New Epic Pictures Reconstruction Era—Opens At Roxy Sun.

The first motion picture epic to deal with the Reconstruction South since D. W. Griffiths made motion picture history with "The Birth of a Nation" back in 1915 is "The Texans," which will open next Sunday for three days at the Roxy Theatre!

Although no period in American history is more filled with color, action and romance than the days following the War Between the States, when a victorious North tried to rule the defeated Southern state as conquered provinces, it has been almost an unploughed field as far as Hollywood is concerned. While the brooding pre-War period has been pictured many times, recently in "Jezebel," and the War itself even more often, "The Texans" is the first epic production in more than twenty years to depict the most thrilling aspect of all, the South's titanic struggle for liberty and self-rule after Appomattox.

In tracing the fortunes of a typical Texas family, beginning with the return of the men from battle in 1865, "The Texans" symbolizes the tragic and moving story of the entire South during the post-bellum years. At the head of the cast, Joan Bennett is a tempestuous Dixie belle, who refuses to submit to Northern rule and insists that the "great cause" is not lost, while Randolph Scott is a homecoming Confederate soldier, who devotes everything to the building up of a new Texas on the ruins of the old. Although Miss Bennett is all for starting a new uprising, Scott convinces her that she should devote her energies to constructive work, and together they lead a great cattle cavalcade through the wilds of Texas and Oklahoma into thriving Kansas, where the new railroad provides them with a ready market for their steers.

All the tragedy of the Reconstruction period is revealed as the picture unfolds. A group of the most miserable men ever to appear on the American scene, the carpet-baggers, descend on a prostrate land and rule a proud people for their own profit. Aristocratic families are reduced to poverty, private lives are invaded and even private property is confiscated by corrupt officials who can never get enough loot.

"The Texans" boasts a supporting cast of some of filmdom's best-liked players.

A Birthday Surprise Party

Mrs. Fred Grant was delightfully surprised last Friday evening when a group of friends dropped in to honor her birthday. Two tables of pinochle furnished the diversion of the evening. At a late hour birthday cake and ice cream were served to Messrs. and Mesdames Fred Jensen, R. E. Harbison and Mrs. Chas. Porter.

Social Notes

Mrs. E. A. Wilmer was hostess to the "Let-a-let" club Thursday afternoon. Sewing, knitting and chatting occupied the pleasant afternoon hours. Delicious refreshments were served late in the afternoon by the hostess. Those present were: Mesdames W. H. Myers, W. E. Cross, Ed. Dettelsen, John Martin, O. K. Rakestraw, Geo. Gilman, J. W. Ruble, Frank Pook and the hostess. The club will meet next with Mrs. Cross.

Mrs. P. W. Culver was hostess to the Thursday Luncheon club last week. The ladies met for one o'clock luncheon and later played contract bridge. Mrs. Geo. Johnson won high score and Mrs. C. T. Selbig received consolation. Mrs. Lola Kring, of Myrtle Point, was a special guest and received a prize. Others present were Mesdames John Arnold, Dick Arnold and John Belloni, of Myrtle Point; Mesdames C. T. Selbig, Geo. Johnson, C. P. Zumwalt, Joe Knight, of Coquille.

Mrs. F. C. McNelly and Mrs. T. B. Currie were hostesses to a lovely one o'clock dessert luncheon and linen shower Friday at the home of Mrs. McNelly on the Cunningham Road. It was given for Miss Gretchen Neal, of Coos River, formerly of Coquille, who is to be married Sept. 4th, to Mr. Bob Penland, of Albany, a classmate of Gretchen's at the University of Oregon. The room was attractively decorated with large bouquets of glads, sweet peas and other summer blooms and the tables, set for about forty guests, looked lovely with small vases of sweet peas and flower bedecked place cards. At the long table where Gretchen was the honored guest, a bridal party, consisting of bride, groom and flower girls in miniature, was the attractive centerpiece. The hostesses were assisted in serving by Miss Jean McNelly and Mrs. Jas. Brady.

After the refreshments were served, the bride-to-be opened her large array of gifts. Besides the lovely assortment of linens, etc., Gretchen was the recipient of jams and jellies from Coquille's famous cooks. The rest of the afternoon was spent in knitting, crocheting and chatting.

Joanne Knight entertained with a lovely party Saturday afternoon to celebrate her 12th birthday. The young folks played games of all kinds and then sat down to a table decorated most attractively in pink and green and loaded with good things to eat, including a large birthday cake. Those invited for the occasion were: Betty Emery, Kay Leslie, Phyllis Littenberger, Margaret Ann Wilson, Mary Anne Walker, Marybelle Yarbrough, Harriet Tozier, Shirley Slater, Maxine Whereast, Doris Ann Wood, Irene Williams, Jessie Sherwood, Marilyn Sage and Beverly Zumwalt.

The Junior group of the W. C. T. U., namely the L. T. L., presented a program in Pioneer Hall Friday afternoon under the leadership of Mrs. Esta Ellis and Mrs. Ione Billings. A short business meeting was held and then several short playlets presented. The "Old Woman in the Shoe" was given by Shirley and Barbara Slater, Shirley Van Fleet, Joyce Taylor, Patty Brattain, Frank Oerding and Arthur Borgard. The "Temperance Wheel" was presented by Laura Emily Ruble, Velma Coy, Barbara Carpenter, Joyce Benham and also the young folks who took part in the first playlet. The L. T. L. rally song in the L. T. L. garden was given with gestures by Laura Emily Ruble, Velma Coy, Caroline Borgard and Joyce Benham, dressed as daffodils, roses and violets. A pantomime of the Life of Anna Johnson Flint, which she wrote in allegory, was portrayed by the Angels of Peace, Suffering, Joy, Work, Sacrifice, His Presence and Sorrow, with the following girls taking the parts: Fairy Cardwell, Winifred Van Fleet, Maxine Whereast, Fern and Frances Davidson, Maxine Sias and Gloria Chapman. Verene Bailey enacted the Angel of Vision. A solo, "The Evening of Prayer," was sung by Geraldine Oerding. A playlet entitled, "As for Me and My House," was given by Earl Benham, John Minter, Elvin Widmark, Bobby Taylor, and Clinton Pearl. The meeting was closed with singing, followed by light refreshments.

Last Friday evening several local B. P. W. club members attended the picnic of the Coos Bay Club of Marshfield held at Eel Creek park. A bountiful picnic dinner was served at seven o'clock p. m. and then members and guests gathered around the fireplace and enjoyed a community sing. Those going from here were: Mesdames Viola Newton, Leona Bryant, Annie Robinson, Bertha Smith, Marjorie Rowland, Gladys Gano, Margarita Brodie, Misses Lois Fenn, Ida Oerding, Lotus Eaton, Julia Bennett, Geneva Agostino, and Edna Robison.

Miss Grace Ellingsen entertained a few friends last Wednesday evening as a get-together for her sister, Mrs. Herbert Van Zante, of Oswego Lake. The evening was spent in playing bridge and other games, after which light refreshments were served. Invited guests were: Mesdames Darrell Brodie, Henry McCue, Faye Perrott, Verrill McCurdy, Marlin Brandon, Miss Georgia Erdman and Miss Fay Perry, of Bandon, Misses Betty and Marianne Axtell, Harriet Webb, Julia Bennett, Gertrude and Gretchen Mehl, Anne Barton and the honored guest, Pauline Van Zante.

A very enjoyable "gathering of the clan" was held in the Bonniksen Grove, on the Powers road, last Sunday to honor Mrs. Gertrude Simpson, of Oakland, Calif., who has been visiting in the county for the past month. A bountiful dinner was served at which time Mrs. Simpson was presented with a beautiful bouquet of gladiolus; later the party had several group pictures taken near the river. The older folks spent the afternoon in chatting, while the younger group had a most enjoyable time swimming. Mr. Hansen, who had a movie camera, took some interesting pictures of the crowd and took an exceptionally interesting one of two of the younger folks engaged in a watermelon-eating contest. In the late afternoon, a light lunch and coffee were served and all voted it the end of a perfect day.

Those present were: Mrs. Gertrude Simpson, Mr. and Mrs. H. Walter Hansen, Miss Lucille Vasey, of Oakland, Miss Patricia Vasey, John, Jr., and Rose Marie, Miss Fay Stewart and Bob Hennessey, all of Powers; Mr. and Mrs. Walter West and Charlotte, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Simpson, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Stevens and son, Mr. and Mrs. Craig Perrott, Mrs. Belle Elwood, Harry Varney, Sr., and Miss Claudia Lee Varney, all of Coquille; Mr. and Mrs. Ferman Dean, of Millington, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Elwood and Eula Mae, of Marshfield; Mrs. Ed. Metcalf, Ted Metcalf and sons, Donald and Duane, Mr. and Mrs. Louise Metcalf and Janice, of Charleston; Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Varney and Kenneth Joe, of North Bend, and Miss Doris Panter, of Los Angeles.

The Ellingsen family held a reunion and picnic Sunday at the home of Mrs. Lily Hartig at Bradley lake. Outdoor sports were enjoyed with a bountiful picnic at noon. Those present were: Mrs. Huldah Ellingsen, Mrs. Pearl Ellingsen and John, Mrs. Pauline Van Zante, of Lake Oswego, Mrs. C. W. Ashton and Milton, Miss Martha Gallahue, of Marshfield, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Warren, of Fresno, Calif., (Mrs. Warren was Marjorie Ashton), Mrs. Ellen Carl and Virginia, of Hubbard, Oregon, Mrs. Jennie Price, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Norton and Beverly, Mrs. Amelia Lafferty, Miss Grace Ellingsen and Mr. Tutarner.

Coquille Eagles

"Oscar," the duck, is still doing her stuff. Last Thursday evening six more candidates were "put thru the paces" at the regular meeting of Coquille Aerie No. 2196 F. O. E.

The meeting was a lively affair and lasted until a late hour. One issue of vital importance concerning the Aerie was discussed at length, a committee dispatched to investigate and the writer is predicting good news concerning it, all of which will appear in the next issue of this column.

Sunday, September 11, the district convention will be held at Marshfield and plans are under way to make it the biggest and best convention ever held in southwestern Oregon. The ladies' drill team of the local auxiliary will participate in the competitive drills to be staged, as will also other teams of the state. A fine program is being arranged and in addition, there will be a big salmon barbecue. It is understood that a ton and a half of old king salmon will be ready for the serving on that hectic day.

All members of Coquille Aerie and of the Ladies Auxiliary are urged to attend and help Coos Bay Aerie put the event across. We owe it to Coos Bay Aerie to co-operate with them and turn out in full force, for we have never found our Coos Bay brothers wanting in rendering their friendly assistance to us on any occasion that we have asked it. The drill teams and drum corps of both Aerie and the Ladies Auxiliary, have aided Coquille Aerie unselfishly in assisting us in many events held by the Coquille Aerie. So don't lay down on the job, brothers and sisters. Start formulating your plans right now, in order to attend the big doings in September.

And above all things, see that "Oscar" gets to go along. She is the best member campaigner in the local aerie and is entitled to a vacation.
