Screen Hit Coming To Roxy Sunday --Edw. G. Robinson As "Clitterhouse"

Edward G. Robinson comes to the screen of the Roxy Theatre Sunday in what he has described as the most fascinating role of his career—the truly extraordinary title character of "The Amazing Dr. Clitterhouse," a character who has been called the greatest of comedy based by Warner Bros. on the London and New York stage hit of the same name.

Lincoln School News

With registration completed and classes well under way, the enrollment of the Lincoln School shows an increase of 34 pupils as compared to the same time last year.

The Junior High Student Body which consists of the sixth, seventh and eighth grades shows an increase of 22 members. With such a fine student body, its members are looking forward to a very active and successful year.

Miss Anita Pageler reports an enrollment of 37 pupils for her Junior Band organization, with more students entering each day.

Ministerial Association Officers

At a meeting of the local Ministerial Association, held in the Pioneer church on Monday, Rev. H. L. Graybeal of that church was elected president of the group, Ralph C. Wynkoop of the Marshfield Church of the Nazarene was elected vice president and C. Adrian Sias of the Coquille Church of Christ was elected secretary-treasurer.

Others present from Marshfield were: S. C. Lapham, retired; Joel R. Benton, Church of Christ, and Capt. Aro, Salvation Army; from North Bend, Jake Moomaw, Church of Christ; from Myrtle Point, C. M. Brown, Methodist, and Hugh T. Mitchelmore, Presbyterian; of Coquille, G. A. Gray, Methodist; Geo. R. Turney, Episcopal, and H. A. Minter, Baptist.

Riverton School

Monday morning during the activity period, the four classes held their first meetings of the year. Officers were elected, and several activities for this semester were planned.

Keith Young, who was returned to the presidency of the sophomore class, appointed several committees to make preparations for the annual freshman initiation and the usual party that follows the "deflation" of the first year students.

The seniors, with Miles Hartwell, president, passed a motion requesting the privilege of giving a dance and of selling refreshments after the school play, which will be given early this fall. The seniors also voted to sponsor a basket social on October 28. The class expects to use the Halloween motif for decorations and entertainment.

The home economics department under Miss Nye's guidance is busy this week making preparations for the Riverton community exhibit at the county fair.

At a school board meeting last Tuesday, it was decided to have the school bus run to the intersection of the road leading to Lester Clausen's ranch and the Bandon-Coquille highway.

"Ouch, my shine!" was a frequently-heard cry in the school yard this week during the boys' athletic period. The lack of kicking aim of the soccer players was responsible for many a sore shin; but in spite of skinned-up shins, the boys played with a vim and got an actual "kick" out of the game.

The home economics club had its first meeting and elected officers, including: president, Muriel Herman; vice president, Caroline Feich; secretary, Lucille Danielson; treasurer, Mayme Royer; reporter-historian, Alice Church. The main business of the meeting was the planning of initiation for the new members.

Mr. Robinson has been reading three-act plays to those members of the student body who have expressed willingness to take part in the forthcoming student body play. As soon as the rainy season sets in, regular work will start on the production of which ever play the group decides upon. It is hoped that the play can be produced before the basketball

Miss Gilman, who has charge of the library this year, is being assisted by some of the girls in getting the library in good order for this year's work. Several new books for the library have been received. Three newspapers have been made available to the students. The magazine order for this year has been placed with Mrs. Bean, and magazines will be arriving within the next two weeks.

BRIDGE

Mr. and Mrs. Roy S. Luttrell and little grandson, Roy Dwight Smith, have moved from Reedport back to their place on King creek and Roy Dwight enrolled in the second grade of the local school Monday morning.

The Ray Bradford family, who had lived for nearly two years in one of H. A. Hatfield's houses, moved last week to Vida, Oregon, and the George Rice family moved Saturday into the house they vacated.

Miss Cherie Mae Hartwell, of Riverton, intermediate teacher in the local school, spent the past week-end with home folks.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Doney and daughter, Betty, are moving this week to Redmond.

The Christian Endeavor meeting Sunday evening will be a musical program on the theme, "The Service of the King." Clyde Bartlett, assisted by Misses Eleanor Menegat and Maude Hooton, is arranging the program. A church service will follow. The people of the community are cordially invited to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Weaver and baby, Ann Marie, moved back to Myrtle Creek a few days ago, having lived here the past few months while Mr. Weaver was trucking logs.

The enrollment in the school is about 85 at present. There are nine in the first grade. An odd fact about the primary room is that in the enrollment of 25 children, there are only seven girls.

Mr. and Mrs. Orin Lett and daughter, Joan, spent the week-end at Sitkum with Mr. Lett's sister, Mrs. Elmer Wilson and family.

The Berry Nixon family is moving this week to Cottage Grove.

Arago Prize Winners at Fair

The 4-H Livestock judging team from the Arago Dairy club, including Clyde Lillie, Junior Gulstrom, and Gerald Lillie, placed fourth in the judging contest at the Oregon State Fair, competing with twenty-five teams from the different counties in Oregon. The local team earned a score of 2180, as compared with 2205 points which was earned by the first place team from Lane county.

4-H Club members from all sections in Coos county are exhibiting dairy cattle, sheep, hog, poultry, handicraft work, forestry work, garden work, sewing, cooking, canning, and other home economics exhibits at the Coos county fair this week. The number of exhibits on display are slightly more than in previous years, and the quality has improved noticeably, according to those who are in charge of this work.

In addition to the regular premiums, several organizations, business firms, and individuals, have contributed special trophies and awards for those who excel in various contests, such as dairy showmanship, sheep showmanship, dairy herdsmanship, the best display of dairy cattle, the best display of sheep, the best bird house in the woodworking project, and the high scoring forestry exhibit, highest boy and girl in health clubs,
