Social Notes

Mrs. R. E. Boober entertained some friends Friday for one o'clock luncheon in honor of Mrs. O. A. Bunch, mother of Mrs. U. E. McClary. The afternoon was spent in sewing, chatting, etc. Mrs. Bunch was the recipient of a gift from the hostess. Invited guests were: Mesdames L. H. Hazard, M. O. Hawkins, O. B. Harriman, Frank Leslie, Estelle Grey, V. C. Dimmick, M. Earl Wilson, K. P. Lawrence, U. E. McClary and O. A. Bunch.

Twenty-three from Coquille went to Powers Monday evening and presented a surprise program at Chaparral Rebekah Lodge. A lovely floral degree was given by Mesdames E. L. Benham, Hester Holverstott, T. S. Stevens, Geo. Holbrook, K. P. Lawrence, George Johnson and Harry Ross, accompanied by Mrs. Val Harless. Later a reading was given by Mrs. R. E. Boober, followed by community singing. A social time and refreshments completed a perfect evening.

Mrs. M. Earl Wilson invited a few friends for tea Wednesday afternoon to meet Mrs. W. O. Matthews, the wife of the new doctor associated with Coquille Hospital. The ladies spent most of the afternoon in the spacious yard sewing, chatting, etc. The house was attractively decorated with autumn foliage. Mrs. Wilson was assisted in sewing by Mrs. L. E. Clatterbos, Mrs. Marlin Brandon and Mrs. Ernest Watkins, of Arago. Invited guests were: Mesdames Elbert Schroeder, Wm. Barrow, Eric Tucker, Leroy Swinney, Lewis Wiltshire, Harold Gould, J. D. Rankin, Ted Hornecker, Chas. Kash, J. R. Bunch, Miss Jean Watkins and Mrs. Matthews.

Six carloads of youngsters from the Christian Science Sunday School, including a liberal sprinkling of grown-ups held an all-day picnic at Wagner's grove above Broadbent Saturday. Swimming and outdoor sports were the order of the day with a bountiful lunch at noon.

A lovely party and linen shower was tendered Mrs. Jas. Mills Friday evening at the home of Mrs. T. T. Denison with Mrs. Denison and Mrs. Ted Hornecker as joint hostesses. Mrs. Mills is leaving Coquille to make her home in Eugene. After refreshments served at eight o'clock, the large array of gifts was opened. Bridge followed, with Mrs. Henry McCue winning high score; Mrs. J. E. Axtell, second, and Mrs. J. D. Rankin, low. The rooms and tables looked most attractive with bouquets of fall flowers. Invited guests were: Mesdames Paul Trojel, J. E. Axtell, Eric Tucker, Wm. Barrow, Henry McCue, J. D. Rankin, Wm. Candlin, Elbert Schroeder, Geo. Jenkins, Harry Slack, D. G. McEniry, Marlin Brandon, T. S. Stevens, J. D. Gillespie; Mrs. Orion Garrett and Mrs. Larry Morgan, both of Myrtle Point, and the honored guest and hostesses.

Mrs. J. D. Rankin entertained a few friends for one o'clock luncheon at the hotel Monday to meet Mrs. W. O. Matthews, wife of the new doctor. The table looked attractive with a bouquet of sweet peas and snapdragons. After a most delicious luncheon, the ladies spent the afternoon playing contract bridge. Mrs. R. E. Boober won high score, Mrs. K. P. Lawrence received consolation and Mrs. Matthews received a lovely guest prize. Those present were: Mesdames Lloyd Rosa, M. O. Hawkins, K. P. Lawrence, L. H. Hazard, R. E. Boober, M. Earl Wilson, the honored guest and hostess.

A lovely party and shower were held at the home of Mrs. Marlin Brandon last Wednesday night for Miss Audrey Taylor, who is leaving Coquille to attend a beauty school in Portland. Mrs. Wm. Barrow was joint hostess. After the opening of the large array of gifts, cards were played. Miss Madeline McKeown, Miss Mary Lou Nosler and Miss Maxine Knight won prizes at the games. Delicious refreshments were served at a late hour. Those present were: Misses Eileen Percy, Barbara Richmond, Eileen Kendall, Madeline McKeown, Lorraine Sanders, Maxine Knight, Jean McNelly, Dorothy Matton, Mary Lou Nosler, the guest of honor, Mrs. Audrey Taylor, and the hostesses.

Mrs. Fred Jensen entertained the "Neighborhood Club" Wednesday for one-fifteen o'clock dessert luncheon. Contract bridge was played during the afternoon with Mrs. T. S. Stevens winning high score and Mrs. George Holbrook, low. Those present were: Mesdames K. P. Lawrence, L. A. Greene, Fred Hudson, C. A. Carmichael, Geo. Johnson, Geo. Holbrook, T. S. Stevens and the hostess.

Coquille Eagles

In case you haven't noticed the fact, I must inform you that this column hasn't appeared during the past two issues of this paper.

Last Thursday there was no meeting of our aerie and a busted typewriter prevented the writing up of the aerie news for the meeting before. (You see, the editor can't read my "short-hand.")

That was a real convention held at Marshfield and I know that everybody who attended had a real time. And Boy! What a feed! Barbecued salmon with sauce, fried spuds, steamed clams, crab salad, ice cream, cake and coffee all served with the true Eagle spirit, that not only makes eating a pleasure but life worth living. And while we are at it, we will put in a couple of hurrahs for the Coquille Ladies' Auxiliary Drill team. They brought home the silver cup as a trophy for their prowess on the drill field. In fact, they performed so well that the cup was handed them "on a platter," so to speak. But be that as it may, the ladies have the cup and all the brothers are mighty proud of 'em.

And, Hey!—did you notice the last issue of The Eagles' Magazine? Our Aerie made the news all right, for which we should be justly proud.

Those attending the Eagles' event held at Roseburg a couple of weeks back report a fine time. Coquille's soft ball team won one and lost one game with Roseburg.

One thing is a settled fact and that is that the office of the Justice of the Peace is going to be filled by a Brother Eagle. One democrat, one republican and one independent candidate are all on the ticket—all from Coquille Aerie.

If you missed the big doings at Marshfield you missed something. And if you miss our regular Thursday evening meetings you're going to miss something else. Something doing every minute—not a dull moment any more. Come out, Brother, you'll be surprised!

Fresh Gardenias, cut each day at Bergen's.
