Beneva Volkmar Becomes Bride Of Edwin Keltner

Miss Beneva Volkmar, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Volkmar, of Myrtle Point, became the bride of Mr. Edwin Keltner, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Keltner, of Arago, at a pretty ceremony solemnized last Saturday at 4:30 p. m. in the St. James Episcopal church, Rev. Geo. R. Turney officiating.

The bride wore a white lace dress over white satin with a lovely lace bridal veil. She carried a bouquet of white orchids and white roses. Miss Alberta Volkmar, sister of the bride, was her only attendant. She wore a blue net dress over blue satin and carried a bouquet of gardenias and roses. Miss Erola Volkmar, another sister, attired in blue organdy, played the violin with Mrs. Maud Woodyard at the organ. Francis Keltner, brother of the groom, was best man, while Theron and Percy Keltner, also brothers, acted as ushers.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the Guild Hall attended by fifty guests. Out-of-town guests were: Miss Ruth Gibson, of Pendleton; Miss Dorothy Dutch, of Washington, D. C.; Miss Mary Havens and George Schmeiter, of Condon, Ore. Immediately after the reception, the happy couple left on a trip to Vancouver, B. C. On their return they will make their home at Jennings Lodge, Oregon. The bride is a graduate of Oregon State college and has been employed at Condon

Social Notes

In the Civil Service Soil Conversation office. She formerly worked for County Superintendent Martha Mulkey in the court house for three years. The groom, also a graduate of O. A. C., is 4-H club agent for Clackamas county.

Jessie Sherwood invited a few friends to her home Tuesday afternoon to attend a farewell party for Betty Hoxie, who is leaving to make her home in McMinnville. The young guests played croquet, bingo and other games and then were served delicious refreshments at tables out in the spacious yard. Betty received a lovely gift from her friends. Those present were: Martha and Patricia Berg, Doris Ann Wood, Joanne Knight, Betty Emery, Maxine Whereat, Odetta DeGeeter, Betty Lou Donsted, Betty Hoxie and the hostess, Jessie Sherwood.

The Co-Workers club met at the home of Mrs. W. H. Schroeder last Thursday for one o'clock potluck luncheon. The rooms looked attractive with bouquets of mixed flowers. The afternoon was spent in sewing, knitting and chatting. A miscellaneous shower was tendered by Mrs. W. H. Schroeder and Mrs. Maxine Avery, a recent bride. Those present were: Mesdames Charles Dondono, M. Morrot and son, Richard, Earl Schroeder, Ernest Embree and Leon, Andy Hatcher, Louis Detwiler, Lela Avery and son, Mike, Donald Vanderwerker, of Bandon, Misses Katherine Schroeder, Gladys Rivers, Betty Morrot and the hostess.

Miss Norene McKeown entertained with a lovely party Tuesday evening for Miss Gretchen Neal, of Coos River, formerly of Coquille. Bridge was played during the evening with Margaret Belloni winning high score and Jean McNelly receiving consolation. Gretchen received a lovely guest prize. Refreshments were served by the hostess at a late hour. Those present were: Miss Maxine Johnson, Aloha Allen, Lurene St. Clair, Margaret Belloni, Jean McNelly, Madeline McKeown, the guest of honor and hostess.

Mrs. J. L. Stevens was hostess to the "Friendly Dozen" Wednesday afternoon. The ladies spent the afternoon sewing, chatting and knitting, after which delicious refreshments were served by the hostess. Those present were: Mesdames H. W. Kelly, Jack Arnold, A. G. Trendell, Jack Hultin, Aaron Wilson, Fred Wheaton, Louis Fugelson, Tom Stevens, Harold Stevens, Miss Sidney Renn and the hostess.

The Young Matrons' Club met at the home of Mrs. Fred Martin Wednesday afternoon. New officers were elected as follows: president, Mrs. Fred Martin; treasurer, Mrs. Emma Dornath; news reporter, Mrs. Frank DeCosta. Cards were played during the afternoon with Mrs. Wiley Embree winning high score. She also won the door prize. Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess to the following ladies: Mesdames Louis Detwiler, Ronald Burr, Elmo Dornath, Ernest Embree, Wiley Embree, Jack Clouse, Frank DeCosta, Bert Ferry and the hostess.

A surprise stork shower was tendered Mrs. Aletha Summers, nee Leatherwood, at her home Monday evening by a group of high school friends. The evening was spent in chatting and quilting a quilt for Aletha. She received many other lovely gifts. Delicious refreshments were served at a late hour. Invited guests were: Misses Margaret Purvance, Mary and Irene Burr, Bette Yeoman, Betty Brady, Blanche Sandon, Harriet Webb, Arlie Aasen, Elois Wilson, Gretchen Neal, Lois Young, Mesdames Hallie Reed, Helen Salisbury, Esther Hatcher, Vona Strong, Esther Stewart, Audrey Stamper and the guest of honor.

Bishop Dagwell Conducts Services at Sutton Lake Camp

Members of the Episcopal church and friends, a total of nearly 250, gathered at the Hale B. Eubanks' camp on Sutton lake, a few miles north of Florence last Sunday.

Services were conducted by Rev. B. B. Dagwell, assisted by Mr. Eubanks and Rev. F. G. Jennings, of Marshfield, after which a picnic dinner was held and the afternoon spent in visiting, while the younger folks went in swimming.

The greatest number of those present were from Coquille, but others were from Los Angeles, Portland, Bandon, Marshfield, Roseburg and Toledo.

J. S. Barton, who kept the register, had 130 names listed but many left after the services and others came later.

Dr. C. G. Stem, Chiropractor, 292 Moulton St., phone 86J.

Plywood Team Not Yet Beaten in Softball League

Being forced off the diamond at Athletic Park, where the bulldozer has begun to level it up, the soft ball games have been played in Kistner's field this week, with a lessening of interest and the probability that next Friday's game will be the last for the season.

The Plywood team is still leading with four wins and no defeats, but have one tie to mar a perfect record. Standings of the teams after last night's game are:

Plywood	4	0	1	1.000
Myrtle Point	3	1	1	.750
Moore's	4	2	0	.667
Stevens	3	2	0	.600
Pastime	3	2	0	.600
Fuhrman's	2	4	0	.333
Jr. C. of C.	2	4	0	.333
Riverton	0	6	0	.000

This week's games resulted:
June 27—Junior Chamber of Commerce 11, Fuhrman's 4.

June 28—Plywood 10, Moore's 0.

June 29—Pastime 9, Riverton 5.

This evening the Stevens' Hardware team will be fighting Myrtle Point to secure a tie with Walt Moore's club for second place.

Next week's schedule will find Plywood playing Riverton, Tuesday; Moore's Pastime, Wednesday; Junior Chamber of Commerce vs. Stevens, Thursday, and the last game, Myrtle Point vs. Fuhrman's on Friday.

North Bend Man Held On A Serious Charge

W. J. Smith, of North Bend, was lodged in the county jail last Monday after he had been identified by his intended victim and by a man who saw him running from the spot last Saturday night. He is charged with assault and intent to commit rape and his bail was set at $2500, which he was unable to secure.

Jack Nash, on a warrant charging him with forgery, issued in Justice Bolt's court at Marshfield, was brought back from Oregon City and lodged in jail here on Tuesday.

John Christian was bound over to the grand jury by Justice Barton here on Monday and his bail was set at $150. He was charged with drunken driving and arrested Sunday.

Two men, Basil R. Jones last Thursday and Wm. A. Battise on Friday, were fined $10 in justice court at Marshfield for taking and selling crabs without a license.

Births at Coquille Hospital

Gerald Keith, who weighed 6¼ pounds, is the name given to the baby boy born to Mr. and Mrs. Levi Wilson, of this city, at the hospital on Tuesday. He is their first child.

A second child was born to Mr. and Mrs. Paul Simpson at the hospital yesterday. He weighed 8 pounds and has been named Allan Eugene. A 9½ pound son, Christian Loring, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Chris Richert, of Bandon, last Friday.
