Ladies Attend Rotary Luncheon Yesterday

The ladies were very much in evidence at the weekly luncheon of the Rotary club at the hotel on Wednesday.

First Mrs. C. V. Smith was present to extend an invitation to the annual fall luncheon of the Coos County Health Unit at the Chandler hotel in Marshfield Friday noon of this week. Then Miss Inez Rover rendered two delightful piano solos, the prelude from "Cavalleria Rusticana" and "By the Waters of Minnetonka."

Mrs. Geo. Bryant and Mrs. Gladys Gano of the B. & P. W. club were also present and were introduced by Clarence Osika, who made special reference to the fact that the club and Coquille was honored by having not only the president of the state federation of B. & P. W. but the only woman in Coquille entitled to wear the emblem of the famous Cavernem of Oregon. He was inclined to be a bit facetious about the latter until he recollected that Mrs. Bryant was also chairman of the local school board.

Mrs. Gano gave an interesting outline of the club's activities with their loan fund in helping girls in their efforts toward higher education.

Mrs. Bryant gave a very enlightening talk on the objects and activities of the club. She also referred to the fact that American women were so much more fortunate than those of many other countries by being able to participate in those activities.

Other guests present were William

WHAT'S A "SNEAKER"?

A SNEAKER as Hollywood defines it, is a picture which, when started, is thought to be only ordinary or passably good—but somewhere along the line of production an undefinable something happens, no one is able to tell how, why or where—and the picture when completed is discovered to be an absolute "KNOCK-OUT!"

The first and undoubtedly one of the greatest SNEAKERS was "THE COVERED WAGON." Some of the later and better-remembered SNEAKERS are "PENTHOUSE," "THIN MAN," "IT HAPPENED ONE NIGHT," "MR. DEEDS GOES TO TOWN" and "THEODORA GOES WILD."

NOW WE COME TO THE LATEST AND TO WHAT WE THINK TO BE ONE OF THE GREATEST SNEAKERS OF THE PAST FIVE YEARS.
