Infant Buried Tuesday

Sandra Lee Miller, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Miller, passed away at the Knife Hospital Sunday, at the age of two days. Death was due to convulsions. Funeral services for the tiny girl were held Tuesday at Schroeder Bros. Mortuary, with Mr. Adrian Sias officiating. The baby's mother was the former Miss Gladys Williams.

The Body Beautiful Treatment

Alluring loveliness grows in this new kind of bath, abounding in millions of pearly, soaps bubbles. Relax in their caress and feel weariness melt away. Step out refreshed, body toned, and skin fragrantly dainty, satiny-smooth. No tub-rings to bother with, either. $1.00

50 Attend Pioneer Choir Dinner

Last Thursday evening, September 15, the choir of Pioneer Church held its annual dinner as a welcome to new members, and those returning from summer vacations, and as a farewell honor to Misses Margaret Purvance and Elois Wilson, who left Sunday to attend the Portland Bible Institute for the coming year, and Miss Audrey Aasen, who returned to the University of Oregon for the winter.

Preparations for the dinner, which was lovely in every detail, were in the hands of Mrs. June Walker, Mrs. Birdie Skeels, Mrs. Frank Leslie, Mrs. Lloyd Oddy and Miss Barbara Richmond. Beautifully written place cards, featuring tiny fresh flowers, were prepared by Miss Alfa Bang, who also assisted with the seating plan and the table decorations and arrangements. The tables were tastefully decorated with bright flowers and autumn leaves.

The repast, brought by the choir members, was served by the committee, assisted by several other members of the choir. After the dinner a short informal program was held, presided over by Miss Anita Pageler, the director of the choir. Special guests of the evening were introduced, including Misses Purvance, Wilson and Aasen and their parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Purvance, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Wilson and Mr. and Mrs. John Aasen. Other honor guests introduced included: Bobbie Burns, who has assisted with the organ, Mr. and Mrs. Stauff, who assisted with special programs last year, along with other valued old members of the choir and those prospective members who had been invited. Interesting introductions followed one after the other so rapidly that it is quite impossible to be sure all are named.

At eight o'clock, the choir members, both new and old, adjourned to the auditorium for the regular midweek practice. This coming year the evening service as well as the morning service will feature anthems, solo and group numbers by the choir under the able direction of Miss Anita Pageler, who has agreed to direct the group again this coming year.

The dinner was attended by over fifty people, whose names, exactly as they wrote them on the guest register, follow: Barbara Richmond, Chas. Stauff, Alton Stauff, Alton Schroeder, Bob S. Nelson, Wm. Peart, E. M. Wilson, Gertrude Mehl, Harold V. Cole, Jean Graybeal, Lundy Peart, Assy Aasen, Dick Silver, E. Purvance, Enid Anderson, Claudia Southard, Elois Wilson, Margaret Purvance, Hettie Leslie, Claire Hultin, Mrs. E. Purvance, Mrs. L. W. Oddy, F. G. Leslie, Bob Lawrence, J. P. Beyers, Mrs. Bob Lawrence, Rose Naef, Ellen Braxton, Wayne Smith, Jas. Richmond, Mildred Tyrrell, Ida L. Clarke, Mrs. Charles Stauff, Anita Pageler, Mrs. M. O. Hawkins, L. W. Oddy, Mrs. Estelle Gray, H. E. Graybeal, Hazel Adams, June Walker, Betty Barton, Birdie Skeels, Hazel Moffet, Edna Shrock, C. L. Willey, Neil Kyhn, Lucille Nelson, Bobbie Burns, Ruth Beyers, Virginia Conn, Ann Hawkins, Alpha Bang.

City Police Court Cases

F. O. Nilsson paid a $5.00 fine in the city recorder's court last Saturday for being drunk on the street. M. C. McKelvey, arrested for committing a nuisance and for being drunk last Saturday, forfeited the $10 bail he posted for his appearance. Tillinghast Mangson, arrested Sunday for the same offenses, was fined $5.00. He was broke and on his promise to leave town at once, the recorder suspended his fine for one year.

Calling cards, 50 for $1.00.

Annual Report on Non High School

The annual report for the Non-High school district for the school year, 1932-1933 shows as follows: total of 478 Non High school pupils were enrolled and of these 432 received transportation either by bus or mileage or in a few cases $8 was paid in lieu of transportation. The total tuition costs were $42,841.99. The cost of educating Non High school pupils for each day varied from 59 cents to $1.00 per day, according to the high school attended. The office of the county school superintendent will be glad to supply any one with a copy of a report of the Non High school costs for the year 1932-33.

Cecil Laws Wins Prize

Cecil Laws, of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Laws of Coquille, University of Oregon student, received word last night that he was first in the contest of the Real Silk Hosiery Mills, in eleven western states. They have two divisions in the college department; the new men and the veterans. Cecil won in the new men's department. He received word to leave Eugene tomorrow morning and entrain for Indianapolis, where he will attend the sales convention, with all expenses paid. He will be gone two and a half or three weeks.

Cecil graduated from Coquille High in 1935 and has attended the University of Oregon for three years. His many friends will be glad to hear of his good fortune. He wants to express his appreciation to the people of Coquille for their patronage.
