Handsome Spaniard On Friday Night Card

The Senor announces that he is not going to fool around, but will go in there and start swinging fists if he can't throw his man by scientific tactics. Rodriguez is a dark, broad guy, who knows his way about on the wrestling mat.

In Portland last Monday night he got a draw with young Elton Owens in the opener, but explained that he hadn't gotten used to the northern climate yet. He especially pleaded for the opener on the card so that he wouldn't have to be on the mat very long. Now, rested from his long trip and feeling fit as a fiddle, he is going to show these northerners how it is done in the hot countries.

Promoter Elliott announces that the Arkansas outfit will be in town all day Friday with their weird, assorted paraphernalia of the Arkansas hills. Tony, manager of the troupe, says that many Arkansawyers meet up with them on their travels and some even claim relationship.

The first bout will begin at 8:30 o'clock Friday night.

Symbol of Immortality
 Amaranth (love-lies-bleeding) was used by the Greeks in the early history as a symbol of immortality. To this day it is in use in decorations of churches on Ascension day.

Social Notes

Mrs. U. E. McClary was hostess to a lovely twelve-thirty o'clock luncheon Wednesday in honor of Mrs. Emma McNelly, of Hillsboro, mother of F. C. McNelly. The table looked most attractive with pottery dishes in the fall colors, while the centerpiece was a small squash entwined with autumn leaves. Place cards, in colors, carried out the fall motif. After a most delicious luncheon, also carrying out the color scheme, a pleasant afternoon was spent in chatting, sewing, etc. The hostess graciously played some of her own composition, which were much enjoyed. Invited guests were: Mesdames Emma McNelly, F. C. McNelly, O. C. Sanford, R. A. Wernich, R. E. Boober, Jennie Price, P. W. Culver, M. O. Hawkins and O. A. Bunch.

Donna Rankin celebrated her eleventh birthday Wednesday from four-thirty until six o'clock. The young folks played games of all kinds and sang until they were served delicious refreshments, including a birthday cake, candies, etc. Those present were: Albert and Diane Powers, Bobby and Patty Geany, Mavis Tyrrell, Nadine Ashworth, Marianne Rackleff, Barbara and Shirley Slater, Patricia Yarbrough, John, Richard and Donna Rankin.

The "Friendly Dozen" met at the home of Mrs. U. E. McClary on Sunday afternoon. The ladies spent the afternoon sewing, knitting and chatting. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess. Those present were: Mesdames Sam Arnold, Fred Wheaton, A. G. Trendell, Aaron Wilson, M. S. Couly, Mrs. Wheaton, a sister-in-law of Mrs. Fred Wheaton, and the hostess.

COACH'S CHOICE

BY
 R. L. (Matty) MATHEWS
 FOOTBALL COACH
 UNIVERSITY OF PORTLAND

R. L. (Matty) Mathews, above, football coach at University of Portland, will forecast the results of major western football games for the Sentinel readers in a new weekly sports page feature called "Coach's Choice." It starts today.

Oregon-Washington State - Extremely close. Oregon, fired by the enthusiasm of a new coach, gets a slight edge.

Washington-Minnesota - Washington on a hunch; football runs in cycles and Minnesota's been up there a long time.

Alabama - Southern California - Alabama, although later in the season, I'd pick U. S. C.

Oregon State-Idaho - The Vandals because Lon Stiner probably needs more time to polish his backfield.

U. C. L. A.-Iowa - U. C. L. A. Kenney Washington should be the deciding factor.

Montana-Eastern Washington Normal - Montana without too much trouble.

Portland-Pacific - On the basis of last year's records, Portland should win this one, but I look for a terrific game.

Willamette - Linfield - Willamette should win, but Linfield may hand the Bearcats the surprise of their lives.

Gonzaga-Puget Sound - Gonzaga in a runaway.

California-St. Mary's - California. The champion Bears aren't going to drop clear out of the picture; beating them is too big a task for Madigan's sophomore outfit.

Leaving For L. A. To See New Buick

With the introduction of new Buick models scheduled in the near future, Cliff Gulseth, of the Southwestern Motors, local Buick dealer, will leave for Los Angeles Saturday to visit the southern California Buick plant and take an advance look at the forthcoming line of cars.

The occasion, he said, is the pre-announcement sales convention of the Pacific Coast Buick dealer organization, at which the new cars are shown to the dealers for the first time and the 1939 sales program discussed.

He said that word from the factory indicates that an enlarged program will be undertaken for 1939 in view of the encouraging business outlook and the increased demand for automobiles which already is being felt.

"We have had a very satisfactory year with the 1938 models," Mr. Gulseth said. "Buick ended the model year in fourth place on a national basis and obtained a much bigger share of the total automobile business than last year."

"The outlook for Buick business in this area is excellent. I am informed that the new line of cars represents an even greater value than the 1938 car and that important improvements have been effected in design and engineering."

Mr. Gulseth said that production of the 1939 Buicks is in full swing at the factories and that he expects to receive his first stocks of the new cars by the end of September.

Chas. Briggs and Frank Cary, of the Southwestern Motors sales force, will also make the trip to Los Angeles to see the new 1939 Buick.
