. Jesse Damron on Hall's Creek last Tuesday with the following attendance: Mesdames J. W. Barnett, Ed Myers, and Neil, of Coquille; Mesdames B. B. Watkins, H. E. Watkins, Jean and Anne, O. H. Aasen, L. A. Myers and Lillaverie, Alma Halter, Arthur Doyle, Earl Edgmon, Stanley Halter, Albert Lillie, S. C. McAllister, Sam Damron, Jesse Damron and Mrs. John Damron and Miss Effie Chappell of Bandon. After the short business meeting a program was enjoyed as follows: Scripture reading by Mrs. O. H. Aasen, hymn by the entire group, prayer by Mrs. B. B. Watkins, reading by Mrs. Stanley Halter, solo by Mrs. McAllister, reading by Mrs. John Damron, vocal duet by Jean and Anne Watkins, clarinet solo by Anna Lou Damron, accompanied by Jean Watkins. Refreshments of strawberry short-cake and punch were served.

The regular meeting of the W. C. T. U. will be held next Tuesday, June 21, at the home of Mrs. S. C. McAllister. Everyone is cordially invited to come and join us.

Miss Rachel Woodward left last Wednesday for Europe, where she plans to spend most of the summer. She intends to visit Norway, Paris, London, Germany and other places which she feels will help her in her art work.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Farrier and Verne Garoutte were Arago visitors over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Doyle are going to move on the T. Cook ranch at Myrtle Point.

MYRTLE POINT ITEMS

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bennett, Mrs. Julia Leep and Melvin Bunch were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Morrison at their logging camp on Roland Creek.

Miss Hazel Gearhart returned to her home at Dora after spending the winter at Phoenix, Arizona.

Virginia Pearson has been confined to her home for the past few days because of tonsillitis.

T. P. Haberly, band leader at the Myrtle Point high school, is organizing a community band. Weekly practice will be held in the local high school building.

The regular monthly meeting of the Fox Breeders Association was held Sunday at the C. Carman ranch near Yellow Creek. At noon a potluck lunch was enjoyed by about fifty people.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Carns, of New Beiber, California, visited at the W. W. Deyoe home Monday.

Verna Mae Balkama, four day old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Balkama, passed away at her home Tuesday. Besides her parents, the child leaves an older sister to mourn the loss.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Mananne, of Portland, were Tuesday visitors at the
