CROCERY

"Volume With Small Profits" Is Our Motto

FREE DELIVERY

PHONE 166 Pullet KITCHEN QUEEN

$1.29

CRACKERS

10c

Mount Vernon

COQUILLE

19c Lb. Cans 27c

PURE EGG (Saturday Only)
LB. PKG. NOODLES

10c HOT SAUCE 10c

Trupak Ripe

CIGARETTES Camels, Chester-

fields, Luckies

Tualatin Brand

24 can $1.79

SALAD DRESSING QUART

Pure Cider

Fresh

DOG FOOD

JELLO 5c

Gem Nut

OLEO 25c

5C Seaport

Fruits and Vegetables

Soriety und Clubs

Harry Slack, C. W. Kline, tevens, C. T. Selbig, M. M.

The "Myrtle Club" met at the home

were: Mrs. Lloyd Oddy and as Guy Churchill, D. D. Dale, second. Those present were: Mes-dames J. L. Aasen, Mary McKeown, R. E. Boober, Hal Pierce, A. B. Col-lier, U. E. McClary, Geo. Johnson and

Mrs. Belmont Ireland was hosten her bridge club for one-thirty slock luncheon Friday. Contract clock luncheon Friday. Contract as played with Mrs. S. A. Morris mning high score and Mrs. Garl El-son, second. Those present were; lesdames Gary Ellison, Earl Tiche-or, S. A. Morris, Carl Dement, Ray etlefsen, Melvin Greenfield, Fred

Mrs. C. P. Zumwalt entertained her bridge was played. Mrs. Ralph Kring, of Myrtle Point, won high score and Mrs. Richard Arnold, also of Myrtle Point, won second. Mrs. C. T. Selbig received consolation. Those present were: Mesdames Geo. Johnson, C. T. Selbig, Waiter Litzenberger, M. M. Newdall, of Coquille, and Mes-dames John Arnold, Richard Arnold and Ralph Kring, of Myrtle Point.

The "Omit Club" was entertained Thursday evening at the home of Miss Lurene St. Clair. Bridge was played with Mrs. Monroe Swindall winning high score and Mrs. Lloyd Wood receiving consolation. Those present were: Misses Margaret Belloni, Georgianna Johnson, Aloha Al-len, Betty Axtell, Helen Lund, Mrs. Monroe Swindall, Mrs. Lloyd Wood

Mrs. J. E. Axtell was hostess to a ovely one o'clock dessert luncheon a week ago in honor of Mrs. James Mills, who left Coquille to make her home in Eugene. The general color scheme was pink, flowers and place cards carrying out the motif. Bridge was played during the afternoon, Mrs. Ted Hornecker won high score prize and Mrs. Elbert Schroeder, second. Mrs. Mills received a lovely guest prize. Those present were: Mes-dames Wm. Barrow, Elbert Schroeder, Ted Hornecker, D. G. McEniry, T. T. Denison, Paul Trojel, Geo. Mc-Clellan, Lewis Wiltshire, R. F. Milne, R. T. Slater, Geo. Jenkins and the guest of honor, Mrs. Mills.

Nancy Lee Grant celebrated her eighth birthday Friday with a the-atre party at the Roxy. The little atre party at the Roxy. The little guests' met at Nancy Lee's home at six o'clock, where they were served ice cream and cake and then taken to see "Jane Withers." Those enjoying the occasion were: Donna Mae Howe, Alene Hunt, Velma Coy, Dorothy Jean Hughes, Sally Bonney, Mona Dodge, Betty Lou Dalton, Joanne Savage, Ann Harbison, Lenora Wornstaff and the hostess.

The N. O. M. A. club met at the home of Mrs. Laverne Ellingson Tues-day evening. Plans were talked over

Mrs. J. E. Axteli was hosters to two in regard to a Hallowe'en party later. Knitting, sewing and chatting occupy and one Friday. The rooms and pied the evening, followed by delithe door prize. Those present were:
Mesdames Ruth Dey, Frances Detlefsen, Alice Morris, Ruth Clayton, Ferryl DeJarnett, Yvonne Carl, Lucille Ellison, Bernice Ireland, Lorraine Perrott, Maxine Stevens and

> flanked by orchid tapers, formed the centerpiece. The silver basket was a gift of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Perrott, on their 25th wed-ding anniversary.
>
> Following the dessert luncheon, the

Invited guests were: Mesdames
Jennie Price, Callie Leach, Ula Leach,
Jack Leach, Craig Perrott, Harold
Stevens, Faye Perrott, Mary McKeown, E. M. Kay, Bert Folsom, Jas.
Watson, Lafe Compton, E. E. Leslie,
A. B. Collier, J. L. Assen, A. O.
Walker, Hal Pierce, Clarence Tuttle,
Frank Thrift, Edna Hartson; Mesdames Roy Neal and Jas. Brady, of Allegany; Mrs. Virginia Hillstrom, of Marshfield; Mrs. Emma McNelly, of Hillsboro; Mrs. Kelly Carver, of Myr-le Point; Misses Jean McNelly and on Harris, Mrs. J. E. Perrott, of don; Mrs. Glenn Neideigh, of the Point; the honored guest, Miss nne Perrott, and the hostesses. Joanne plans to be married in Oc-tober to Mr. David Chase, of Portland, who expects to work for the Southern Pacific out of Portland and Mrs. J. E. Axtell entertained her idge club Tuesday evening. Con-Vaughan winning high score and Mrs.

O. T. Gant, second. Delicious refreshments were served at a late hour.
Those present were: Mesdames Julius Ruble, Walter Litzenberger, O. T. Gant, E. A. Walker, D. B. Estes, Paul Trojel, Ray Vaughan, C. M. Gray and the hostess.

Job's Daughter, Bethel 15, held an lection Monday evening for a new narshal, as Miss Margaret Stewart ed marshal; Jean Laird was elected guide, and Donna Dean Bosserman, junior princess. Installation of the officers followed with the following ing officer; Joy Norton, installing sec-retary; Muriel Davis, installing musithe purpose of inspection. The Marshfield Bethel will meet with the Coquille Bethel for a six-thirty o'clock potluck dinner. The ritualistic work will be exemplified in the Lest Sunday afternoon Mr. and Mrs. M. Schroeder gave a birthday party with refreshments for their daughter, Catherine. Guests arrived at two o'clock and played games until four when refreshments were served. Girls and boys attending were: Jane Koenen, Flo Young, Le-land Sutton, Rodney Waterman, War-ren Hathaway, Catherine Schroeder.

Calling cards, 50 for $1.00.

"Sky Giant" Teams Three Stars in a Whirlind Chronicle of Daredevil Fliers

Richard Dix, Chester Morris, Joan Fontaine Co-Starred In Tempestuous Romance and Adventure Among The Dangerous Heroes Of Modern Aviation ---At Roxy Tonight, Friday, Saturday

Dealing with the lives and loves of today's airmen, RKO Radio's 'Sky Giant,' stars Richard Dix, Chester Morris and Joan Fontaine in a gripping story of test flying and the dangerous work of skyway exploration.

bridge club Thursday for one o'clock luncheon. The house looked lovely with bouquets of fall flowers. After a most delicious luncheon, contract their intricate training, while a hazardous mapping flight for a new air route across the Arctic wastes provides many of the picture's dramatic thrills.

> Dix has one of the top roles as a happy-go-lucky transport pilot who, against his will, is grounded and comarmy officer, operate a big flying school. Carey's son, played by Morris, secretly enrolls at the school and at once is in conflict with the older man's stern ideas of discipline.

Joan Fontaine creates much of th trouble when both Dix and Morris fall in love with her. The rivalry between them carries on into the air when the two men, along with Miss Fontaine's pilot-cousin, are assigned to fly a big transport across the Arctic to Russia in surveying a proposed new dying, to the coast and safety. How play from his own original story.

this valiant effort succeeds and its results on the romantic complications pelled to aid Harry Carey, a retired of the story, make for a powerful

Many of the scenes in the picture were actually filmed at one of the largest aviation schools in California, and disclose in vivid fashion the rigorous training that fledgling fliers undergo before they are allowed to take modern transport planes off the ground. The dramatic occurrences of the perilous Arctic flight forcefully reveal the perils that aviation's trail-

The cast includes such notable The crippling of the big plane in a lonely area of Alaska leads into the dramatic climax, when two of the survivors try to bring the third one, with Lionel Houser writing the screen players as Harry Carey and Paul

Flying at a perileus height which demands their breathing exygen are Chester Morris (left) and Richard Dix in this scene from RKO Radio's "Sky Glant." The two stars appear as daring pilots who attempt to chart a new route to Europe. Jean Fontaine is the third star of the picture and the heart interest of both men.