

Coquille Goldens Ready For Fry With Marshfield Here Saturday

Still smacking of their win over the Newport goldens last week-end, Coquille high school players will formally open the 1935 season on its home field here Saturday at 2:30 p. m., when the champion clash with the Marshfield high team in the first conference game of the year.

Although the game at Newport brought out many of the youngsters the boys had and the play was ragged at times, Coach Leslie this week has ironed out a great many of these faults.

Chief weakness Saturday were the lack of experience of the boys, ragged blocking, lagging offense but fairly good defense. Although the boys lack veterans, the decisive win over the Newport aggregation did show that they had push and drive this early in the season and with the polishing off of a few minor details should await the Marshfield entry this Saturday.

Church Repairs

The roof job on the Episcopal Church was completed this week by Wm. Berry and is a part of the program planned to put the entire building in a state of repair. Plans to remove the steeple were reconsidered in view of the fact that the Baptist bell is the only one regularly rung in town and many townspeople express enjoyment of the traditional ringing of bells on the Sabbath.

Work on the primary room is being undertaken at present, the floor having been finished and musical instruments throughout the church having been tuned and repaired this week.

NOTICE

SOUTHERN PACIFIC COMPANY hereby gives notice that on the 30th day of September, 1934, it filed with the Interstate Commerce Commission at Washington, D. C., an application for a certificate of public convenience and necessity permitting abandonment of operation under trackage rights over a line of railroad owned by Coos Bay Lumber Company extending from Milepost 794.515, at or near Myrtle Point, to Milepost 813.895, at or near Powers, a distance of approximately 19.38 miles, together with the operation of all sidings, spur tracks and appurtenances thereto, all in Coos County, Oregon.

Hepburn and Grant Bring "Holiday" Joy to The Roxy

Columbia's "Holiday" with Katharine Hepburn as Linda Seton and Cary Grant as Johnny Case, comes to the Roxy Theatre for a three-day engagement on Sunday. The film, directed by George Cukor, is based on the highly successful Broadway stage play by Philip Barry.

"Holiday" is the story of modern youth challenging an older generation. The boy is perfectly willing to work hard at his career, but only until such time as his career has reached the stage where he can retire. And if he can't retire while he's still young, he'd just as soon not have a career. He wants to know what makes the world tick.

The girl is a daughter of wealth and position. Tired of the sham and pretense of her life as a debutante, she is frantically searching for something to absorb her.

The Philip Barry play was a brilliant success. Donald Ogden Stewart, one of America's greatest humorists, collaborated with Sidney Buchman, who wrote "Theodora Goes Wild," in adapting the Barry drama to the screen.

Advance reports state that Miss Hepburn has never brought a finer characterization to the screen. Miss

Scouts Have Very Successful Meeting

The social hall of the Pioneer Methodist church was the scene of an exceptionally fine banquet Tuesday night when the Boy Scouts of troop No. 65 entertained their parents, friends and prospective members.

About seventy covers were laid at the long tables, over which J. L. Smith, scout committeeman, presided as toastmaster. Interesting addresses in various phases of scouting were given by B. W. Dunn, school superintendent; C. C. Farr, judge of the Scout Court of Honor, and Robert Nelson, new member of the high school faculty and an Eagle Scout of twelve years' experience.

R. T. Slater, scout committeeman, and Rev. Howard Graybeal, troopmaster, also were active in the festivities of the evening as were other townspeople interested in the movement. Throughout the evening Kenneth Lawrence, senior patrol leader, furnished excellent music for the enjoyment of the guests.

Money was raised during the course of the evening to purchase the Widtmyer cabin on the North Fork of the Coquille river near Fairview for a scout camp. This is the site of the new unnamed transient camp.

A Court of Honor will be held next Tuesday evening in the American Legion Home, with C. C. Farr acting as judge. Awards and advancements will be made and merit badges presented to those who have earned them.

City Police Court Cases

L. C. Belleu, who refused to let a friend drive his car home last Sunday evening, when he was not in condition to drive, was arrested by the local police, and then forfeited the $10 bail posted for his appearance.

Leon Royden, charged with disorderly conduct Sunday, also failed to appear and his $5 bail was forfeited.

Warren D. Fish, arrested Monday for speeding on the Henry street bridge, having no tail light, and for disorderly conduct, demanded a trial which was held yesterday. He admitted speeding and was fined $5.

John Darling is serving five days in the city bastille, having been fined $10 by the recorder yesterday.

Coquille Eagles

A large attendance was present at the regular meeting of Coquille Aerie 2199, F. O. E., last Thursday evening and it was truly an interesting meeting from start to finish. With fun mixed in with the business, there was not a dull moment during the entire session.

Several committees reported favorably on their various duties. The fact was brought to the attention of the Aerie that only two Aeries in this state were given publicity items in the Eagle magazine and that the local Aerie was one of them.

The club has been installed and the landing received at the city docks so that it is now possible to launch and dry dock boats there. The movement to do this work was started and directed by our order, who also contributed its share toward the expense, together with several civic organizations of Coquille. The members and officers of the Aerie are grateful for the ready and splendid co-operation extended them on the project.

A committee is busy doing up plans to furnish some real entertainment at the regular business meetings of the Aerie. You brothers who have been lax in your attendance had better start showing up or you are going to miss something good.

We are glad to report that Brother Kirk Shalzer, who took a fall from the roof of the building while engaged in recovery in spite of serious injuries sustained. And not to be outdone by a brother Eagle, Mrs. A. Kye, of the Ladies Auxiliary, took a plunge down the steps of the I.O.O.F. hall as she emerged from the Auxiliary room. In spite of several stitches taken in her head, and body bruises and a "game leg," Sister Kye was on deck for the regular meeting of the Auxiliary the following Thursday—which all goes to show that you can't keep a good Eagle down.

The Eagles' popular dances have been resumed after a short lay-off and are again going good. See you all next Thursday—"I hope, I hope, I hope."

Adult Education Meetings Slated

The night classes being held at the Washington school are increasing steadily in enrollment. The program to be followed, beginning Oct. 3, has been outlined as follows: Monday, 7:30-8:30, beginning Latin; 8:30-10:00, advanced beginning Latin; Tuesday, 7:30-8:30, social problems; 8:30-10:00, English; Wednesday, 7:30-8:30, Foundation English; 8:30-10:00, public speaking; Thursday, 7:30-8:30, English usage; 8:30-10:00, composition, oral and written; Friday, 7:30-10:00, theory and practice in play production.

This program is subject to change to suit the convenience of the majority but seems to be the most logical arrangement at present. All people interested in taking part in dramatic productions are urged to be present Thursday evening, Sept. 28, at seven o'clock. A play, comedy type, has been chosen and several character parts are yet to be filled. If there is demand, another play will be started at once. Aside from being real fun, this part of the program is beneficial to anyone taking part, giving them stage presence, freedom of action and excellent practice in the art of expression.

The text being used for public speaking is "The Basic Principles of Speech," Barrett and Foster, and contains thorough training in every branch of public expression. The class meets this week, Friday, Sept. 30.

The classes meet from 7:30-10:00 Monday through Friday. All adults over 16 years are welcome.

Hess Club Meets

The "Hess for Governor Club" met at the city hall in Coquille, Sunday with Chairman Henry Gustafson, of North Bend, presiding.

This club is sponsored by the democrats of three counties and it will conduct the general campaign for the democratic nominee.

At this meeting a constructive campaign was outlined to be carried out for the election of Henry Hess for governor of Oregon.

Mrs. Ruby Zeller, of Eastside, was appointed by the state women's democratic chairman to organize the women of this district. This campaign will be carried on at once. Any woman in these counties who is interested in this campaign should write to Mrs. Zeller.

Miss Alice Oerding, of Coquille, was elected secretary, after the resignation of Mrs. Ruby Zeller, of Eastside.

The next meeting of the club will be held at the city hall in Coquille Sunday, October 3. All committee members are requested to be present, as this is to be a very important meeting. Everyone is invited to attend. Alice Oerding, Sec.

Heights Club Gives Funds For Children

The sum of $225.00 realized from the sale of a lot owned by the Sanford Heights Community Club was presented to the school board last week in order that children who live on the Marshfield highway may be safely transported from school, during the remainder of the year.

The property, bought a decade ago with a view to erecting a community building, was purchased by M. D. Sherrard, whose place it adjoins, and the board of trustees, consisting of Mrs. John Martin, chairman, Mrs. Sherrard and Mrs. Vernon Smith, acting for Mrs. John Belloni, decided to dispose of the fund in a manner most beneficial to the children of the community.

Since the highway department felt it impractical to construct sidewalks along the road, the money was turned over to the school board.

The board allocated funds to take the youngsters to school in the morning, but had been unable to find a means of returning them at night, due to the fact that the different grades leave school at various times, and the available buses are otherwise occupied.

However, a Buick sedan, operated by Mrs. Harry Hubbell, makes numerous trips, delivering almost all the children home by 7:30 p. m. and the high school each evening.

The efforts of Mrs. John Martin, who has tirelessly campaigned for four years to obtain safe transportation for the children, are greatly appreciated by the entire community.

Social Notes

Mrs. Harry Slack entertained with a one o'clock luncheon Saturday in honor of her sister, Mrs. Ralph Cahn, of Portland. The house was attractively decorated with fall flowers. After a most delicious luncheon, the ladies chatted, etc. Those present were: Mesdames Ralph Cahn, A. J. Sherwood, L. A. Liljeqvist and daughter, Ingrid, of Marshfield, Luchay Bonney, E. E. Leslie and J. A. Lamb.

Little Diana Schroeder celebrated her third birthday with a party Wednesday afternoon from three to five o'clock. The youngsters had a grand time playing games and then gathered around a most attractive table laden with good things to eat. At each plate was a favor and an individual cake inscribed with name and a tiny candle in the center. Those enjoying the party were: Rosemary and Roberta Rickard, Mary Jo Schroeder and Donald Laird, all of Myrtle Point; Jane Gould, Nancy Perrott, Carol Ann McEniry, Jimmie Hatcher and Diana. Several mothers came and assisted the youngsters.

"Bergen's Better Blossoms" — a household word in Coquille.

Three couples from Coquille attended the dinner dances given by the Gold Beach Lions Club Saturday evening, following the presentation of a charter to the new club. There were five couples from Marshfield and several from Myrtle Point. Those going from here, who also spent the week-end at Gold Beach were: Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Artell, Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Rackleff and Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Harrison.

Mr. and Marion Clayton, their two sons, and his father, E. M. Clayton, returned last Wednesday evening from their five weeks' trip back to Illinois and Indiana, where they visited relatives. They had a most enjoyable trip and managed to miss any very hot weather.

Messrs. Ben Atkinson and Harry Ross are making good progress on the addition they are building to St. James Episcopal church and will soon have the roof on, as well as the covered passageway completed between the church and the parish house.

The J. L. Smith family drove out to Eugene Sunday taking Don back to the university to resume his studies. They also visited J. L.'s brother in Albany before returning home that night.

Schiller B. Hermann was a Coquille visitor Monday and Tuesday, attending to business interests here.

Clinic Planned For Crippled Children

the state relief committee in conjunction with the county relief and health unit will hold its first diagnostic clinic for crippled children in Coos county at the Wesley Hospital, Marshfield, Oregon, on Thursday, October 27th.

The clinic service will be available to any person under 21 years of age who has been referred to the clinic by his family physician. The family physician will decide whether or not the patient can be helped by coming to the clinic. Those desiring to come to the clinic should see their family physician first. The clinic is for diagnosis only. The medical profession is invited to attend the clinic. If any doctor who refers a case to the clinic is unable to attend, he will be given a written report of the diagnosis.

The definition of what constitutes a crippled child is very broad. It includes any deformities in bones, muscles or joints and also such conditions as cleft palate, harelip and burn contractures.

Dr. John F. Abele, of the Crippled Children's Division, will be assisted by Dr. Charles R. McClure at the clinic. Two orthopedic nurses will be available to assist the Coos County Health and Relief unit personnel.

Those crippled children who have been treated at Doernbecher or Shrine hospitals are asked to get in touch with their physician or the health unit, so that they may be re-examined without having to go back to Portland.
