

(Society Continued)

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Brewer, in West Myrtle Point, last Thursday morning, their daughter, Miss Paula, was united in marriage to Wayne Cook, son of Mrs. Jan. A. Cook, of Klamath Falls.

T. B. MacDonald, of Port Orford, performed the ceremony in front of the fireplace, which had been lit with autumn leaves and flowers, at a candlelight service.

The bride was attired in a gown of blue chiffon and her sister, Helen, as bridesmaid, wore yellow chiffon.

The groom was attended by his brother, Troy Cook.

A wedding breakfast was served at the conclusion of the ceremony, those present at both being Mr. and Mrs. Troy Cook, of Klamath Falls; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Brewer and daughters, Eleanor, Helen and son, Ben; Sam Brewer, Mrs. M. E. Bennett, Miss Dorothy Bennett, Mrs. E. W. Schaad; Mrs. J. B. Busch, of Coquille; Mrs. T. B. MacDonald, Mr. and Mrs. Roy S. Nelson, of Selma.

Following the breakfast, the happy couple left on a trip to the north. They will make their home in Corvallis, where the groom is a senior this year in O. S. C.

Mrs. George Johnson was hostess to the Neighborhood Club for one of its regular meetings last Tuesday. The rooms and table were lavishly decorated with bouquets of fall flowers. Cards and letters were played during the afternoon. Mrs. C. V. Carmichael was high score player and Mrs. L. A. Gross, consolation. Those present were: Madamess E. P. Lawrence, Fred Hudson, C. V. Carmichael, George Hillbrook, L. A. Gross, Fred Jensen, I. A. Larson and the hostess.

The "Pines Club" met at the home of Miss Beverly Horton Tuesday evening for a social time of getting together. After a pleasant evening of singing, chatting, etc., delicious refreshments were served. Those present were: Ann Hawkins, Jean Lohd, Jeanne Clesteros, Donna and Mary Jane Dunn, Margaret Smith, Barbara Leslie and the hostess.

Secretary of State Earl Small, who is a candidate to succeed himself, knows the knotty problems of labor and business since most of his life has been spent with both, a brief biographical sketch reveals.

Born in Olen, near Arlington, Oregon, he was educated in the grade and high schools of Arlington and in the Oregon Institute of Technology, Portland. Although still a young man, he has worked on a country newspaper, worked in a garage as a mechanic and has owned farms and an automobile agency at Arlington.

With this background, his supporters are confident that he will be able to meet the many business-labor problems of today. His friendliness toward labor earned him the unqualified endorsement of the Oregon State Federation of Labor several weeks ago.

At an interesting meeting Saturday evening at the home of Earl's supervisor, Mrs. Ray Fox, the senior Dunning Music Club, elected Phyllis Busch chairman and Margaret Ann Wilson, reporter. Mary Alice Nosler acted as hostess for the group and the evening's entertainment was planned, and supervised by Margaret Ann Wilson. Regular monthly programs are planned by the club, and printed yearbooks will be one of the season's interesting features. Those attending the meeting Saturday night were: Jeanne Knight, Margaret Ann Wilson, Phyllis Busch, Mavis Tyrrell, Mary Alice Nosler, Helene Gage and Alys June Fox. Guest members included Betty Emery, Kay Leslie, Harriet Tozier and Glenda Clinton and the club adviser, Mrs. Fox.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Neils and Miss Jean Neils, of Portland, were weekend guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Beyers, leaving Sunday for points south. Mr. Neils is connected with the forestry department, while Miss Jean is in the employ of Federal Savings and Loan Co. Both are on their vacations.

Attention W. R. C. The Department Inspector will be in Bandon Friday, Oct. 7, for an all-day meeting, potluck dinner at noon.

Junior Women Not $93 At Sale

At the regular meeting of the Junior Women's Club held in the Pioneer Methodist church Monday evening it was announced that $93.25 was cleared from the rummage sale held last week. This money is to be used by the club for general expenses and for the benefit of the public welfare department of the club. The rummage sale committee headed by Mrs. T. T. Denison, wish to thank all who assisted the club with the sale. The committee believed that advertising in the local papers helped greatly in making the sale a success.

Mrs. R. E. Harbison gave a very interesting report of the International Florists' convention, which was held in Portland this month. She held of the styles designed by florists for both formal and street wear. They prophesy fresh flowers to complement the new "upward sweep" hair styles.

Miss Alice Early was appointed public welfare chairman and will represent the club at the civic meeting October 5. After the business meeting a very interesting program was presented, Mrs. Lewis Whitshire in charge. To prove that "Fashion is Splendid," the girls modeled dresses worn years ago, many of them being similar to those worn by the models at the Crystal Palace in London. The members who modeled the dresses were: Madamess Alberta Brandon, Esther Harbison, Eunice Barrow, Jennie Chisholm, Misses Irene and Blanche Sandon and Grace Killipson.

The club voted to hold a Harvest Dance some time in October. Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting by Madamess Harold Gould, Wm. Barrow and Eric Tucker, to the following members and guests: Madamess Martin Brandon, Lloyd Wood, R. E. Harbison, Harold and Tom Stevens, Craig Perrot, Dale Elliott, Dennis Waggoner, Alton Cassasa, Geo. McClellan, Stanley Ayers, Ted Hornacker, Kenneth Housinger, Lewis Whitshire, D. G. McEniry, Herbert Schroeder, Henry McCas, Wm. McKnight, O. A. Hughes, Chas. Kash, Fred Grant, John Chisholm, Chas. Porter, Misses Vesta Milley, LaVerde Kalla, Marjorie Knight, Madamess McKeown, Vera Stubbfield, Blanche Cady, Grace Killipson, Margaret Belloni, Aloha Allen, Georgianna Johnson, Carol Young, Joanne Perrott, Eileen Harris, Blanche and Irene Sandon, Barbara Richmond, Jean McNelly, Alice Early and the contact chairman, Mrs. J. Arthur Berg.

The ladies of the Episcopal Guild met in the Parish House Wednesday afternoon for their regular meeting. A social time was enjoyed with sewing and chatting, followed by refreshments, served by Mrs. C. T. Selbig and Mrs. R. L. Stewart to the following ladies: Madamess Ida Owen, F. L. Greenough, C. J. Fuhrman, Geo. Laird, W. H. Mansell, L. H. Hazard, Jas. Watson, J. S. Barton, Ed Lorenz, G. A. Ulett, F. S. Emery, Muri Pettit, Annie Robinson, J. A. Lamb, H. A. Young and Rev. Geo. R. Turney. The ladies are planning a parish dinner at six-thirty o'clock next Tuesday in the Guild Hall.

Ethel Whited is reopening her dance studio in the I.O.O.F. hall next Tuesday, Oct. 4, and will have classes in tap, character, Spanish, ballroom and acrobatic dancing. A schedule of the hours for each class appears elsewhere in this issue. Tuesday will be the day each week.

Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Nosler are expected home today from a business trip to Portland on which they left Monday morning.
