Coquille High School

Extra-Curricular Activities Assigned

Class advisers have been assigned as follows: Senior class, Mrs. Beyers; Juniors, Mrs. Oelke; Sophomores, Mr. Fuller; Freshmen, Mr. Cole.

Miss Haef will continue as adviser to the Girls League and will for the first semester direct the publication of the Hi-Times, with the assistance of Mr. Cole, who will assume the direction of the second semester.

Miss Schaffer will continue in charge of girls' athletics, which will become an important phase of school routine as soon as the new gym is ready to use. Mr. Nelson will be busy with boys' athletics, in addition to acting as co-advisor to the Laurel staff with Mr. Dunn.

Mrs. Beyers will continue with her usual enthusiasm the training of her debate team, which is rousing keener interest each year among students and townspeople.

Miss Conn, home economics instructor, will assume the management of the school cafeteria, including the planning of menus and purchasing of material. Mrs. Rigby will supervise the kitchen and do the cooking. A fifteen-cent lunch is a new cafeteria feature this year, consisting of a hot dish, choice of sandwich or salad, and milk. Pasteurized milk is served exclusively this year. Ice cream, usually served on special occasions, will be on the menu.

Miss Conn also has charge of assembly program supervision and of the pepster group, a senior girls' honorary society.

Peppster Group Meets

The peppster group met early in the week to plan a program for Friday's assembly. Tryouts will be held at that time for yell leader and song queen. Uniforms for the group were planned and it was decided to wear white sport shirts and red pleated jumper skirts. A special yell practice will be held Thursday night and a committee to arrange rallies for the coming games will be formed. Sixteen girls were elected to this group last spring as follows: Yvonne Kern, Ann Hawkins, Edith Elmsing, Margaret Smith, Videlle Kelley, Donna Getz, Jane Kramer, Jerry Halcomb, Lela Willburger, Peggy Wernick, Patricia Needer, Fernald Moore, Donna Dean Bossman, Vevyle DeGeeter and Dorothy Mattoon.

A list of interesting and educational films has been scheduled for early showing at high school assemblies. The public is welcome to attend. Pictures will be shown at 10:30 on the following dates:

- Sept. 23—"Salt of the Earth."
- Sept. 30—"Romance of Glass."
- Oct. 7—"There's Only One House Fly."
- Oct. 14—"Bicycling with Complete Safety."
- Oct. 21—"Work of the Atmosphere."

Two other interesting assembly programs have already been planned—one a demonstration of jiu jitsu and the other concerning vocational guidance.

Students are already busy planning the first social events of the fall season—one a party for freshmen girls to be given by the Girls League on Sept. 30, and the other a student body get-together dance, Oct. 7.

The home economics classes have started their sewing projects this week. The freshman girls are working on aprons to be used in the cooking classes, while the sophomores are making wool dresses. Pattern and material are chosen by the student herself, with the approval of Miss Conn, and will be modeled in the style show which the department plans to present this term.

A New Teacher You Must Meet is Miss Virginia Conn, whose home is in Oswego, Oregon. She is a graduate of Grant high school, Portland, and of Oregon State College, where she received her Bachelor of Science degree in June, 1938. She was affiliated with Alpha Chi Omega sorority.

Miss Conn in addition to teaching home economics and commercial geography, has charge of the pepster group and assembly program and manages the cafeteria.

Miss Conn's favorite hobbies are many types of handicraft and dancing, both ballroom and ballet.
