the Trask family reunion at Corvallis, at which there were 80 members of the family present. She spent ten days visiting in Corvallis and Independence and in Portland where a cousin, Segt. Frank Dodele resides. At the reunion she met many relatives she had not seen for 30 years, as well as many she had never seen before.

Mrs. Smith is a granddaughter of Eldridge Trask, a pioneer of Tillamook county who came to Oregon with the American Fur Co. in 1834 and whose original homestead on Trask river, on which he filed in 1852, is still owned and operated by members of the Trask family.

He was married in 1842 to Hannah Chill, and those present at the reunion were descendants of the thirteen children born to them.
