Mr. and Mrs. Harold Varney entertained Wednesday evening with a surprise pot-luck dinner in honor of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Wimer, who were celebrating their wedding anniversary. The new outdoor fireplace was the center of interest about which the following friends gathered: Messrs. and Mesdames Frank Schram, Austin Kyle, Walter Moore, L. M. McPherson, Jack Mast, Mrs. Blanche Davis, Helen and Buddy Kyle, George Moore, Zula Westmoreland, Marvin and Christina McPherson, Dale Varney and the host and hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Cummins were very much concerned this week to read in the paper that the ship on which their daughter and her family, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Keyser and son, Jan, were taking passage to Burma to take charge of missionary work there, was quarantined at Shanghai. Cholera having broken out aboard ship was the reason given. It is not known whether the Keyser family are well known in Coquille, will be able to communicate with their parents or not.

Miss Grace Ellingson was hostess to a buffet supper for a group of friends at her home. Those invited were Misses Harriet Webb, Julia Bennet, Harriet Danielson and Fay Perrott. Tables were beautiful with gay summer blossoms; the evening was enjoyably spent with cards.

Rebekahs Meet at Marshfield

The 28th Annual Rebekah convention of Coos county was held in Marshfield Wednesday afternoon and evening with Mrs. Carrie Rickert, president of the R. A., and Mrs. Alma Henderson, vice president, as distinguished guests. The hall was beautifully decorated for the occasion with festooning in pink and green and beautiful bouquets of flowers.

The session opened at 1:30 p. m. in the I. O. O. F. hall with Mrs. Helen McQuiston as chairman and Mrs. Gertrude Niles as secretary. Exemplification of the Rebekah work was given by the various lodges and election of officers for the next year, with Mrs. Ann Hicking of Bandon being elected chairman. At six-thirty o'clock a banquet was served in the Methodist church.

The evening session was opened in regular form by the Marshfield lodge. A short program was given, consisting of saxophone solos by Florence and Doris Rooney, some lovely vocal solos by Mrs. Mary Garden, accompanied by Miss Inez Rover, of Coquille, and two humorous readings by Mrs. R. E. Boober. Exemplification of the Rebekah degree was given by the Marshfield lodge in a most wonderful manner. The members of the team looked lovely in gowns of white with attractive corsages. A lovely degree was also given the past chairmen of the convention under the direction of Mrs. Gertrude Niles. Mrs. Carrie Rickert and Mrs. Alma Henderson gave fine talks which were much appreciated. Mrs. Helen Kimble, of Bandon, received the silver cup for the unwritten work contest and Powers lodge for the attendance. Following the meeting delicious refreshments were served in the banquet hall, which was beautifully decorated for the occasion.

Calling cards, 50 for $1.00.
