and Blanche Sandon and Grace Ellingsen. The American Legion Auxiliary met in the Legion Hall Monday evening for their monthly meeting. After a short business session, presided over by the president, Mrs. Robah Robison, a social time was enjoyed, followed by refreshments served by the Legion members. Those present were: Mesdames C. M. Gray, C. T. Seibig, Frank Martin, C. P. Zumwalt, Rosella Clins, J. E. Axtell, Harry Claterbox, Lee Hand and Robah Robison.

About forty-five attended the lovely surprise miscellaneous shower given Mrs. Wm. G. Walker, nee Lucille Sherwood, last Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Hal Pierce, with the following ladies as hostesses: Mesdames E. M. Kay, T. B. Currie, F. C. McNelly, Effie Miller, A. B. Collier, H. S. Norton and Hal Pierce. The rooms looked lovely with large bouquets of glads. After opening the large array of gifts, a social time was enjoyed, followed by refreshments.

Mrs. Hal Pierce entertained the "Duplicate Club" Friday for one o'clock dessert luncheon. The rooms looked very attractive with bouquets of glads. "Duplicate contract" was played with Mrs. J. L. Aasen and Mrs. Mary McKeown winning high score. Those present were: Mesdames George Johnson, R. E. Boober, Frank Thrift, J. L. Aasen, E. M. Kay, A. B. Collier, Mary McKeown and the hostess.

Little Gregory Hornecker celebrated his fifth birthday with a party Saturday afternoon from three to five o'clock. The youngsters played games out-of-doors and then went inside where lovely party refreshments were served, including a birthday cake, candles, etc. Gregory received many lovely gifts. Those present were: Beverly Zumwalt, Jane Newdall, Patty Mills, Harriet Walker, Richard Rankin, Gerard Jeub, Tommy Guderian, Donald Ireland and Gregory.

Jobs Daughters Bethel No. 15 held their first meeting of the fall in the Masonic Hall Monday evening with the new honored queen, Beverly Norton, in the chair. Margaret Stewart, junior princess, sent in her resignation as she is leaving for college.

Mrs. C. A. Rietman and Mrs. J. E. Axtell presented a prize to two of the girls who did not miss a practice for six months during the last term. As there were five girls, names were drawn and the lucky winners were: Eileen Nye and Ann Sawling. The others were: Colleen Ireland, Charabelle Watson and Jeanne Claterbox. Mrs. Agnes Belle Ackerson, grand guardian, plans to visit Coquille on October 5 for inspection.

The Loyal Women's Class of the Church of Christ met at the church last Thursday for an all day meeting with a pot-luck luncheon at noon. Once every three months, gifts are drawn from a birthday box for those who had birthdays the last three months. Mrs. Rachel V. Aasen and Miss Jennie Lafferty were the lucky ones. Mrs. Ames celebrated her 90th birthday a few days ago.

A short business meeting was held after the luncheon. Those present were: Mesdames R. V. Ames, C. C. Farr, Fred Schaefer, Gus McCullough, V. L. Bailey, M. O. Hooton, John Widmark, Henry Cardwell, John Sanders, W. Davidson, A. N. Foley, Arthur Towne, W. Newton, Harold McCue and Miss Jennie Lafferty.

After the regular meeting of Beulah Chapter, O. E. S. Thursday night, most interesting moving pictures were shown of Mrs. Bryant's eastern trip, hunting scenes and logging operations. Mickey Mouse and Popeye comedies were enjoyed as well as interesting scenes of the treacherous Colorado river, where Buzz Holmstrom made his solo boat trip. There were several visitors from Marshfield and other places. Sandwiches and coffee were served at the close of the evening.

A lovely surprise household shower was tendered Mrs. William Walker, nee Lucille Sherwood, last Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Clarence Osika by Mrs. Osika and the "Peppers," a group of last year graduates. The early part of the evening was spent in chatting. At 9:30 p. m. delicious refreshments were served by Mrs. Osika, including a most attractive pre-nuptial cake. The opening of the large array of gifts followed. Invited guests were: Misses Patricia Peart, Jean Nye, Eileen Kendall, Barbara Leslie, Elaine Gray, Maxine Knight, Mary Robb, Bonnie Gage, Betty Jean Sprout and the honored guest.

The L. D. & B. Club met at the home of Elizabeth Hooton Friday afternoon September 9th in honor of Lois Morgan, who was to leave for Houston, Texas, Saturday. A monopoly tournament was played and won by Helene Gage. Delicious refreshments were served late in the afternoon. Those present were: Evelyn Gano, Virginia Harmon, Helene Gage, Fay Saylor, Lois Morgan and Elizabeth Hooton.

Woman's Club Tea Held at Mrs. J. A. Berg Home

About one hundred guests attended the lovely "Tea" held at the beautiful home of Mrs. J. Arthur Berg Thursday afternoon from three to five o'clock in honor of Mrs. O. C. Sanford, state vice president of Woman's Clubs and Mrs. E. E. Leslie, president of the local club. The house was beautifully decorated for the occasion with large bouquets of glads and other mixed flowers.

In the receiving line with Mrs. Sanford and Mrs. Leslie were Mrs. Berg and Mrs. R. A. Wernich, representing the past presidents of the local club. Mrs. Sanford wore a lovely white lace gown over white satin, with pink corsage; Mrs. Leslie was attractively attired in black lace, with rose corsage. Mrs. Berg's gown was black net over flowered silk and Mrs. Wernich wore black taffeta.

Assisting about the rooms and at the door were: Mrs. J. A. Lamb, Mrs. J. L. Smith, Mrs. K. P. Lawrence, Mrs. R. E. Boober, Mrs. Keith Leslie, Mrs. Harry Slack, Mrs. B. W. Dunn and Mrs. M. Earl Wilson. Mrs. Geo. Chaney, vice president of the club and in charge of the tea, wore a peach lace gown with yellow corsage. Mrs. T. B. Currie, a past president of the club, presided in the dining room and was assisted by some of the members of the Junior Women's Club, namely, Mesdames Ted Hornecker, Wm. Barrow, Elbert Schroeder, Chas. Kash, Eric Tucker and Marlin Brandon. Mesdames M. O. Hawkins, Bert Folsom and C. V. Smith presided at a beautifully appointed tea table, centered with a lovely bouquet of colored asters and rosebuds. All of the ladies assisting with the tea wore floor length gowns.

During the tea Miss Audrey Aasen played some delightful numbers on the violin, accompanied by Miss Edythe Farr. Miss Farr also entertained with lovely piano solos.

Gretchen Neal Married At Albany September 4

At a lovely wedding Sunday, September fourth, Miss Gretchen Neal, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Neal, became the bride of Mr. John Robert Penland, son of Mrs. Mabel Penland, of Albany, Oregon.

The wedding took place in the First Methodist Episcopal Church in Albany. Dr. D. H. Leach, of Corvallis, read the service.

The church was beautiful with baskets of white and pink gladiolus, huckleberry and fern and tall candelabras with lighted candles.

Mrs. Hazel Ueling presided at the organ. Just before the bridal party entered she played, "Oh Promise Me" and then very softly during the ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white satin gown, made princess style with a long train. Her finger tip length veil was held in place about her head in a halo of lace. She carried a round bouquet of white asters, gladiolus and baby breath with a shower of ribbon-tied boys.

The bridesmaids were the Misses Erros and Corrine Penland, sisters of the groom, who were gowned in floor length dresses of mousseline de soie, with matching veils of silk net. Miss Erros wore turquoise and Miss Corrine peach.

Mr. James Ralston, of Albany, attended the groom, and the ushers were Mr. Harold Neal, cousin of the bride, of Coquille, and Mr. Harry Penland, of Albany.

Mrs. Neal, the bride's mother, wore an afternoon dress of dark green crepe with a corsage of white begonias. Mrs. Penland, the groom's mother, wore dark blue velvet and a corsage of pink begonias.

A reception followed at the home of the groom's mother. Mrs. Franklyn D. Stafford cut the bride's cake, Mrs. Asa Lewelling poured. Mrs. F. C. McNelly presided at the punch bowl and Mrs. James Brady served the wedding cake.

Those assisting about the rooms were Mrs. T. B. Currie, Mrs. Harvey Scott and Misses Grace Tiffany, Blanche Chaney, Katherine Marchovich, Betty Brady, Kathleen Brady, Beatrice Madden and Helen Kerowski.

Following the reception the couple left for a trip up the Oregon coast.

After September 20th, they will be at home at 651 East 14th St., Eugene, where both will be seniors at the University of Oregon this year.
