ARAGO
Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Woodward and Gerald returned from eastern Oregon last Thursday evening. Mr. and Mrs. I. B. Sevy, of Langlois, were Arago visitors Saturday. The Ladies Aid met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Everett Lafferty. At this time the ladies gave a miscellaneous shower for Miss Annie Deardorf, who is to become the bride of Clifford Parker in the near future. Miss Deardorf received many beautiful and useful gifts and after they had been admired by all, the hostess served a lovely lunch of punch and cookies to the following guests: Mesdames Jack Deardorf, Sam Damron, Jesse Damron, J. L. Burtis, L. M. Aasen and Lavaun, Frank Burbank, O. H. Aasen, Ralph Cameron, Glenn Griffith, George Gillespie, Marvin Shaw, Geo. Zinsarling, Adrian Halter, J. D. Root, H. E. Watkins and Anne, Earl Edgmon, Albert Lillie, S. C. McAllister, Tyrrell Woodward, Everett Lafferty and the Misses Annie Deardorf and Leatha Munford. Ladies Aid will meet again this week at the home of Mrs. J. L. Burtis. The regular anniversary dinner of the Arago church will be held Sunday, August 21. There will be a pot-luck dinner at noon and a short program afterwards, which will commence at two o'clock. Miss Helen Whitaker, missionary from China, who is home on her furlough, will be the speaker for the afternoon. Everyone is cordially invited to attend.

The regular weekly Bible study met at the church Wednesday evening with J. D. Root leading the discussion, which was on the fourth chapter of First Peter. Those attending were: Mr. and Mrs. Robert Munford and Leatha, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Root and John Paul, Mrs. Naomi Robison, Mrs. O. H. Aasen, Mrs. Ward Evans, Mrs. L. A. Myers and Mr. and Mrs. S. C. McAllister. Alice Jean Howard, of Langlois, was an overnight guest of Miss Maxine Rackleff, Saturday. Rev. H. A. Minter, of Coquille, conducted the regular morning church services. Sunday school followed, with an attendance of 47. There were no evening services. There will be preaching and Sunday school next Sunday morning. The Myrtle Point W. C. T. U. will meet Friday afternoon, Aug. 12, at the home of Mrs. L. M. Aasen on Hall's Creek. The Arago W. C. T. U. has been invited to join them at this time. Mrs. R. H. Christensen and Neil and Miss Hilma Leonard, of Riverton, visited at the homes of Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Aasen and Mr. and Mrs. S. C. McAllister Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Schroeder, Lois and Price, Mrs. Emily Hickam and son, Kent, of Corvallis, came in Saturday evening to be here to attend the annual Schroeder reunion picnic held in the Norway grove Sunday. Mrs. Edith Woodward has been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Root, of Riverton, the last week. Mrs. Jesse Clinton, Mrs. Addison Christensen and Maxine, of Myrtle Point, and Mrs. Hazen T. Murray, of Vancouver, B. C., visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Myers Friday. Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Carl and son, Kenneth, Jr., arrived at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Carl, Saturday for a short visit. They returned to their home in McMinnville, Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Roy Mast, Ardycce and Jerene, of Allegany, visited at the Ward Evans home Sunday. Mrs. R. B. Goeldner and Harold returned home from California Saturday.

Ray Shane, of Portland, is visiting at the home of Glenn Collier this week. Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Barklow returned to their home from Fossil, Oregon, Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Earl Edgmon and Kenneth and Mrs. Daisy Doyle drove to Camas Valley Sunday. Miss Wilma Martindale returned with them for a short visit. Mrs. Ray Watkins and Dorothy, of Eureka, California, arrived in Coos county, Saturday, and will spend a few days with relatives here. Miss Maxine Rackleff returned to her home last Wednesday from her visit with her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Laird, at Merrill. Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Rackleff and family were Sunday evening dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. I. B. Sevy in Langlois.

FAIRVIEW
The Fairview Ladies Aid met at the church last Thursday afternoon for a regular meeting. They discussed plans for their dish towel bazaar. Mrs. Matilda Kenison and Mrs. Edna Kenison were hostesses and served delicious refreshments of sandwiches, cookies and coffee. Those present were: Mesdames DeVere Yeoman, Ernest Hatcher, Garrett Manning, T. H. Benham and Karyn, David Tosten, Verlin Moore, Vern Kenison, Harold Kenison, and Misses Frances McCarthy, Bette Yeoman and Viola Johnson. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hubbell, of Fairview, are the parents of their first child, a 9 1/2 pound son born Sunday noon, August 7, at the Coquille Hospital. Mrs. J. C. Hedden and daughters, Betty Jean and Alice, and niece, Betty June Thurman, of Medford, returned to their home in Marshfield on Wednesday of last week after spending the summer with Mrs. Hedden's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Deadmond. Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Jensen, of this community, have a son, Jerry Lee, born Wednesday, August 3, at the Coquille Hospital. The young man weighed six pounds, 15 ounces, and is the first child. Mrs. Robert Kimbro, of Milwaukie, Oregon, arrived at the home of her sister, Mrs. Betty Deadmond, on Monday evening. Mr. and Mrs. R. U. Morris, of Eureka, Illinois, visited Mr. and Mrs. Albert Thompson and family last Saturday and Sunday. Charles Flowers cut his foot last Saturday and fourteen stitches were taken in his toes. Gerry Thomas and Wallace Cameron, Marshfield boys, were fined by Justice Clarence Barton at Coquille last Saturday morning for shooting from a public highway. The plaintiff was Fred Johnson, who charged the boys with shooting in front of his horses. The fines were $10 and costs each.

Mr. Stewart, now... he stutters
Some folks you gotta learn to like, but not Mr. Stewart. He stutters terrible, but nobody notices much, because they like him. The first time he came in my station, I tipped him off to our oil. 'Everybody has to do a lot o' stop-and-go drivin' these days,' I started in, 'an' that means they need a special oil.' 'Yes, but...' says Mr. Stewart. 'When you stop and let your engine cool off,' I hurried on, 'your oil drains down off the movin' parts, leavin' 'em practically dry.' 'B-B-B-But...' says Mr. Stewart. I interrupted him: 'And when you START, you oughtn't to have to WAIT to have your oil get movin'. It oughta FLOW--faster'n grassed lightning.' 'B-B-B-But...' says Mr. Stewart. 'Yesir,' I cut in, 'and only a quarter for a quart, 'cause it's so light.' 'B-B-B-But...' says Mr. Stewart, laughing at me. 'I-I-I been using G-Golden Shell for a six months.' So I laugh, too. Sincerely, You Shell Dealer invited to attend a Youth Rally, which will be held Friday evening at Camp Myrtlewood under the sponsorship of Myrtle Christian Endeavor Union. There will be a program, followed by a social period. The group will meet at the church at 7:30 and go from there to the grove. Mrs. Ray Bradford returned Saturday from an overnight visit in Roseburg. Her son, Donald Morse, who went with her, remained for a few days' visit with relatives. Chas. Meek had the misfortune to lose his best horse a few days ago. It had been shot in the head, evidently by one of the night hunters who frequent this vicinity. On Tuesday of last week, Mrs. Dwight Culver entertained with a dinner in observance of her husband's birthday anniversary. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Cornwall and sons, Judson, Robert, Tommy and Jimmy, and Mr. Cornwall's father, Judson Cornwall, Sr., from Myrtle Point. A picnic, honoring the birthday anniversaries of Mrs. Albert Reed, Clyde Bartlett and Miss Maude Hooton, was held Sunday in the grove at Hooton's Haven. Miss Hooton's birthday occurs on Aug. 10, the other two on July 30. Those present at the picnic were Mr. and Mrs. Albert Reed and son, Gerald, of Myrtle Point; Mr. and Mrs. Orlin Lett and daughter, Joan; Noah Cogner; Clyde Bartlett; Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Hooton, Maude and Lou. At the Grange meeting Friday evening, two new officers were elected to fill vacancies. Miss Nell Watson succeeds Mrs. Elmer Magill as Lecturer, and Elmer Magill succeeds Ernest Labart as steward. Mrs. A. A. Barnich was given the obligation. The fifth and last program in the program contest was given, with Mrs. Frank Culver as chairman. This group won first prize in the contest, the second prize going to O. W. Heath's group. At the close of the meeting, an oyster feed was served to the crowd. A. L. Hooton, electrical contractor and dealer, 274 Second St., Coquille. Complete stock of wiring supplies.

BRIDGE
Mr. and Mrs. Bruce F. Caldwell, formerly of Nez Perce, Idaho, who are now on a lecture tour in the interests of missionary work in Jamaica, were here Friday night and showed their interesting slides to an appreciative audience in the school auditorium. Their musical numbers, with guitar accompaniment, were also much enjoyed. Mr. and Mrs. Caldwell are planning to go to Jamaica in October for missionary service. While here, they were guests at the A. O. Hooton home. Little Johnny Duncley, who had been here with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Ellis, for a couple of weeks, went home with his folks Friday evening. The Duncleys have purchased property in Coquille and are living in a tent while building their house. Mrs. Orlin Lett and little daughter, Joan, left on the bus Tuesday for Mulino, where they plan to spend about three weeks with Mrs. Lett's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Larkin, and other relatives. Miss Lou Hooton is arranging the Christian Endeavor service for next Sunday evening. The topic is "As Others See Me." This meeting will be followed by a church service. A picnic at the Dwight Culver home Sunday was enjoyed by the following: Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Lund and daughter, Lois, of Marshfield; Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Butler, Jerry and Louise, of Coquille; Mr. and Mrs. Orvin Finch, Marian, Gene and Charlotte, and Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Culver, Mary Lou and Evert. The people of the community...
