

Reception For New Church Of Christ Minister

A large gathering sat down to the banquet in the dining hall of the Church of Christ Friday evening given in honor of the new pastor and his family, Mr. and Mrs. Adrian Sias and daughter, Maxine. The decorating committee consisting of Paul Simpson, Mrs. Nina Nosler and Mrs. Vera Hooton, transformed the dining room and tables into visions of beauty. The room had large baskets of roses and attractive reading lamps, while the tables were lovely with bouquets of sweet peas and colored tapers. Geo. W. Taylor, Sr. donated the sweet peas and also arranged the lovely centerpiece for the guest table. Mr. Taylor has been most generous in the past with donations of beautiful flowers. The place cards were cute booklets featuring a drawing of the church made by N. C. Kelley.

A splendid program was presented under the direction of Ralph Harry with C. C. Farr as toastmaster. Kenneth Graham gave the address of welcome which was responded to by the new pastor, Mr. Sias. Mrs. Maud Woodyard delighted her hearers with two lovely solos: "In a Cottage Small by a Waterfall" and "Indian Love Call." She was accompanied by Miss Edythe Farr. Some humorous readings by Mrs. Martha Mulkey were much enjoyed. The history of the Coquille Church of Christ was given by T. B. MacDonal, of Port Orford, a former pastor of the local church. The closing number was a song by the entire group, "There's a Place for Every Worker."

The ladies of the church had charge of the banquet but all the members helped to make it a huge success. Waitresses were: Margaret Staninger, Vera Hadsal, Katherine Estey, Emma Frances Mulkey and Edythe Farr.

Missionary Society Met Thurs.

The Missionary Society of the Church of Christ met last Thursday evening so that the men of the church and others could attend. The program was in charge of Mrs. A. N. Foley. Scripture was taken from I Kings 4:24-25, the theme being: "The Prince of Peace for World Peace." A study of the "Negro Work in U. S. and South Africa" was given by Mrs. C. C. Farr. She told that of the 140,000,000 negroes in the world, 100,000,000 of them live in Africa and that one in twelve of the world's population is colored. C. B. Titus, aided by Mr. and Mrs. Sibenya and thirteen other native workers, cares for congregations totaling 2041 members. Evangelistic work is carried on in hundreds of native villages. Mrs. Foley told of Africa as the "Continent of Music."

Elwyn Nosler sang "Lord, I Want to be a Christian." He was accompanied by Mrs. Ralph Harry.

A pageant entitled, "The Value of the Bible to Christian Nations," was given under the direction of Mrs. Levi Wilson. Those taking part were: Katherine Esty, Patricia Nosler, Jerry Holcomb, Ernestine Battey, Veryl DeGeeter, Dorothy Hardenbrook and Videlle Kelley. A social hour followed the program, with light refreshments served by Mrs. Harold McCue, Mrs. John Widmark and Kenneth Graham.

Those present were: Messrs. and Mesdames Gus McCullough, Arthur Hooton, Henry George, E. H. Souder, Berilyn Billings, Adrian Sias, Elwyn Nosler, Ralph Harry, Willard Sloan, Levi Wilson, C. C. Farr, Mesdames L. E. Rose, Harold McCue, John Widmark, Arthur Towne, Henry Cardwell, Kenneth Graham, Byington, A. N. Foley, A. S. Bean, E. E. Nosler, Goldie Gregory, Mary Wimer, Miss Jennie Lafferty and several young folks.
