

Social Notes

The "Puellae club" met at the home of Miss Elaine Gray Tuesday evening. Plans were discussed for a proposed trip to Lake Tashkenitch. After a social evening, refreshments were served at a late hour by the hostess. Those present were: Misses Beverly Norton, Donna and Mary Jane Dunn, Barbara Leslie, Jean Laird, Jeanne Clatterbos and the hostess.

A lovely surprise birthday party was tendered Mrs. Tom Gamblin and Mrs. Jack Hultin last Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Hultin, with Mrs. Clyde Minard and Mrs. D. G. Ireland as hostesses for the affair. The two honored guests each received a lovely birthday gift. Knitting and chatting occupied the pleasant evening hours. Delicious refreshments including a large birthday cake were served at a late hour. Those present were: Mesdames Howard Taylor, Wm.

Sullivan, Mae Somers, Ernest Wherret, Adolph Malthu, E. Malthu, Nell McGilvery, Shirley Hatcher, Harold Simmons, Andy Huhtala, the hostesses and honored guests.

The "Co-Workers Club" met at the home of Mrs. J. D. Bell last Thursday for a noon potluck luncheon. The afternoon was spent in crocheting, sewing and chatting. The club prize was won by Mrs. Ira Chase. Those present were: Mesdames Charles Dondono, Andrew Hatcher, Frank DeCosta, W. H. Schroeder, Earl Schroeder, Iva Chase, Ernest Embree and son, Leon, M. Morrott and Richard, Miss Gladys Rivers, Miss Betty Morrott, a guest, Mrs. Huntington, and the hostess.

The Young Matrons' club met at the home of Mrs. Ernest Embree Wednesday for a one o'clock potluck luncheon. The ladies spent the afternoon playing cards, chatting and sewing. Mrs. Louis Detwiler won high score and Mrs. Frank DeCosta low. Mrs. Ronald Burr received the door prize. Those present were: Mesdames Walter West, Ronald Burr, Jack Clouse, Frank DeCosta, Louis Detwiler, Enno Dornath and the hostess. The club will meet in two weeks with Mrs. West.

A post-nuptial shower was given Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Wm. Buell in honor of Mrs. Ben Payne, Jr. (nee Betty Savage). The afternoon was spent in chatting and refreshments were served by the hostess. The occasion was also the birthday of the Buell twins, Diana and Dana. Those present were: Mrs. Mike Mullen and three sons, Mrs. Pat Mullen and two children, Mrs. Stanley Buell, Mrs. Mike Broad, Mrs. Lucy Whitney, Mrs. Anton Schroeder, Mrs. Ben Payne, Sr., Mrs. Clarence McNair, Miss Fay Sinclair, the guest of honor, Mrs. Ben Payne, Jr., Verene Bailey, Dorothy Avery and the hostess. Mrs. Payne and the twins received many pretty and useful gifts.

During the regular meeting of Mammie Rebekah Lodge, No. 20, Wednesday evening, a delegation of 34 members from the North Bend Rebekah Lodge arrived and surprised the local lodge members in a most wonderful manner by bringing the travelling Friendship book and golden Three Links. The lodge members attractively gowned in white, put on a lovely floral degree and presented the Coquille Noble Grand with a large bouquet of gladioli. Before the ceremony was over, 14 members from Western Star Lodge in Marshfield arrived to pay a fraternal visit and witness the surprise as they also had been surprised previously. The visiting Rebekahs brought ice cream, cake and coffee so a real treat was the order of the evening. In the dining hall community singing was enjoyed at the table and Oddfellowship reigned supreme.

The Oddfellow and Rebekah picnic will be held Sunday at Eel Creek government camp, Lakeside Junction.

Rev. and Mrs. H. A. Minter drove out to Kellogg, Ore., Saturday to bring back his mother, Mrs. M. A. Minter for a fortnight's visit.

Rotary Club Hears

Returned Missionary

Miss Helen Whitaker, of Changsha, Hunan province, China, was the guest speaker at the Rotary luncheon at the Coquille hotel Wednesday noon. Miss Whitaker, formerly of Myrtle Point, has spent twelve years in China and gave a very interesting and informative talk on conditions in that country since the start of the war with Japan. Changsha, the city in which she lives, situated south and west of the war zone, has grown from a normal population of about five hundred thousand to over eight hundred thousand due to the influx of refugees from the invaded sections.

She also spoke of the misrepresentations of the Japanese press, and cited a specific instance where a dispatch in a Tokyo paper stated that due to adverse weather conditions Canton had not been bombed for a month. She had just arrived from that city and it had been bombed daily.

While the war caught China not fully prepared, she stated, that the Chinese had full confidence that eventually the invaders would be driven back and that China would regain all her lost territory.

O. B. Harriman was initiated as a new member of Rotary club.

Guests present other than the speaker included Mr. and Mrs. Geo. A. Ulett, Mrs. Chas. Stauff, Mrs. F. L. Greenough, Alton H. Grimes and wife, B. E. Phillips, Bob Stewart, Rotarian, of Hollywood, Calif., and his son were also present.

Pioneer Missionary Society

The Pioneer Missionary Society held its monthly silver tea in the church parlors last Thursday afternoon. Miss Lura Morgan had charge of the devotions; the subject, "Tidings of Peace" with appropriate scripture. Mrs. Mildred Tyrrell sang "Through Peace to Light," accompanied by Mrs. M. O. Hawkins. The study hour followed under the leadership of Mrs. W. A. Ireland. Mrs. O. B. Harriman and Mrs. R. T. Slater read papers on the missionary work in South America. Mrs. Vivalene Jackman, of Los Angeles, displayed her pictures of India and also of her recent trip to Mexico, which were much enjoyed. A social hour with refreshments completed the afternoon. Those present were: Mesdames Ernest Adamson, Ida Clark, E. C. Finley, Louis Fugelson, Gladys Gano, H. L. Graybeal, Lee Hand, M. O. Hawkins, O. B. Harriman, W. A. Ireland, T. R. Jackman, Frank Leslie, C. E. McCurdy, Cyril McCurdy, Clyde Minard, Orville Newton, Lundy Peart, Leland Peart, Ernest Purvance, Jas. Richmond, R. B. Rogers, J. L. Smith, P. O. Stromquist, R. T. Slater, Birdie Skeels, D. W. Silver, Walter Oerding, L. W. Oddy, Miranda Way, June Walker, R. Wilkins, John Zander, G. W. Tyrrell, M. Lahman, Misses Lura Morgan, Audrey Aasen and Claudia Southard.

Fuller-Baird

Miss Marjorie Baird, teacher last year in the Coquille schools, last Friday evening became the bride of Geo. Fuller, C. H. S. instructor. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Geo. R. Turney at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Baird, in Marshfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Neil Hosking, brother-in-law and sister of the bride, attended the couple, as they took the vows in the presence of a number of friends and relatives.

Out-of-town guests were the groom's mother, Mrs. Stella W. Fuller, of Corvallis, and an aunt of the bride, Mrs. Iva Powell, of Portland.

Following a short honeymoon trip to the north the young people will return to Coquille to make their home.

Births at Coquille Hospital

Four births at the Coquille Hospital the past week were all boys. And the preponderance of baby boys the past few months, according to tradition, makes war seem more than probable. The births were to:

Aug. 18, to Mr. and Mrs. Marion Fish, of the Fishtrap road, a son named Cecil Warren.

To Mr. and Mrs. Henry Stinnett, of Bandon, the same day a young man named Gordon Donald.

To Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Hubbard, of Coquille, a baby named Russell LeRoy.

To Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Van Leuven, of Riverton, on Sunday, a nine pounds and ten ounces baby boy.

In the hurry of getting out last week's issue of the Sentinel mention of the crowning of "Mother Coo"—Mrs. E. A. Wimer—was overlooked as was also mention of the prize winners in the pet parade Thursday morning.

Sally Bonney won the prize for having the largest dog in the parade; Delores Shely for her tricycle with dolled-up dog in the trailer; Mary Ann Detlefsen for her kitten; and Anna Lee Mannellin with her twin dogs.

Wagner Act Needs Repealing, Not Amending

Washington with a stack of subpoenas, signed in blank by the board, and all the attorney has to do to get his witness in ten minutes is to fill in the name of the party desired.

But if the defendant attorney wants a witness he must fill out a blank with the witness' name, telling why he is wanted, what he is expected to testify to, and other information. Then the subpoena is sent to Washington for the board's approval and signature, and it is sometimes ten days or two weeks before the witness can be summoned.

A review by circuit or federal court of the case is permitted by the NLRB act, but if there is a scintilla of evidence—it may be hearsay, rumor or slander—the court is bound by the law to uphold the board's findings.

To appeal is also expensive. The defendant may not use a transcript of the evidence made by a stenographer employed by him or it, but must have a certified copy of the board's transcript.

In the case of the C. D. Johnson Co., the transcript contained 20,000 pages. If the board needs a copy it can secure it for four cents a page. If the defendant desires one he must pay 44 cents a page, a difference between board's and defendant's cost for one item of $8,800.

Mr. Miller went on to report many cases where glaring favoritism is shown the board attorney, a recital of which is too long for a newspaper article.

Mr. Miller, after his experience with the Johnson case, declared it was not amendment of the Wagner act which was needed. It should be repealed and a new law enacted which would be fair to both employee and employer. The present law does not give the employer a chance.

Those from Coquille attending the meeting were J. E. Norton, R. L. Stewart and H. A. Young.
