Bandon Man Gored By Bull

Art Heyward was attacked by a young Jersey bull on his farm on Seven Mile creek Saturday morning and was lucky to get away without serious injury, although he received a severe jab in the chest by one of the animal's horns. The animal has always been friendly, having been raised on the place, but this morning he charged his owner without warning. Heyward was 100 feet from the nearest fence. He grabbed the bull by one horn and hung on after being knocked down. The tussle went on for several minutes during which time Heyward worked his way moment let go of the horn and rolled toward the fence and at an opportune under the barbed wire to safety, says the Western World. The bull has since been dehorned and a ring has been placed in his nose for safer handling.

Rural Teachers to Meet

Rural teachers of Coos county will meet in the circuit court room, Coquille, on Saturday, September 3, for their pre-school meeting. The out-of-county speaker will be Mrs. Susie B. Emmons, rural school supervisor of Multnomah county, who is splendidly prepared for her work and will be of great help to the teachers.

Mrs. Emmons was chosen when word was received from Florence Hill Morrison, of Harbor, that she would be unable to be present because of the critical illness of her mother.

Other speakers are Dr. C. L. Coyle, county health officer, and Miss Julia Bennett, home demonstration agent.

The rural teachers' executive committee members will each have a part in the program as well. They are: Mrs. Laura Brandon, president; Mrs. Lillian Hines, first vice-president; Mrs. Cora Mackey, second vice-president, and C. E. Ellison, secretary.

Saturday will afford a time for teachers to visit the WPA book repair project. Also through courtesy of Lloyd Oddy, county clerk, the registration books will be open during noon hours so teachers may have an opportunity to register for voting. The regular meeting will be held only during the morning but beginning teachers will meet with the county superintendent for one hour after lunch.

Non-High Budget

The budget committee for the Non-High school district met Monday for the purpose of arranging budget for the school year 1938-1939. The final hearing will be held in the county court house on Monday, September 26, at which time the public is invited to be present. The amount being called for in the budget is $74,157.60. Those serving on the budget committee are: Guy A. Smith, Empire; R. J. Holverstott, Fairview; T. S. Easton, Dora; Ervin Peterson, Haynes Inlet; Leroy Wilson, Bunker Hill, who was absent.

Sing at Myrtle Point Meeting

Tuesday night, Aug. 30, a delegation of 32 of the local Church of Christ attended the meetings being held nightly in the Church of Christ of Myrtle Point by James Alley, aiding in the music with a male and a ladies' quartett, composed respectively of Donald and Leonard Farr, C. A. Sias and Bob Bailey and of Catherine Estey, Edythe Farr, Emma Frances Mulkey and Patricia Nosler.

Ben Fisher Prefers U. S.

Ben C. Fisher, former district attorney for Coos county but who for the past several years has been an attorney for the federal radio commission in Washginton, D. C., was speaker at the Lions club luncheon last Thursday noon.

Mr. Fisher gave a most interesting talk on his observation of conditions in Europe through which he traveled the past year.

His talk concerned Germany and Italy principally and what he saw and heard in those dictator-ruled countries. He closed with the statement that the U. S. might have its faults but that it was a much more desirable country in which to live than was nazi Germany or fascist Italy.

Other guests at the luncheon were Ben Fisher, Jr., A. O. Walker, J. A. Lamb, E. J. Loney, H. S. Norton and Guy Cordon, of Roseburg.

Dr. C. L. Coyle, county health officer, is talking to the Lions at this noon's luncheon on the health situation in Coos county.

Amateur Show Was Good

The amateur hour program was a huge success Tuesday evening, being put on by Ernest Embree and committee. There were thirteen contestants with about 300 members and friends attending.

There was a great variety in the program and the winners were Shadys Shadows, musical selection, first; Patty Thomas, tumbling and contortionist, Betty Preston accompanist, second; Wilma Drake and Bernice Haga, tap dancing, third. The winners were good and will go places if they continue thir endeavors.

The smiling face of our president, Tom Drake, was missing, he being down with a bad cold.

The quilt which was made by the ladies of the club was awarded S. R. Day, of North Bend,.

The evening came to a close with two hours of dancing, music being furnished by Townsend orchestra and Shadys Shadows.

Coquille Eagles

Coquille Aerie No. 3196 F. O. E. met in regular session last Thursday evening with a large attendance.

G. E. Stark, Coquille's newest practicing physician, was appointed to serve as the Aerie's doctor. Dr. V. L. Hamilton, who has served the aerie in that capacity for some time past, while still a member of the order, is unable to devote the time necessary to attend regular aerie meetings on account of his practice and other affiliations and Dr. Stark was appointed in his place. Dr. Stark, while being new to Coquille, comes here highly recommended and has signified his willingness to co-operate in every manner possible with the brothers of the fraternity. We wish to impress upon all of you at this time, that when you have need of the services of the aerie doctor not to make it a point to impose upon him, to always present your aerie receipt for his inspection when his services are sought. We will treat you right, so be sure you do the same by him. We are fortunate in securing a doctor who takes an active interest in our order and it is up to us to co-operate with him fully.

From now on the meetings are going to be "banged up" and prove even more interesting than in the past. So promises Brother Jim Jacobsen. He will go into action in the near future with some brand new side degree work that promises a thrill to new candidates and the regular members as well.

Right now is the time to start starving yourselves, brothers, in preparation for the big potluck supper that is in the offing—next social night.

And don't forget the big district convention to be held at Marshfield on Sunday, Sept. 11. Coos Bay Aerie is out to make it the biggest event of its kind ever held in the state. Let's show our appreciation of their kindness and co-operation to us in the past by turning out in the proper manner for their big event. So be there! You will never regret it.
—Press Cor.

The "Friendly Dozen" met at the home of Mrs. Sam Arnold Wednesday afternoon. The ladies spent the afternoon knitting, sewing and chatting, after which delicious refreshments were served. Those present were: Mesdames Geo. Matney, H. W. Kelley, Nellie Harry, Louis Fugelson, Marie Coulty, L. C. Kelley and Miss Blanche Sandon.
